

GERMANS RETAKE CITADEL FROM THE SPARTACANS

Gain Upper Hand in Magdeburg; City Is Reported Quiet

Berlin, April 10.—A dispatch to the Vossische Zeitung from Magdeburg says that government troops have recaptured the citadel and military headquarters from the Spartacans.

The insurgents have occupied the bridge over the Elbe, which they propose to blow up.

The city of Magdeburg is comparatively quiet, according to the latest reports, and there has been no occasion for real fighting against the insurgents.

The Brunswick correspondent of the Lokal Anzeiger reports a general strike and a strong movement in favor of proclaiming Brunswick a Soviet republic.

At a mass meeting yesterday, the correspondent says, former President Merges in a speech urged a union with Soviet Russia as the only salvation for Germany, which is on the verge of a precipice.

Amid the plaudits of the Merges, he demanded the immediate proclamation of a Soviet republic and a union with Russia and Hungary.

Great Discovery! Eat, and You Won't Be Hungry

Copenhagen, April 10.—According to a Vienna telegram, says the Central News, a leading doctor of the Medical Society, in Vienna, read a paper demonstrating the presence of a hunger germ in the bodies of victims of the present famine in Austria.

Experiments showed that this germ attacked the bones of the body, and the only remedy the doctor could suggest was phosphorus dissolved in cod liver oil, together with constant and ample nourishment.

FOUR GENERALS ARE SHIFTED IN AMERICAN ARMY

Millions of Dollars' Worth of Materials to Be Sold to the German People

Coblenz, April 10.—The commands of four generals in the American army of occupation have been shifted according to an announcement made today at Third Army Headquarters.

General William G. Haan, who commanded the Thirty-second Division since it entered Germany, is designated chief of the Third Army.

Since the American Army has occupied this section of Germany, General Haan has been a corps commander. Brigadier Generals Adelbert Cronkite and Charles H. Muir, also Third Army Corps commanders, were assigned to their old divisions, the Eightieth and Twenty-eighth, respectively.

Millions of dollars worth of material abandoned by the German army will be sold to civilians in the American occupied area under United States army regulations, it was announced today, upon receipt of authorization from American general headquarters.

The material consists of several hundred thousand wooden-soled shoes, with paper uppers; paper harness, cooking utensils, wagons, carts and vast quantities of other articles not assets to the German artillery establishment.

RIGHT TO VOTE IS PROMISED WOMEN BY REPUBLICANS

Mrs. Medill McCormick Declares She Is Assured of Bill's Passage

Philadelphia, April 10.—Assurance "on behalf of the Republican party" that the suffrage amendment would be passed by Congress within two weeks after it convenes was given the delegates to the annual convention of the Pennsylvania Woman Suffrage party, which opens today, at their annual banquet here last night by Mrs. Medill McCormick, president of the National Woman's Republican committee.

Mrs. Richard Aldrich, of New York, representing the National Women's Democratic committee, said she was not going to prophesy about the passage of the federal amendment. Democracy, she declared, has always held to the idea of state's rights and was inclined that way on the suffrage question.

Women are already politicians, she said, and now that they seem to have gained their point and about to gain the franchise they must look forward another step; they must help to make the policies.

"I have learned not to be grateful to parties until they have delivered the goods," said Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, national president of the suffrage party. "I will not thank the Republican party in the person of Mrs. McCormick for the promised franchise, nor the Democratic party for the gift of the franchise but two men in Pennsylvania belonging to the Republican party, I remember that I have a ranking grievance."

Nearly $25,000 was pledged at the banquet to carry a suffrage campaign in the State.

CONFERENCE POSTPONED State compensation officials today announced that the conference on the proposed compensation amendments drafted by officials of the board scheduled for Harrisburg on April 15 has been postponed to Tuesday, April 22 at 2 p. m. in the Supreme Court Chamber.

The change is understood to have been made because of the legislative recess.

Formal Order Issued to Go Back to Old Rates

The Public Service Commission today issued formal orders to the Western Union Telegraph and Postal Telegraph Companies to stop charging or collecting any rates for service rendered within Pennsylvania.

Attorney General Schaffer issued a letter to the two companies informing them of the decision of Judge Kunkel in the telephone rate cases and asking that they make charges conforming to rates approved by the State.

CZECHO-SLOVAKS FACE STARVATION WOMAN DECLARES

Daughter of President Points Out Need For Quick Food Relief

Paris, April 10.—Utter misery, starvation and despair prevailed in the new republic of Czechoslovakia before the Allied governments began to ship food supplies to that country in the latter part of February.

It is not known here whether this situation has been relieved to any large extent by the arrival of flour, milk and other supplies have since been forwarded to Prague and additional foodstuffs were in the awaiting transportation to the Czechoslovakia.

Face Starvation It is stated that, unless help arrived quickly, a million children under six years old were doomed to die; that 2,000,000 children up to fourteen years were in danger of starvation and that the mortality among the old and feeble was appalling.

Separated from the Allied territories on the sides by Germany and Austria, the Czechoslovak republic was, even before its birth, ruthlessly and systematically starved by the Austrians of all foodstuffs and supplies.

When hostilities were suspended, there was in Czechoslovakia no corn, meat, clothing or medicines. The scanty weekly ration of a pound of flour to each person in Prague, the capital, ceased on February 20. Two-thirds of the cattle and pigs of the country already have been slaughtered and the lack of fat is extreme. The supply of milk was only one-third of normal. More than eighty per cent. of the babies of Prague were rachitic, anaemic or consumptive. More than half the patients in the children's hospital died of consumption.

These reports show that Professor Masaryk, the president of the new Czechoslovak republic, who went from New York last winter to assume his duties, faces a herculean task in writing to Lady Muriel Paget on February 19, the president's daughter told her, "father said he hoped you would come. Do come and help us."

Rheumatism A Home Cure Given By One Who Has It

In the spring of 1893 I was attacked by Muscular and Inflammatory rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years I tried every remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and even bedridden with Rheumatism, and it effected a cure in every case.

I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-sought-for means of curing your rheumatism, you will send the price of it, one dollar, but understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when this relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today.

MRS. GREEN NOTES HUSBAND'S CHANGE

Mrs. Mary Green, 1335 Hutchinson street, Philadelphia, whose husband is a machinist, says she can see the big change in her husband's condition since he started taking Tanlac. "He suffered from stomach trouble. His symptoms were shortness of breath and belching of gas with heartburn and water brash. He had no appetite and slept badly. Some nights he had hardly any sleep. The gas would seem to surround his heart and it was difficult for him to breathe. A friend told him about Tanlac. Now his appetite for food has returned and he is a good deal better and sleeps restfully."

The genuine J. I. Gore Co. Tanlac is sold here by Gargas, George's, Kramer's and Steever's, and other leading druggists in every community.

YANKEES ANSWER LOYALTY APPEAL NEAR ARCHANGEL

American Troops Demur at Returning to Service; Told Life Was at Stake

Archangel, April 10.—A company of American troops recently showed some hesitation in returning to the fighting front south of Archangel, declaring that the war with Germany was over, and that the United States was not at war with the Bolsheviks.

The regimental commander told them they were fighting a desperate defensive battle and appealed to them to stick it out. The company then left for the front.

The situation arose when the company named was ordered back to the front after a rest period at Archangel. The officers were informed that the men did not want to go to the front again. They asked to have their arguments answered.

The men contended that they were drafted men conscripted for the war with Germany, which was finished now, that America was not at war with the Bolsheviks, that the entire Bolshevik question was the subject of much political debate and objection in the United States, and that so far as they were concerned they were unable to see why they should be fighting if there was no war.

The regimental commander said that, perhaps, their own lives depended on the fighting on this front and then made his successful appeal, reciting to the men traditions of the American army.

BERLIN SOVIETS DEMAND RELEASE OF SOCIALIST

Prussian and National Governments Put in Predicament by Turn in Affairs

Berlin, April 10.—The resolution adopted at the opening session of the Soviet Congress here Tuesday night peremptorily demanding the release of Georg Ledebour, the Independent Socialist leader, arrested during the Spartacan outbreak, has placed the Prussian and national governments in an awkward predicament. The demand was based upon the fact that Herr Ledebour had been elected a delegate to the congress and the contention that he should be permitted to exercise his duties in that connection.

The chairman of the congress ruled favorably to the independents on a preliminary motion, and a turmoil resulted in which the violence of the recriminations hurled from the left by the radicals caused the majority Socialist members to waver enough to insure the necessary votes to carry the motion. The result was applauded and the officials of the congress had no other choice than forthwith to address messages to the national and Prussian governments, the states attorney, and the authorities of the Moabit jail where Ledebour is confined apprising them of the wishes of the Soviet delegates.

The members of the government were booked to leave for Weimar early Wednesday morning. The Prussian ministry of state is said to be opposed to liberating Ledebour, but the independents propose to press the issue to the extreme limit and hurry a decision, it is indicated by a declaration of Herr Rosenfeld, former Prussian minister of justice and an independent leader. He blandly informed the presiding officials that he supposed it might be taken for granted that they would promptly proceed to comply with the wishes of the delegates so that Ledebour might be able to take part in the deliberations of the congress immediately.

Among the resolutions introduced in the congress is one calling upon the government to appoint five delegates to the congress as members of the German peace delegation.

In addition to the Ledebour case there has arisen that of Dr. Geyer, an Independent Socialist deputy to the national assembly. The Deutsche Tages Zeitung says that the states attorney at Leipzig has requested the assembly to suspend the immunity of Deputy Geyer so that he may be tried for alleged complicity in an attack made during the last Spartacan outbreak in Leipzig, when the independents extorted 400,000 marks from the mayor by threats with army. Dr. Geyer, who also is a delegate to the Berlin Soviet congress, is a radical independent with Spartacan-communist leanings.
