Abolish Game Commission? No! Plead Sportsmen

Passage of the Present Bill Offers Chance For Unlimited Graft," Says Carney; "State Association Bitterly Opposed to Bill Now Before the Legislature"

More than 300,000 sportsmen paid for the privilege of hunting in Pennsylvania last fall. They are willing to pay if they can be assured of game to shoot at. The money is supposed to go for that purpose. With this in mind, Peter B. Carney, foremost promoter of trapshooting, sends out a trenchant protest to-day against the bill to abolish the State Game Commission, now before the Legislature, identified as Senate Bill No. 642. He points out: "The bill abolishes the State Game Commission, the chief game protector takes over administration and execution of all game laws (that it does not abolish), takes over every dollar of the hunters' license fund and all future monies from this fund, retains the tax and lays an iron hand on the sportsmen of Pennsylvania. "The bill establishes a department of conservation under an appointive head with the power of a dictator. The head of this proposed department has the power to stop at gunning for a term of years, can stop trapping on state lands for gunning purposes, can appoint as many helpers, assistants, wardens, etc., as he desires and can fix the amount of salaries to suit himself. He thus has the opportunity of building up the greatest political machine ever instituted in Pennsylvania—or any other state. The wardens, helpers etc., may arrest anyone without warrant and institute prosecution proceedings. "Game interest becomes a secondary consideration under the proposed conservation department. Game fees and fines, together with the hunters' license fund of MORE THAN A HALF-MILLION DOLLARS, are appropriated to the new department if the bill passes. This

Tech Plays First Baseball in Four Years With Palmyra Tomorrow

Coach Albright is rapidly getting into shape a baseball nine that will travel to Palmyra to-morrow afternoon for the opening contest of the season, while Saturday the same aggregation will visit Duncannon to play the team that will represent that town in the Dauphin-Perry League this coming season. It is the first baseball team to represent Tech in four years, and Manager "Birdie" Hinkle is doing well in arranging a first-class schedule for the Maroon toppers. Several players whom the coach had been depending upon will not be able to participate in the opening game until they have their back work made up. Last evening on the island two

Tap on Jaw Causes Death of Insane Hospital Patient

Pittsburgh, April 10.—Struck lightly on the jaw in a friendly sparring match with another patient at the City Hospital, at Mayview, last evening, John Richards, 21 years old, an inmate of the insane department of the hospital, died almost instantly. Authorities at the hospital believe a sudden attack of heart disease was the cause of death, rather than the blow. Coroner Jamison is investigating. According to the report made to the coroner by the authorities, Richards, with other patients, was in line waiting to enter the diningroom when the sparring match took place. Another patient, ahead of Richards in the line, turned and assumed the position of a boxer. Richards did likewise and the pair squared off, Richards making a pass at the other patient. The other man, whose name the authorities have withheld, struck at Richards. It was only a light tap, witnesses say, but it landed flush on Richards' jaw. He dropped and when he did not get up a physician was summoned. Richards, however, had died almost instantly. An autopsy will be performed to establish the cause of death.

Best Boxing of the Season at Motive Power Tonight

Managers Runk and Reindel, the bustling dynamos of the Motive Power Club, figured that they would have the liveliest bill of the whole season to-night at their smart arena, Ettinger, who has enough pugilists on his staff in Allentown to lick the Bolsheviki, was due to arrive with his squad at an early hour, including the demot puncher, Allentown Dundee, a tough, wiry Pennsylvania Dutchman, who is to meet one of his own sort, Tommy Carey, crack Philadelphia lightweight. "A pair of wildcats" assures Reindel and he ought to know. Ettinger will stage another of his stable in the person of Baby Williams, who has been selected to encounter our very formidable Nate Isaacman, one of the likeliest looking boxers who has identified his name with Harrisburg in a long period. Nate is an all-around performer, being an expert dancer as well as a powerful puncher. He is familiar to Motive Power patrons, but he has never met so dangerous an opponent as Williams and this bout will have rare attraction. Williams showed ability in knocking out Segal here recently and Nate will have his work cut out to-night. The third preliminary will be between Dick Gotwalt, of York, and Young Fulton, of Hazleton. Both of these boys have appeared on Motive Power cards and their work proved satisfactory to the fans. Both are clever lads, and should be able to put up a good fight.

AGREEMENT ON SARRE VALLEY IS REACHED

Council of Four Leaves Sovereignty of Valley Unchanged

Paris, April 10.—The Council of Four has reached an agreement on the Sarre valley. The agreement leaves sovereignty over the valley unchanged, but accords to France free duty sufficient coal for the Lorraine iron industry and to replace the production of the mines destroyed in the Lens mining district, with the privilege to the Germans of re-storing the Lens mines and thus relieving the Sarra valley of that charge. This agreement removes one of the most difficult obstacles to the conclusion of peace.

TAINT OF PRISON TO BE TAKEN OFF ARMY OFFENDERS

Plan of Governors Island Commandant Would Absolve Careless Soldiers

By Associated Press.
New York, April 10.—Heavy court-martial sentences of life imprisonment or such terms as twenty and thirty years are reduced to a minimum of months by a plan permitted under Army regulations which has been introduced into the disciplinary barracks at Governors Island by the commandant, Colonel John E. Hunt.

The plan involves a far-reaching scheme by which the soldier-prisoner may not only return to civil life free from the stigma of imprisonment, but better equipped physically and educationally to take up the battle of life.

Number of Offenders Small
The extraordinary small proportion of men convicted of serious offenses in the American Army is emphasized by Colonel Hunt.

"Out of about 4,000,000 men who joined the colors, there are only about 5,000 in the three military prisons at Leavenworth, Alcatraz and here. Under the draft system, we got into the Army a great number of men with criminal records in civil life. We know 5,000 of these by name and half of that number are included in the 5,000 now in the three military prisons," Colonel Hunt said.

One of the principal features of the rehabilitation scheme introduced into Fort Jay under Colonel Hunt is the "honor system." Two companies have been formed of prisoners with good records and these men are put on their honor, without any interference from the prison officials. They occupy a barracks apart from the fort, work under their own noncommissioned officers and even detail their own guards.

Under the educational portion of the prison curriculum, largely in the hands of Y. M. C. A. officials, classes are held in various trades, such as printing, rugmaking, laundry work and electrical installation. There are also classes of a purely scholastic nature, ranging from elementary education to business English, salesmanship and French.

Waist-Line and Double-Breasted Suits For Young Men

The most popular model for young men this Spring is the Waist-Line Suit, and our Clothing Section features this popular effect in many patterns and fabrics that are strictly wool and hand-tailored.

If you want your appearance to count in the Easter fashion pageant—if you have a justified pride in being known as a well-dressed fellow then, this is a very personal message to you.

The variety of styles not only affords an incomparable choice of rich suitings, but all the refined style touches that make these suits distinctive.

Of special interest is the fact that the suits are priced at a fourth to a third less than present prices—because the makers have taken the initiative in the eventual readjustment of the clothing market costs and given us the advantage of their efforts to return to a more normal price level. These savings are convincingly represented in the prices of these handsome new Easter suits.

The waist-line Suits are shown in flannels, worsteds, cassimeres and mixtures. Some have the waist-line effect in the front or back, and others show it front and back.

Then there are smartly designed double-breasted suits that hug the waist.

To-morrow will be a busy outfitting day in the Clothing Section, with Easter only a week off.

We are primed to serve you well.

The stellar bout next Tuesday at the Orpheum will be Frankie McGuire vs. Jack Wolpert, of Washington. Reports from Lancaster to-day say that McGuire, whose home is at Williamsport, looks in more capable shape than ever. He has been working steadily at Erne's gymnasium, training hard and looks fit; has improved 75 per cent, declares Erne. McGuire is anxious to get back the reputation he bore when he was meeting men like Frank Locke, Les Darcy, and Carpenter. Many fight fans will remember this lad's battle in Harrisburg with Freddy Welsh. He was then only 18 years old.

The remainder of Erne's program includes Jack Wolpert, Lancaster vs. Chick Hayes, Philadelphia; Nate Isaacman vs. Young O'Leary, Philadelphia; Johnny Richards, Harrisburg vs. Buck Klara, Lancaster; Black Gunboat Smith vs. Billy Brown, Lancaster.

Star of Stars Will Appear Against Tech in Season's Last Game

"Tommy" O'Brien, a Philadelphia scholastic star, led the Philadelphia Public School League in scoring the past season by registering 216 points in ten games. O'Brien's record was all the more remarkable when it is considered that he was playing with the North East High school team which finished last in the league race. He will play guard to-morrow night at Chestnut street hall against Tech in the closing basketball contest of the year. A record breaking crowd is anticipated for this closing affair, which will conclude with a big school dance.

SEASON'S BEST GAME

The Philadelphia All-Scholastics, who will oppose Tech Friday night at Chestnut street hall, are the pick of the players in the Philadelphia Public High School League. Freeman and Passon, forwards, hail from Southern High. Leopold, at center, is from the same institution. O'Brien, a guard, is from Northeast High, while his running mate, Young, is from the West Philadelphia High school. Poloff, a reserve, is a "stude" at Central High.
