

DEBS IN JAIL, SENDS MESSAGE TO SOCIALISTS

Now Serving Ten-Year Sentence For Violation of Espionage Act

Moundsville, W. Va., April 14.—Eugene V. Debs, many times Socialist candidate for President, entered the West Virginia penitentiary here late last night and began serving his ten-year sentence for violation of the espionage act.

Debs answered the required questions put by Warden Terrill, who assigned the prisoner to cell 51.

Prior to returning to his cell, Debs issued the following statement, addressed to Socialists of America:

"As I am about to enter the prison doors, I wish to send to the Socialists of America who have so loyally stood by me since my first arrest, this little message of love and cheer. These are pregnant days and promising ones. We are all on the threshold of tremendous changes. The workers of the world are awakening and bestirring themselves as never before. All the forces that are playing upon the modern world are making for the overthrow of despotism in all its forms and for the emancipation of the masses of mankind.

"I shall be in prison in the days to come, but my revolutionary spirit will be abroad and I shall not be inactive.

"Let us all in this supreme hour measure up to our full stature and work together as one for the great cause. That means emancipation for us all.

"Love to my comrades and hail to the revolution."

RUSS PEASANTS FIGHTING AGAINST THE BOLSHEVIKS

Aid Allies as Protection to Their Homes and Firesides

With the Americans on North Russian Front, April 14.—In this international army which is fighting numerically superior Bolshevik forces in North Russia, there are mingled with the half dozen or so varieties of uniforms, men who wear no uniforms at all. They fight, as did the franc-tireurs in the Franco-Prussian war and the first minute men of the American revolution, for the protection of their firesides.

They are peasants, bearded or beardless, with nothing to distinguish them from the thousands of other peasants living around them but their guns and cartridge belts. They are the irregular or "partisan" troops and the sentiments they are showing and fighting for in this wilderness of snow and pine trees loom up so patriotically that the government of Northern Russia is beginning to look upon them as the keystone to which to build a Russian state that will be free from Bolshevism.

Know the Bolsheviks These peasants have known the ravages of Bolshevik troops in their villages. They have seen friends executed for anti-Bolshevik activities. They hail the allies as rescuers. In nearly every attack the regular troops make against the enemy one finds these armed partisans, crack shots, going ahead of or along the flanks of the Americans, British, French and trained, uniformed Russians, scout a path or take a pot shot at the enemy.

The point of view of these peasants is this: "The army has not yet been organized; we are robbed and ill-treated by the Bolsheviks; therefore we have to defend ourselves." The peasants in the Kholmogor district, along the Dvina river, have been fighting for four months. Military authorities say they do their work as cheerfully and efficiently as regular soldiers. The Red Guards are helping against the revolted population.

Has Big Effect The appearance of peasants fighting voluntarily against Trotsky's forces has a demoralizing effect upon the Bolsheviks, as it dispels the minds of some of them of the theory that they are being opposed only by "imperialists."

The partisans know that if they are captured they will be shot. But knowing the forest country as city dwellers know their own streets, they are seldom captured. In scouting they are as tireless as wild animals.

The government of the north for a long time did nothing to help the partisans, but now that their usefulness is recognized, they and their families are provisioned, they wear regular soldiers. In December a big delegation of partisans went to Archangel and, according to the local newspapers, this new organization stirred up all the classes of population of the town."

Pessoa Gets Majority for Brazilian Presidency

Rio Janeiro, April 14.—Scattering results on the presidential election received here give a majority to Dr. Epitacio Pessoa, chairman of the Brazilian delegation to the Peace Conference. Dr. Pessoa is opposed by Dr. Rui Barbosa, former Ambassador to Argentina. On account of the difficulty of communication with the interior, it is believed that the definite result will not be known for two or three weeks.

Red Cross Chaplain Praises Keystone Boys; "Finest in the World"

New York, April 14.—"The finest boys in the world" is the characterization of the veterans of the Keystone Division expressed by the Rev. Charles Zelle, former pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Plainfield, N. J., who was a Red Cross chaplain with the Pennsylvania unit from the first day it entered the line until last Christmas. The chaplain took part in the transport of Pennonia with 2,257 troops, mostly from the 6888 Central Postal Directory, who were held in a traveling kitchen, he said, which went with the front line. The second day of the drive at Chateau Thierry, he assisted in doing out food to the victor's divisions, he said, in doing first-aid work, to see if it required any assistance or supplies so that he could return to the front line. But he never left them. Each individual was doing the work of three, he said, and he remained to assist.

Boy Killed by Auto at Bridge Approach

Elph Fryor, six years old, of 1412 Zarker street, was so badly injured when struck by an automobile at the western approach to the Mulberry street bridge yesterday that he died early this morning at the Harrisburg Hospital.

The lad suffered a fractured skull and an operation was performed at the hospital to relieve the pressure, but these efforts failed to save the child's life. Harry and Leon Lowenz, 419 Erie street, in the machine at the time of the accident, rushed the injured lad to the Harrisburg Hospital.

Houston, Texas, Has Labor Shortage

In the midst of a North-wide anxiety over the surplus of labor, Houston, Texas, has a shortage, according to the examiner of the United States Employment Service, who has made a recent survey of the district surrounding Houston.

Carpenters and farm laborers are needed, the report to the United States Department of Labor sets forth. There is a demand for common labor, also, that can not be met. This condition is due to a variety of causes, one of which is a revival of business and a trend toward normal conditions.

Texas, as well as other States in the South and Southwest, has lost many negro laborers, who have sought other locations.

MRS. HEARST, MOTHER OF THE PUBLISHER, DIES

Was Best Noted For Her Interest in Charitable Work

Pleasanton, Cal., April 14.—Mrs. Phoebe Apperson Hearst, widow of the late George Hearst, of California, and mother of William Randolph Hearst, the publisher, died at her home here yesterday after an illness of several weeks. She was 76 years old.

Mrs. Hearst was known throughout the country for her philanthropic work. Mr. Hearst was with her mother when the end came. He was her only child.

Phoebe Apperson Hearst, gently reared, was of those hardy American pioneers who went into the west of trackless desert and dangerous mountains, endured hardships and fought life's battles until won. She shared the hardships and adventures of her husband, the late Senator Hearst, who won millions from mines.

Mrs. Hearst was nineteen years old when she was married. Her husband then was beginning the career that made him one of the most noted figures in western financial and mining circles. She was born December 3, 1842, on a large farm bordering the Merriam river in Franklin county, Missouri. Her ancestors were English and her father was of the Apperson family that settled in Carter county, Kentucky.

She taught school for a time in Crawford county, Missouri, and then, leaving her home in St. Louis and her husband, "went west" with her husband. The route lay by way of the Isthmus of Panama. She worked with her husband and was with him when he located some of his richest mines.

With the success of her husband's ventures and his election to the United States Senate, Mrs. Hearst moved to Washington where she became one of the leaders in the social life of the capital. Beginning in 1888, then followed various visits abroad, including a trip around the world.

Mrs. Hearst probably was best known for her interests in charitable and educational work. Her gifts to the University of California alone are valued at $1,000,000. She included the Hearst memorial mining building, erected at a cost of $500,000, and twenty scholarships for women.

She established and maintained kindergarten schools in various cities and the National Cathedral School for Girls at Washington was one of her gifts.

London, April 14.—According to a report issued by the air ministry last night, the weather conditions are very unsatisfactory for an aerial crossing of the Atlantic and also such a forced landing on the sea would be attended by considerable risk.

Limerick, April 14.—Owing to weather conditions—wind with rain and snow—Major Wood was unable to make his start yesterday in an attempt to fly across the Atlantic. It is stated that he will start from East Church today.

Postpones Flight St. John's, N. F., April 14.—Dense fog and drizzling rain yesterday forced Harry G. Hawker, daring Australian aviator, again to postpone his attempt to fly across the Atlantic in quest of fame and the $50,000 prize offered by the London Daily Mail. Yesterday a blustery southerly wind made a "hop off" impossible.

Hawker plans to begin his adventure at the first signs of favoring wind and weather. The issue will be in the fore of fog and rain so last night it might be a week before the misty curtain lifted, as thick weather is to be expected at this season.

Meanwhile the trans-Atlantic flight is developing rapidly a real race. Encouraged by the delays encountered by Hawker, Captain E. P. Raynham, British aviator, is rushing the work of assembling his Martin biplane which he hopes to have ready in time to take the air at least as soon as Hawker's Sopwith machine "hops off."

It was announced that Raynham would make an attempt to get away on Tuesday afternoon.

The present location of the Harrisburg Auto and Tire Repair Company will be maintained as heretofore to take care of the trade in this end of the city, and will also be enlarged to take care of the large vulcanizing trade that is being conducted by this firm. The new garage on the Hill will be known as the "Liberty Garage."

EXPECT FRANCE TO GET COAL MINES IN SARRE VALLEY

American Delegates Believe Conference Will Grant Her Demand to Operate Them in Perpetuity

Paris, April 14.—Although no authoritative announcement has been made of the terms of the settlement of the Sarre Valley question by the Council of Four, some of the French newspapers claim that France is to have the right of operation of the mines in perpetuity. Other newspapers, however, say this is not exact, and that France is to have the right of operation of the coal mines for a term of years.

According to this second theory, an eventual extension of French control of the mines would depend upon the result of a plebiscite which, according to the supposed terms of settlement would be held in ten or fifteen years.

The interpretation of the settlement by some of the American delegates is that France will get the coal mines in perpetuity.

Meeting Last Night Quite unexpected meeting of the Council of Four was held at 6 o'clock last evening, with President Wilson in attendance. The call for the meeting resulted from Premier WELMAR, April 14.—The Bavarian government has sent Deputy Vogel, of Furth, to Munich as its representative. He is charged with entire civil and military authority in Munich. All the Soviet decrees have been annulled.

The government at Munich was overthrown by the garrison. It is considered probable that Saxony will be the next section of Germany to proclaim a Soviet government. The independents are known to be planning such a move, though parliamentary circles do not believe that the danger is acute.

A general strike has been called in the coal sections of Zwickau and Lugau.

Berlin, April 14.—Sentiment among a large proportion of the people of Munich and of almost the entire remainder of Bavaria is steadily growing against the alleged ruthlessness, incompetence and strange methods and decrees of the Soviet Government. Eberhard Schwinfort, Furth and Augsburg have capitulated to the old regime and disavowed the alluresments of the Soviet which led them temporarily from the fold.

Other towns are expected to return to the old alliance shortly, leaving the Communists to face the opposition of the bourgeoisie in Munich on the one hand and of the peasants on the other.

OVERSUBSCRIPTIONS OF VICTORY LOAN WILL BE REJECTED, GLASS SAYS

Issue Will Call For $4,500,000,000 and Will Bear 4 3-4 Per Cent. Interest; Will Mature in Four Years

Washington, April 14.—Terms of the Victory Liberty Loan are announced by Secretary Glass. They are: Amount, $4,500,000,000; oversubscriptions to be rejected. Interest, 4 3/4 per cent., for partially tax exempt notes, convertible into 3 1/2 per cent. notes wholly tax exempt. Maturity, four years, with the Treasury reserving the privilege of redeeming the notes in three years.

The 3 1/2 per cent. notes to be issued later, also may be converted subsequently back into 4 3/4 per cent. notes.

The 4 3/4 per cent. securities are to be exempt from state and local taxation, excepting estate and inheritance taxes, and from normal rates of Federal income taxes. The 3 1/2 per cent. securities are exempt from all Federal, state and local taxes, except estate and inheritance taxes.

Expected to Be Larger The size of the loan is much smaller than had been anticipated by most financial observers, who looked for an issue of about $6,000,000,000, particularly in view of Secretary Glass' past statements that the loan would be five or six billions.

This will be the last Liberty Loan, Secretary Glass explained, although there will be other issues of Government securities to finance related war expenses. These will not be floated by popular subscription, as were the past issues of Liberty Bonds, which mature in three years.

The coming loan is the only loan since the first on which oversubscriptions have not been accepted in whole or in part.

The ready $5,255,000,000 certificates of indebtedness have been issued, including the current issue, in anticipation of the Victory Liberty Loan, but $600,000,000 of these have been called for immediate redemption. There will remain outstanding $200,000,000 more certificates than proceeds of the Victory Loan, to be met from tax receipts.

Explains Terms Terms of the loan were explained as follows: The Victory Liberty Loan, which will be offered for popular subscription on April 21, will take the form of 4 3/4 per cent., three-four-year convertible gold notes of the United States, exempt from state and local taxes, except estate and inheritance taxes, and from normal Federal income taxes. The notes will be held, throughout their life into 3 1/2 per cent., three-four-year convertible gold notes of the United States, exempt from all Federal, state and local taxes, except estate

The revival of the most famous of the comedies beloved by an older generation of theatergoers, "The Auctioneer," with once more appearing in the notable role of "Simon Levi," the lovable old braggart, will be the notable attraction at night. When Mr. Warfield first appeared in this famous comedy and took New York by storm, it was his initial appearance in the serious drama His Hebrew Theatrical and began his long run, which just passed under the management of Charles Fox. Now, just beginning to dawn on him what remarkable powers for the portrayal of his part he possesses, he is revealing a character study that is well-nigh perfect.

The story of "The Auctioneer" is familiar to most theatergoers and so, for the benefit of the younger generation, it may be related briefly that "Simon Levi," a Jewish peddler's auctioneer and home, building up his fortune begun with his peddler's basket, "The Auctioneer" moves into a Lexington avenue mansion, has a "good time" while it lasts, comes back to his old home, and then has to go back downtown, where he fully begins life over again with his peddler's basket. The story is a most human one and presents situations which call for the sudden transition from broad farce to serious sentiment and tears, which no actor on the American stage to-day can accomplish with such admirable finesse and effect as Mr. Warfield can.

There are several players in Mr. Warfield's company who are well known to the audience. They are: Marie Bates, William Hoag, Louis Hendricks, Harry Rogers, Horace James and Tony Bevan, while others are: Lova Crain, Helen Gorman, Philip, Ida Gropper, Edwin Caldwell and Ethel Saxton.

It was ex-President Taft who wrote to Captain "Eddie" Rickenbacker, as follows: "As a private name, I congratulate you on your opportunity you have had to serve your country and in the glorious way in which you have improved that opportunity and earned the greatest honor of being an American."
