WHAT THEY LEFT HIM It was a chilly morning at Camp Grant that one soldier arose to find his outer garments missing. "Has any one seen my blanket?" he asked in a shivery tone. "No one had. "Any one seen my trousers?" No one had. "Well, anyway, I got a n-n- nice warm pair of s-s-s-suspenders," he said.—From the Raleigh Times.

SNOODLES

Tech Baseball Team Makes Good Start

Tech showed speed and aggression on Saturday by sending in four runs in the third inning of a battle with Duncannon. But Germer slacked up and allowed two passes in the fourth which counted one, and in the sixth "Bud" Bell threw a wrench into the machinery by miffing a fly, responsible for tying the score. The game went to eleven frames when with L. Bell and Smith on base Emmanuel and Fortna singled in rapid succession sending both base runners across the home plate. Emmanuel might have scored also had he not been tripped by the Duncannon third sacker.

VOTE TO DECIDE KAISER'S FATE

Council Will Decide Whether Wilhelm Shall Die For War Responsibility

Paris, April 14.—The Peace Conference as a whole will vote on the question: "Shall the Kaiser be hanged?" That was indicated yesterday when it became known that the committee on responsibility of the war had decided to put the former Emperor's fate up to the plenary council, they having been unable to agree on what should be done with him. France, England and Italy demanded capital punishment; America and Japan dissented. The argument of the United States was that there was no international law sanctioning prosecution of the heads of States. The Japanese could not approve it because of their theory of the divine right of Emperors. London, April 12.—No fewer than thirty varieties of crimes, of which the Kaiser is charged, are enumerated in the list by the sub-committee of the Commission on War Responsibility in Paris. These crimes will blacken the name of Germany and her accomplices for many years. One of the main features is the diversity of the charges, reaching out into every branch of culpability. The list, as received from Paris follows: (1) Massacre of civilians. (2) Putting to death hostages. (3) Torture of civilians. (4) Starvation of civilians. (5) Rape. (6) Abduction of girls and women for purposes of enforced prostitution. (7) Deportation of civilians. (8) Internment of civilians under brutal conditions. (9) Forced labor of civilians in connection with military operations of the enemy. (10) Usurpation of sovereignty during military occupation. (11) Compulsory enlistment of soldiers among the inhabitants of occupied territory.

May Abolish High Court of Baseball, Says 'Czar' Johnson

Dissolution of the National Baseball Commission, the "Supreme Court" of organized baseball, absolute severance of relations with the National Association of Minor Leagues and revision of the players' contracts, eliminating the ten days and reserve clauses, will be the probable result of the $240,000 verdict granted the Baltimore club, of the Federal League, by a jury in the District of Columbia Supreme Court Saturday.

These revolutionary measures to safeguard baseball from all future legal attacks were forecast by Ban Johnson, president of the American League, upon his return from Washington. The American and National leagues, together with their club owners, officials and certain officials of the defunct Federal League, were defendants in the $900,000 suit for damages brought under the Sherman Anti-Trust law.

President Johnson said that an appeal would be taken to the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia, and if necessary, to the Supreme Court of the United States. "The verdict of course, is a blow to baseball," President Johnson said, "but we are not particularly distressed as it was nothing more than we expected under the circumstances. We were bound to appeal no matter what the amount of damages involved were. "We do not want to be charged with operating in restraint of trade; neither do we want the charge of conducting a monopoly hanging over us. We can see a ray of sunshine because of the fact that we can appeal. If the verdict had been brought in our favor, we would have been denied that privilege."

While declaring that he did not care to ridicule the verdict or the Justice of the court, President Johnson said it was regrettable that Baltimore clubs talked like "Lenine and Trotsky."

"You would have thought we were on trial in Russia," the American League executive said. "We were charged with all manner of crimes. The attorneys for the plaintiff referred to me as 'Czar' of baseball and gave the impression that we were on the threshold of a penitentiary."

Orpheum Boxing Show Is to Star McGuire and Mike Uraine

The first bout at the Orpheum to-morrow night will get under way at 8.30 o'clock and from then on, Frank Erbe's program promises to be very fast and exciting. Mike Uraine is called the "fighting cop of Washington" and he showed class recently by breaking even with Joe McCarron for ten rounds. Frankie McGuire is well known here from other days and he is said to be better than ever now. Nate Isaacman will have a tough opponent in Young O'Leary, of Philadelphia; Jack Wolpert and Chick Hayes are well matched; a hard battle is expected from Johnny Richards and Buck Klaus, while Black Gunboat Smith and Billy Brown should contribute some good laughs. The general admission is 50 cents with prices running to $2.00 for the stage.

AROUND THE BASES

Hundreds of sportsmen who would rather angle for the speckled trout than do anything else in this busy world, were preparing to-day to take advantage of the season's opening to-morrow. The last day is August 1, which gives a good long time for the alluring sport. Streams being amply stocked by the State Fisheries Department, and water running high, trout fishing should have a de luxe year is the prediction. Boiling Springs was the Mecca for hundreds and not a trout stream in the locality but promised to have its patrons.

SUNDAY BALL IN TENNESSEE

The Tennessee Supreme Court to-day reached a decision which permits ball, football and water running high. In the suit for forfeiture of the Nashville club charter was sought, but the court held that so-called "blue laws" of 1883 do not apply to baseball as now played. The decision affects three southern league cities—Nashville, Memphis and Chattanooga.

SCHIFF-O'KEEFE

Joe Barrett announced to-day that these two boxers had signed up to get ten rounds on April 23 wherever Barrett decides to hold the bouts; perhaps in the open somewhere near Steelton. Eddie Graney and Nate Isaacman are also matched for the same number of rounds, these being permitted in this state though the custom here has been to stage only six. Schiff and O'Keefe are training conscientiously for this big affair and Barrett assures a stellar mixup.

STRUCK OUT SEVENTEEN MEN

"Swede" Johnson pitched great ball for Lehigh Saturday afternoon against Albright College, not only scoring a shutout, 4 to 0, but he struck out seventeen of the visiting batsmen. Seven of these came in succession in the fifth, sixth and seventh innings. He did not pass a man.

ACADEMY LOST FIRST GAME

Halifax High School shook up the Academy boys, 8-1, mostly by the offensive work of Spahr, shortstop, who batted three home runs. Poor hitting held the Academy to one run, scored in the sixth when Weigle singled and Armstrong doubled.
