CHURCHES HOLD SPECIAL SERVICES Palm Sunday Observed and Series of Holy Week Exercises Begun

Services of praise and thanksgiving marking the entrance of Christ into Jerusalem, were held in virtually every Christian church in the city last night in observance of Palm Sunday.

Among the sermons delivered was that of Dr. Clayton Albert Smucker, pastor of the Stevens Memorial Methodist church, Thirteenth and Vernon streets, at the morning service. Speaking on the subject, "The Coming World Triumphant of Christ," he said in part:

"Jesus Christ comes to humanity with the religion which appeals to the world's common sense. His theme is 'The Kingdom of God.' That kingdom is within you, not in mountain or temple, not in shrine or altar, but in humanity."
