WOMAN'S NEIGHBOR POINTED THE WAY

Mrs. Lizzie Stegmeier, 6804 Chew street, Philadelphia, gives credit to a neighbor for advising her to try Tanlac. "I suffered from lumbago, and had a good deal of pain. I could hardly walk straight and nothing seemed to make me feel better. Mrs. Young, who lives near me, spoke strongly for Tanlac. I consider it my best investment. Now I have the health and no more lameness or pain in the back. My daughter's children are taking Tanlac and are growing into fine specimens."

HOW WEAK WOMEN ARE MADE STRONG

Mrs. Westmoreland Tells in the Following Letter.

Harrison, N. Y.—"When my first child was born I did not know about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and had a very hard time. I read in the newspaper about the Vegetable Compound and when my second child came I took it and was well during the whole time, and childbirth was a hundred times easier. Ever since then I have used it for any weakness and would not be without it for the world. I do all my work and am strong and healthy. I am nursing my baby, and I still take the Vegetable Compound as it keeps a woman in good health. You may publish my testimonial for the good of other women, if you choose to do so."—Mrs. C. Westmoreland, Harrison, N. Y.

CHINESE PAPER PRINTED BY "Y"

Aids in the Movement of the Forces Overseas

Paris, April 14.—One more journalistic by-product of this war is a Chinese newspaper, with a paid circulation of almost two thousand, edited under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. Educational Department by Y. G. James Yen, who worked for some time with the Chinese laborers at Boulogne.

This paper which is rather extraordinary for several reasons aside from the fact that it is the first paper to be printed in Chinese in France, before or during the war, makes it possible for the 150,000 Chinese laborers working with the French, British and American forces to get the news of the world.

Heretofore they have had to depend for news upon the hearsay knowledge of some English-speaking Chinese with positive kindness of some Chinese Y. M. C. A. secretary, who might take special pains to detail to them the day's news.

In a four page sheet, comprehensive of the conventional content of the Chinese workman can get once a week all the news of the world, the Chinese and American, and the last word, political and general, in China.

Outgrowth of Bulletin Three weeks ago, ten thousand copies of the first issue of this paper, "The Red Triangle for Chinese laborers residing in France," as it is called, were taken up so quickly and eagerly by the Chinese that the number has now been increased fifty per cent.

This paper is the outgrowth of a small, weekly bulletin which Mr. Yen, who came to France as a secretary with the Y. M. C. A. in July, first began to publish last fall at Boulogne, where he was in charge of the camp established for the Chinese laborers.

The really extraordinary thing about this paper, something which the Anglo-Saxon eye could never get without aid from a Chinese reader, is that it is the first paper of its kind to be printed in unofficial literary Mandarin.

Most of Chinese literature and all written Chinese for that matter, is written in what the Chinese call Wen-li—the old classical written language, packed with archaic allusions, stereotyped in certain old set forms and phrases, indirect and antique.

Mandarin, on the other hand, the spoken language of the greater part of China, is direct and conversational; in this medium, in direct contradiction of all practice and tradition, the Y. M. C. A. man has printed his paper.

Therefore in the four pages of Chinese picture-like script which go out each week from the offices at 76 rue du Faubourg Saint-Honore, there is compressed by Mr. Yen a digest of the week's news. On the first page in addition, he runs perhaps five hundred words of editorial explanation of the papers' policy, or some generally interesting subject.

Five hundred words in Chinese characters, it may be remarked, occupies about three square inches of space. The editorial was followed in a recent number by a short article on China—which would interest the working Chinese; and on the last and inner page reports from the peace conference, the present state of Germany, the Belgian situation, the latest news from America—in which the Chinese are most interested—and most important of all, the news from home.

French Bride-Elect Travels Incognito Party Across Sea

New York, April 14.—The transports K. I. Luckenbach, Turrialba and Hisco arrived here yesterday from France bringing 2,500 officers and enlisted men, 88 Army nurses and one "negro stevedore" who proved, enroute to be Miss Alexander, bride-elect of the son of Michael Black, of Muncie, Ind., a first class boatswain's mate.

Miss Boyer traveled incognito for the first two days, according to soldiers on the Luckenbach, she became seasick and so pale that her heavy coating of burnt cork failed long to deceive the boat's officers.

She made the rest of the trip in the isolation ward and was turned over to the immigration officers on her arrival.

Her fiancée, who arrived in the "brig" asserts the marriage, which was blocked in France by lack of time to go through the French "red tape," will be solemnized as soon as she can persuade immigration officials to release her and naval authorities to release him.

In addition to Miss Boyer, the Luckenbach brought 19 officers, 2,451 enlisted men of the 52nd Regiment, pioneers, comprising the entire regiment, minus companies I and M. They had made up of New York and Pennsylvania men, served in the area immediately behind the front lines for the last two months of the war, doing construction and repair work under constant shell fire.

RAILROADS TO GET FUNDS FOR MAY

Conference of Bankers With Washington Assures Continuance of Plan

Washington, April 14.—Much of the pessimism as to troublesome times ahead in providing money for immediate needs of the Railroad Administration, is dissipated by an announcement by Director General of Railroad Walker D. Hines, following a conference with railroad executives and bankers, to the effect that the May 1 requirements of the roads would be met through the issuance of Government certificates of indebtedness and that the financial institutions were satisfied that the money could be provided in this manner without causing anything like a serious disturbance of the eve of the launching of the Victory Loan campaign.

This solution of the problem assures the funds necessary for meeting interest charges and dividends of May 1 as well as other pressing obligations of the railroads. According to railroad experts approximately $100,000,000 will be needed by May 1, of which sum $60,000,000 must be in cash. The additional $40,000,000 which must be raised by the extension of maturities, a step which, it is understood, may be taken without harmful results.

As far as could be learned, the definite program adopted at this conference did not look forward to meeting requirements after May 1, this matter being left open for the time being. It was reported that the general feeling among the conferees was that President Wilson would call Congress into special session between May 1 and May 15 and urge upon it the necessity of taking up the problems of the Railroad Administration without a moment's unnecessary delay.

There seemed to be general agreement that, should such a development come about, the general situation would be eased up in all directions, and that with the assurance that Congress was preparing to extend aid within a reasonably short time, an actual crisis could be avoided, even though money would have to be raised from other sources than by Congressional action by June 1.

Part of Atlantic Fleet For Duty in Cuba, Reaches N. Y.

New York, April 14.—The U. S. S. Savannah and nine submarines, the vanguard of the Atlantic battle fleet coming here for a fortnight's holiday after post war reorganization in Cuban waters, slipped into the harbor early to-day.

The bulk of the fleet is expected to arrive Tuesday morning. Headed by the super dreadnought Pennsylvania, Admiral Mayo's flagship, eight other towering battleships, followed by about 80 destroyers four abreast, will move up the Hudson and drop anchor.

Korean Massacres Due to Jap Policy, Declare Representatives

Philadelphia, April 14.—Massacres reported in Korea were characterized as "part of the Japanese policy of military repression and injustice" by Korean officials who came to this city, to take part in the three days' Korean congress, which begins here to-day.

The officials are Dr. Syngman Rhee, secretary of state of the Korean provisional government in Manchuria, and Henry Chung, one of the three Korean delegates to the peace conference at Paris.

A cable late Saturday at the office of the Korean Independence League, from the Korean representative at Shanghai, China, tells of hundreds of Korean men, women and children killed in the rebellion.

Geneva Rejoices Over Its Selection as League Seat

Geneva, April 14.—At a special meeting of the State Council it was reported that a magnificent site on the shore of Lake Geneva and facing Mont Blanc had been chosen for the building which will in future be the capital of the league of nations.

The people of the city are rejoicing over the decision of the commission on the league of nations at Paris, flags being hoisted over buildings and parades being held. The decision has greatly enhanced the popularity of President Wilson and America in the Alpine republic.

Inland Waterways Should Be Operated With R. R.'s, Hines Says

Washington, April 14.—Inland waterway transportation of the United States should be co-ordinated more closely with the railway system, and the relationship of rates adjusted in proportion to the cost and desirability of service, said Director General Hines in a letter to Senator Fletcher and a group of senators and representatives interested in waterways.

The letter was in answer to inquiries from the members of Congress as to the railroad administration's attitude toward waterways, and explained in detail past accomplishments and future plans.

Mr. Hines also proposed that if the railroads go back to private control and the railroad administration is disbanded, the inland waterways be placed under a governmental agency, at least through an adequate experimental period.
