

Reading for Women and All the Family

"When a Girl Marries"

By ANN LISLE
A New, Romantic Serial Dealing With the Absorbing Problems of a Girl Wife

Neal leaped to his feet and stood rigid—at attention.

Fifteen minutes before I had seen Phoebe standing like this with the jade necklace at her feet. And now, with my heart feeling as if it were clamped to the middle of my throat, I turned, knowing what to expect.

But, as a matter of fact, I hadn't known quite what to expect. . . . There in the doorway as I had, of course, gazed—stood Phoebe. But such a different Phoebe.

Above a sophisticated center parting her hair was drawn from her little ears and piled high in a great puff of curls. From these ears, reddened slightly at the lobes, hung her jade earrings. Her lips and cheeks were reddened too, and her wide, wistful eyes were narrowed and hardened by the black lines drawn under them to elongate them. She had wrapped herself in my coral-colored Peignoir and over it hung her jade necklace.

She looked very beautiful and very worldly and very ridiculous, poor baby.

Neal stood staring at her, and for a second she started back. For all their absurd paint, her lips had a childish sweetness and a pathetic droop. In a moment, or two, that was gone. And Phoebe came forward, both hands swung out in a welcome that lost all savor and flavor for the words that rendered it meaningless.

"Lieutenant Hyland! This is a nice surprise," she said in one of those near-cordial voices that sound like a smothered yawn.

Still Neal stared at her, far too much the boy to make this out, and far too honest to pretend that he understood what was Greek to him.

Phoebe thrust up her arms with an accompanying shrug of the shoulders that a motion picture director might have worked long to secure from his star "vamp."

"How embarrassing! The man has forgotten me," she cried. "Anne, do tell Lieutenant Hyland that he's met me before."

I wanted to take her by the shoulders and shake her. I wanted to cry out:

"Fine amateur theatricals! If you've been rehearsing them for the last month, consider that you've made a triumphant hit in this new role and spare us more."

But of course I couldn't do that. However much Phoebe humiliated me,

Neal before me, I couldn't shame her before him or reduce her to the rank of a naughty little girl playing "lady" in clothes borrowed from mamma without permission.

"Oh, Phoebe!" cried Neal. "It was fairly wrong from him, and the honest longing of it seemed certain to break down the barriers of Phoebe's hurt pride, if I decided to get out of the room and leave them alone to find each other again."

"Excuse me," I said. "I must go," and mumbled something about airing the beds.

I fairly ran across the room and, brushing past Phoebe, I noticed that she was awaiting a little on her feet. In another second I would have been gone; but the phone chose that particular moment to shrill out—and never more harshly.

"I'll answer," I stammered, and rushed to the telephone.

"Hello, that you, Mrs. Jimmie?" came Dick West's voice over the telephone. "We just had a long-distance from friend husband. He won't be in till late to-night. I've fixed up another little party for you."

"You and Phoebe will dine with me, then we'll meet my sister and hereinafter in the theater and Jimmie'll join us in the box as soon as he gets in. . . . And now may I speak to Phoebe?"

"Oh, Phoebe, I can't dine with you—or go to the theater. I'm busy to-night, I cried nervously.

"Oh—plans of your own?"

"The invitations Dick West managed to get into those five words made me positively ill.

"My brother's in town—unexpectedly," returned coldly, and Neal spoke to the little girl.

"Bring him along. Show him the city," said Mr. West, with expansive cordiality.

"I'd rather—be with the family, this first night," I said, getting nearer zero every minute.

"Well—that's me. In the business family, and ready to be in the crowd all along the line. I'll fix it with Phoebe. You're coming? Jim will be in a fine way if you're not in the box when he gets there. Now let me speak to the little girl."

All through this conversation I had been annoyingly conscious that there was no murmur of voices in the room, that Phoebe and Neal were silent, pretending politely that they wanted to avoid disturbing me.

"You can't speak to her just now," I said. "Please call again in an hour."

Phoebe darted across the room to my side, inter-

Bringing Up Father

HELLO—JERRY—BY GOLLY— I HAVEN'T SEEN YOUSE IN TEN YEARS—

STRANGE—I HAVEN'T SEEN YOUSE FOR THE SAME LENGTH OF TIME—

THERE'S BEEN A GREAT CHANGE IN THAT TIME—

YES—BUT IT'S BEEN ALL SMALL CHANGE FER ME—

DO YOU REMEMBER THE GOOD OLD DAYS— JERRY—

THEY DON'T HAVE THE GOOD OLD DIME NOVELS ANY MORE—

THEY DO— BUT THEY COST A DOLLAR AN' A HALF!

LITTLE TALKS BY BEATRICE FAIRFAX

Issues Ownership Certificate Guide

An ownership certificate guide for use in the preparation of income tax ownership certificates which are to be attached to coupons when presented for collection, has been issued by the National Bank of Commerce in New York.

The guide reduces to tabular form the provisions of the income tax law regarding the collection of coupons, showing at a glance the form of ownership certificate required in each case and the manner in which it is to be filled out. There are, in connection with these certificates, eight different classifications of owners and twenty-four different ways for making the ownership certificate returns, depending upon whether or not the bonds contain a tax-free clause and whether they are issues of domestic or foreign corporations and countries. The guide simplifies the work of filling out the certificates for all instances.

PLAN EASTER MUSIC

The choir of Market Square Presbyterian Church will give its annual program of Easter music Sunday afternoon next at 4 o'clock. The service will comprise Easter carols, ancient and modern, and will be preceded by a fifteen minute organ recital. The choir is under the direction of Mrs. Wilbur F. Harris, with Mrs. John R. Henry at the organ.

PLAN GETTYSBURG TRIP

Between 60 and 70 soldiers from the Carlisle Hospital will be taken to Gettysburg by members of the Red Cross Motor Service Corps, Thursday. They will be entertained at Gettysburg by the Gettysburg Canteen, Department of the Red Cross at a luncheon, and in the afternoon will be taken over the battlefield.

DAILY HINT ON FASHIONS

A NEW AND PLEASING APRON MODEL

2498—This is such an attractive design, with its semi-fitting lines and trim shape. In front a skirt portion joins the waist in pointed outline. The back is in one piece.

Telegraph Pattern Department. For the 10 cents inclosed please send pattern to the following address: Size..... Patterns No..... Name..... Address..... City and State.....

LITTLE TALKS BY BEATRICE FAIRFAX

Canadian Land Owners to Form Association for Helping Settlers

Winnipeg, Man.—Land owners associations are to be formed at once in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta to co-operate with the Dominion government in planning settlers on farms and developing Canada's agricultural resources.

Can See Self Sing in New "Tonoscope"

[From the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.] A demonstration of the measurement of the musical capacity of persons was given by Dr. Carl Emil Seashore, dean of the graduate college of the University of Iowa, on a class of school children at a morning session of the Music Supervisors' National Conference at the Hotel Statler, Doctor Seashore is also head of the department of philosophy and psychology at Iowa University, and is the originator of a mechanical system for determining the musical capacity of a person.

More Red Blood and Steadier Nerves for Run Down People

The World Demands, Strong, Vigorous, Keen-Minded, Men and Women. It has been said of Americans that they work their habits overtime. Many become nervous and inefficient by overwork.

It is time to be temperate in all things. The man or woman with impaired nerves caused by impoverished blood lacks vigour, the ambition, the endurance and the keen mind of those who avoid excesses.

LITTLE TALKS BY BEATRICE FAIRFAX

Issues Ownership Certificate Guide

Not very long ago New York was treated to an amazing domestic complication. The story included one man and three women, all of whom, by every law of femininity, ought to have hated him and each other cordially.

The ladies consisted of his former wife, his present wife, and another lady who hoped to be his third wife—and all of them loved him. In fact, the trio doted on him with such fervor, that they actually sank all differences, met on a sisterly plane and discussed ways and means of keeping him out of jail. For there were some pretty ugly charges, on the side, and the law grinned a welcome at the popular husband.

But the chorus of wives—past, present and future—rescued him from the room, and with great dexterity, the lawyer getting a divorce in favor of the future, and the past remaining as she had always been—the guide, philosopher and friend of the gentleman and his successive families.

More Red Blood and Steadier Nerves for Run Down People

The World Demands, Strong, Vigorous, Keen-Minded, Men and Women. It has been said of Americans that they work their habits overtime. Many become nervous and inefficient by overwork.

It is time to be temperate in all things. The man or woman with impaired nerves caused by impoverished blood lacks vigour, the ambition, the endurance and the keen mind of those who avoid excesses.

LITTLE TALKS BY BEATRICE FAIRFAX

Issues Ownership Certificate Guide

Not very long ago New York was treated to an amazing domestic complication. The story included one man and three women, all of whom, by every law of femininity, ought to have hated him and each other cordially.

The ladies consisted of his former wife, his present wife, and another lady who hoped to be his third wife—and all of them loved him. In fact, the trio doted on him with such fervor, that they actually sank all differences, met on a sisterly plane and discussed ways and means of keeping him out of jail.

But the chorus of wives—past, present and future—rescued him from the room, and with great dexterity, the lawyer getting a divorce in favor of the future, and the past remaining as she had always been—the guide, philosopher and friend of the gentleman and his successive families.

More Red Blood and Steadier Nerves for Run Down People

The World Demands, Strong, Vigorous, Keen-Minded, Men and Women. It has been said of Americans that they work their habits overtime. Many become nervous and inefficient by overwork.

It is time to be temperate in all things. The man or woman with impaired nerves caused by impoverished blood lacks vigour, the ambition, the endurance and the keen mind of those who avoid excesses.

LITTLE TALKS BY BEATRICE FAIRFAX

Issues Ownership Certificate Guide

Not very long ago New York was treated to an amazing domestic complication. The story included one man and three women, all of whom, by every law of femininity, ought to have hated him and each other cordially.

The ladies consisted of his former wife, his present wife, and another lady who hoped to be his third wife—and all of them loved him. In fact, the trio doted on him with such fervor, that they actually sank all differences, met on a sisterly plane and discussed ways and means of keeping him out of jail.

But the chorus of wives—past, present and future—rescued him from the room, and with great dexterity, the lawyer getting a divorce in favor of the future, and the past remaining as she had always been—the guide, philosopher and friend of the gentleman and his successive families.

More Red Blood and Steadier Nerves for Run Down People

The World Demands, Strong, Vigorous, Keen-Minded, Men and Women. It has been said of Americans that they work their habits overtime. Many become nervous and inefficient by overwork.

It is time to be temperate in all things. The man or woman with impaired nerves caused by impoverished blood lacks vigour, the ambition, the endurance and the keen mind of those who avoid excesses.

LITTLE TALKS BY BEATRICE FAIRFAX

Issues Ownership Certificate Guide

Not very long ago New York was treated to an amazing domestic complication. The story included one man and three women, all of whom, by every law of femininity, ought to have hated him and each other cordially.

The ladies consisted of his former wife, his present wife, and another lady who hoped to be his third wife—and all of them loved him. In fact, the trio doted on him with such fervor, that they actually sank all differences, met on a sisterly plane and discussed ways and means of keeping him out of jail.

But the chorus of wives—past, present and future—rescued him from the room, and with great dexterity, the lawyer getting a divorce in favor of the future, and the past remaining as she had always been—the guide, philosopher and friend of the gentleman and his successive families.

More Red Blood and Steadier Nerves for Run Down People

The World Demands, Strong, Vigorous, Keen-Minded, Men and Women. It has been said of Americans that they work their habits overtime. Many become nervous and inefficient by overwork.

It is time to be temperate in all things. The man or woman with impaired nerves caused by impoverished blood lacks vigour, the ambition, the endurance and the keen mind of those who avoid excesses.

IS THERE NO RELIEF FROM SKIN TORTURE?

Must I Continue to Suffer the Unbearable Itching?

Your hopeless discouragement doubtless comes from the fact that you have tried so many local remedies that gave only temporary relief. After the effect wore off, you found the disease more aggravated than ever.

But there is no reason to despair. There is real rational relief from terrifying, burning skin diseases, a treatment that does give results by going down deep to the very source of the trouble and attacking the disease where it originates.

No matter how many different kinds of salves, lotions, ointments, washes or other local remedies you have tried, you find that such treatment has made no progress whatever toward curing the trouble, and you must realize that it never will.

You must realize that the fiery, burning irritations on the surface of the skin are only symptoms of the disease. Local treatment applied to these irritations can only alleviate the itching—but cannot possibly stop what causes the itching, and the disease will remain with you in all of its severity and with all of its fiery, flaming torture until its cause is located and removed.

The skin is fed by the blood, and as long as the blood is absolutely free of impurities, the skin will remain clear and healthy. Any skin disorder, therefore, has its origin in the blood.

If you will waste no further time on local treatment, but will treat the disease at its source—where it starts—you will soon find that you can be rid of the pain and torture and have a complexion that is ruddy and reflects the glow of a perfectly healthy skin.

S. S. S., the reliable old blood remedy, has always given splendid results in the treatment of skin diseases, because it so thoroughly cleanses the blood that every trace of impurity is removed and the blood supply is kept pure and healthy. You can confidently rely upon S. S. S. for any manner of skin disease, for it has been used for more than fifty years.

S. S. S. is sold by all druggists, and is known to be a thoroughly reliable and honest remedy. Get a bottle and begin taking it to-day, and if you wish any special instructions about your individual case, you can get full advice free by writing to Chief Medical Advisor, 80 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

When Children are Sickly

are Constipated, Feverish, Cry out in their sleep, Take cold easily, Have Headaches, Stomach or Bowel trouble, Try

MOTHER GRAY'S SWEET POWDERS FOR CHILDREN

They are pleasant to take and a certain relief. They act on the Stomach, Liver and Bowels and tend to correct intestinal disorders. 10,000 testimonials from mothers and friends of little ones telling of relief. No mother should be without a box of Mother Gray's Sweet Powders for use when needed. Ask today. The need of them often comes at inconvenient hours.

Used by Mothers for over thirty years.

Do Not Accept Any Substitute for MOTHER GRAY'S SWEET POWDERS. Sold by Druggists everywhere. MOTHER GRAY CO., LE ROY, N. Y.

RUMFORD

THE WHOLESOME BAKING POWDER

Is wholesome and efficient—always gives good results—is uniform in value and inexpensive.

Editor of American Cookery

Is the Health of Your Family Worth The Price of a Refrigerator

Of course it is!

We're trying to impress upon you the fact that winter is past and that if you want your family to be in good health during the coming summer you'll have to safeguard the food they eat against spoiling and contamination.

The very best safeguard is a GOLDSMITH CERTIFIED REFRIGERATOR.

We've a great big stock to choose from—top and side icers—any size ice capacity—porcelain enamel lined, rustproof compartments—all substantially built.

Fifteen different styles of Ice Chests and Refrigerators ranging in price from $12.50 to $65.00

Special Refrigerators at $40.00

This season we are especially featuring the Refrigerator illustrated above—it has an ice capacity of 70 lbs.—5 porcelain enameled food compartments—rustproof inner chamber—of the finest construction—mineral wool insulation—equipped with gun spring locks—just the right size for the average size family. Specially priced at only

$40

By placing your order for Awning and Slip Covers now you can get them when you need them. To delay means taking a chance. Phone us and we'll have a man call to take the measurements.

Time for Porch and Lawn Couch Hammocks and swings, too.

GOLDSMITH'S

Central Penn'a Best Furniture Store
NORTH MARKET SQUARE