THURSDAY, APRIL 17, 1919

When the outer eye grows dim, Turns the inner eye to him, Who makes darkness light, Frair vision you may see, Live in nobler company, And in larger liberty.

INDIFFERENT

THE TELEGRAPH has made an earnest effort to arouse interest in the shade tree need of this city, but we admit failure in securing from the City Council any definite action in the matter of a commission which would have the planning and treatment of shade trees along our streets as its principal business.

Alien enemies interned at different places in the United States for the period of the war are now being turned loose. It would seem that some definite policy should have been adopted regarding these anti-Americans and their future residence in the United States.

OF INTEREST TO LABOR

OFFICIAL figures of imports and exports for the eight months ended February, 1919, show a gain in imports of manufactures for further use in manufacturing and manufactures ready for consumption of $126,000,000 over the corresponding eight months ended February, 1918, and a loss in exports of these same groups of $226,000,000, or a total loss by way of increased purchases from abroad, and decrease sales to foreign countries of $352,000,000, or at the rate of $44,000,000 monthly.

The aggregate value of imports of these two groups during the 1919 period was $220,000,000, compared with $594,000,000 during the 1918 period; of exports, $2,122,000,000 for the 1919, compared with $2,335,000,000 for the 1918 period.

From Japan alone our imports for the 1919 period—eight months—totaled almost $200,000,000, or twice what they came to during the full year before the war in Europe broke out.

Politics in Pennsylvania By the Ex-Committeeman

Important plans in relation to the Penrose fight for Philadelphia legislation were agreed upon yesterday between Senator Penrose and various leaders of the Philadelphia and State organizations.

It has already been said that the Penrose plan was to rush the Woodward charter revision bills through the Senate and get them into the House for the final battle.

—This principle has been extended. It was agreed yesterday that the Brady bills, which have been mysteriously hanging on the second reading calendar in the House for weeks without action, are to be transformed into Senate bills.

WHO DESERTED?

A FEW Democratic newspapers continue to criticize former Senator Bailey of "deserting the Democratic party" in his recent condemnation of the President and his policies.

The President has proscribed the real Democrats of this country, and excludes them from all conferences, caucuses, and assemblies.

Further, Mr. Wilson has declined the advice and aid which big men of all parties would have given him gladly in the recent crisis.

It is little wonder that Senator Bailey has revolted. In doing that, he did only what thousands of other Democrats did last November—repudiate the Wilson policies by going over to the Republican fold.

The rumor from Washington is that there may be some cabinet changes, and if so its a cinch the best men will walk the plank.

CLEAN-UP WEEK

MAYOR KEISTER has given proper expression to the sentiment of every progressive Harrisburger in his proclamation for the approaching clean-up week.

During the war there was a little let-down in the regulations regarding the throwing of debris in the street, but this period is over and the municipal authorities are properly directing their attention to overcoming the indifference of the careless individual.

OH, MAN!

GEORGE YOU SMOKE AN AWFUL LOT OF CIGARS - ONE RIGHT AFTER ANOTHER.

I'VE OFTEN WONDERED HOW MANY CIGARS A DAY YOU CONSUME - I SHOULD THINK YOU'D CUT DOWN THE AMOUNT.

HO-HA-HA! GUESS I'LL GO TO BED.

I'LL BET YOU COULD SAVE A LOT OF MONEY BY LIMITING YOURSELF TO - SAY - ONE CIGAR AFTER EACH MEAL - THEN YOU'D BE ENTIRELY FIT.

GOOD NIGHT! DEAR.

GOOD NIGHT!

BOOKS AND MAGAZINES

"The City of Comrades, is the title of a novel of Basil King to be published immediately by the Harpers. Mr. King here tells the story of a down-and-out-er who pulled himself together and found his soul.

The great number of Smith enthusiasts will be delighted to know that D. Appleton and Company are publishing this week the entertaining Englishman's new novel, "The Undeclared."

James Morgan's Theodore Roosevelt: "The Boy and the Man" (Mac Millan Company), has just appeared in a new edition with new chapters collecting the story of Roosevelt's life.

"His Wife's Job" is the title of Grace Sartwell Mason's new novel, which the Appletons are publishing on April 18.

AN ILL-TIMED MYSTERY

[From the Phila. Evening Ledger.] It is perfectly obvious that the keynote of the coming Victory Loan campaign should be joyous.

Outside such a category fall the lurid posters bearing the ominous inscription, "Beware Poison Gas," and followed by a cryptic interrogation.

KISSES AND BEARDS

It is so easy to understand what the Americans say, because they talk so loudly in the same loudness as of the French, and one day I have laughed to hear in "bus how two girls of the Y. M. C. A. have talked.

Ninety-First Division

National Army of Alaska, Washington, Oregon, California, Idaho, Nevada, Montana, Wyoming and Utah.

Compared with the work hours of the same trades in the United States, the hours of German mechanics are from 10 to 34 per cent. higher.

LABOR NOTES

Pennsylvania miners are seeking an agreement by which all the collieries will operate a certain number of days each week so as to insure equal employment.

In Defense of Policemen

The policemen are a general sized man, with large feet and an extra large nose. With no weapons save an abbreviated club and a high explosive vocabulary, he is expected to control crowds of infuriated citizens.

First Yankee Division in the Argonne

THE 1ST Division was transferred in the second phase of the Argonne Battle, from Cameron's 5th Corps to Liggett's 1st Corps.

Since my return home I have been asked if Belleau Wood was our most brilliant action. One answer: "Brilliant in what respect?"

The 1st was a regular division, the pioneer of our divisions in France, the longest trained; but it was not regular in the old sense, being better than regular to my mind.

When the 1st came out, its losses were more than 9,000 in killed and wounded. Half of its infantry was out of action.

THE LOCUSTS

A great deal of misinformation and much superstition clings to the appearance of the so-called 17-year locust.

A. P. Men in the War

[From the A. P. Traffic Bulletin.] Some of them got to see real fighting. Those who did not, as one of them aptly puts in rhyme, "Simply did as they were told."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

TEACHER PROTESTS

I was sorry to see the enclosed article "350,000 teachers declared unit. Cleveland, Ohio—"At least half the teachers in the United States are not fit to teach.

Educational standards had to be lowered to keep the schools of the United States open during the past year, and it is to maintain the standards we have fought so hard to win that we are asking the Legislature to pass the Woodruff bill.

The Chapel on the Spree

On the right bank of the river Spree, 65 kilometers from Frankfurt. It is not hard to locate this prison camp, just outside the city of Berlin.

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE

Mayor E. S. Huentigler, of York, has designated May 5 as the start of the "week of the week."

DO YOU KNOW

That Harrisburg postal business has shown rapid strides in the last year?

HISTORIC HARRISBURG

Recruits were raised here for St. Charles' army, including some marksmen.

Evening Chat

Every now and then some story about old Harrisburg comes around, and makes you sit up and think what it would be like, if it occurred in our day.

Just get this corner in your head the way it is now. One part is Capitol-park, the commencement of the famous "boardwalk" to the State House.

It seems that in early days the idea of John Harris, the founder of the town, and William Maclay that the knoll should eventually be the seat of the Capitol of Pennsylvania was something well known.

They spent years and years working up sentiment in favor of a capital on the banks around Front and Main before Harris laid out the town.
