TECH'S BIG SCHEDULE WITH BASEBALL AT HANOVER AND MERCERSBURG; TRACK MEET

Baseball Friday and Track Meet SNOODLES Saturday Is the Tech Schedule

Wilsbach and Garrett.
While Mercersburg will be the hardest proposition that Tech has ever run against, it would not be surprising to see Tech win the meet.

Coach DeWire announced the list of twenty athletes who will accompany the Tech team to Mercersburs atturday morning to compete in the afternoon against the Academy team of that place. Included in the list will be Captain Beck, "Zip" Malick, Hoffsommer, "Red" Foland, "Bill" Keane, "Boots" Shue, "Corks" Ebert, "Ken" Boyer, "Loot' Heagy, Blair Hefkin, Strawhecker Shader, "Bill" Harris, Dunkleberger, "Tony" Wilsbach and Garrett.

Stop Silly Talk and Buy Coal

Unless the consumer uses his coal bin this Summer for storing next Winter's supply, he is eith er going to have to pay a higher price for his coal or not be able to get all he wants at any price.

It is to be hoped that all this senseless talk about profiteering in coal would stop and the public would see the coal situation in its true light.

If anything is perfectly clear it is that coal cannot get any cheaper for a long time to come. It is equally clear that coal next Fall will at least cost 50c a ton more than now. Fill your bins.

Telegraph Typos Get Het Up and Take Fall Out of Evening News

When the Evening News typo bowlers sent a challenge to the Telegraph rollers, intimating that Duck Pin was something that the Newsies just inhaled, there was some consternation in the big plant. But Cap. Clouser, who hits 'em where they aint on the diamond, never batted an eye; for he knew something. The game came off last evening at Acadeny alleys and sure enough, Cap. Clouser walked off with a score of 392, passing all contenders, and the Telegraph team was so jazzed up that it won two out of three, as the score shows. Three battles are to be staged; the next at Casino alleys.

BOXING BOARD

Billy Rocap Points Out Danger of Ring Sport Being

William H. Rocap, sporting editor in Fhiladelphia, and an able authority on all athletics, but especially on boxing, is ruthlessly exposing trickery of the ring and calling for a State bureau to take hold of the manly art. Rocap lays the cards on the tabe, face up. He maintains: "Two men in Philadelphia closely identified with the boxing game have identified with the boxing game have placed themselves on record as being opposed to clean sports. Harry D. Edwards, president and manager of Olympia, and George Engel, the matchmaker of the club, are the duo. As Engel is merely a catspaw of the other, Edwards must be regarded as the one mainly responsible for allowing a New England manager who has besmirched the sport to be dumped on Philadelphia. No language is strong enough to condemn a man of the caliber of Ray Cass, manager of Frankle Britt. He was the trusted matchmaker of several New England clubs. Recently Eddie Morgan, of this city, a former featherweight champion of England, was billed to box in Lowell, Mass. A rank substitute was England, was billed to box in Lowell, Mass. A rank substitute was sent by a Philadelphian. Cass was in on the deal. He confessed that. When rounded up he refused to divulge the name of the man whom he was in collusion with. Lowell business men are after Cass, and he has virtually been blacklisted by the New England clubs."

Rocap then relates how Cass begged for a "private" talk with him and how he declined, and proceeded immediately to acquaint the public with what was going on. Says he:

"Promoters and managers throughout the east were implored
