Time Will Be Allowed German Delegates to Make Inquiries

ered, it is intended to allow adequate time for the Germans to make inquiries concerning the details before returning to Weimar. This is expected to take about two days, the first day being devoted by the Germans to familiarizing themselves with the terms, and the second day to the answering of such queries as they may make.

No Discussion There is no purpose to have this assume the character of a discussion, but merely the elucidation of any points which may assist in securing prompt and favorable action when the plenipotentiaries return to Weimar.

Parts, April 18.—The procedure on the arrival or the German plenipotentiaries at Versailles has virtually been concluded. It will be President Wilson and the premiers who will hold the first meeting and deliver the treaty, as it is not deemed feasible to have all the Alled Powers attend this initial session.

The actual arrival of the Germans at Versailles, it is stated, will occur on Friday night, April 25; but the meeting with the President and premiers will not be held until Saturday, and may even go over until Monday.

United States and Great Britain. The French reports are that the guarantees amount to an alliance, and the semiofficial Temps says:

France Gets Guarantee
"Premier Lloyd George's language admits of only one meaning. This is that Great Britain and the United States engage to sustain France in case she is again attacked by Germany. Such an alliance is legitimate and necessary. Mr. Lloyd George would not pronounce such words lightly, and his announcement is singularly instructive."

The Council of Four, which framed the guarantees as part of the Rhine settlement, has thus far maintained a rigid silence, except for the general declaration of Mr. Lloyd George.

A plenary session of the Peace Conference will be held two days next week, on Wednesday and Thursday, for the purpose of passing upon a large number of remaining details before the meeting with the Germans.

addresses and the exhibition of plans for the development of the college grounds and buildings. These plans and drawings were made by G. Edwin Brumbaugh, an architect of Philadelphia and a son of ex-Governor M. G. Brumbaugh, who made the principal address of the evening. Dr. Brumbaugh received a most cordial welcome by the students and friends at the chapel exercises this morning at which time he made a short address. His theme this evening was "Problems of Education in the Post-Bellum Days." "The aim of education is to construct, the aim of war is to destroy," said the ex-Governor. "The one is a blessing to society, the other is a curse to society. The one builds up, the other tears down. The school is the agency pre-eminent that the nation must use to build anew the fabric of national life out of the wreck and ruin of war. In the soil of sorrow and blood the teacher must sow the seeds of the nation to be. "The war has made manifest at least three things; one, education, must be made a vastly more moral agency than heretofore. It must consciously and constructively teach morals. It must insist that the code of conduct for nations is the same as the code of conduct for intions is the same as the code of conduct for international law and the necessity for a League of Nations lie in this fact. "The essence of international law and the necessity for a League of Nations lie in this fact. "Two, the schools must widen its sphere of service, all emigrants and native born must be taught to use the tools of democracy. Intelligence is the basis and the strength of democracy. These tools should be taught in the England language." Cardinal Gibbons Praises American Cotton Salvation Army Work May Go to Finland, By Associated Press Bohemia and Poland

New York, April 18.—Cardinal ibbons praises the work of the Salvation Army here and abroad, in a letter made public by former Governor Charles S. Witman, of New York, chair. man of the National Committee of the Salvation Army Home Service fund.

"I rejoice in the splendid service tion of American cotton to Bohemia and possibly to Finland and Poland may begin in the near future. This was indicated in a cablegram received by Charles J. Brand, chief of the Bureau of Markets, from Bernard Baruch, American member of the Inter-Allied Economic Council, saying that arrangements for such exportation were being made.

"Arrangements are being made," Mr. Baruch cabled, "the result of which I which the Salvation Army rendered our soldier and sailor boys during the war," soldier and sailor boys during the war," said the cardinal. "Every returning trooper is a willing witness to efficient and generous worker of the Salvation Army, both on the front and in the camps at home. I am also the more happy to commend this because it is free from sectarian bias. The man in need of help is the object of their efforts, with never a question of his creed or color." "Arrangements are being made," Mr. Baruch cabled, "the result of which I think will be the getting of cotton into Bohemia. Am aiding in Finland and Poland and wherever possible. No amounts of any siz as yet. The opening up of trade is considered of the most importance."

WARTIME EXPERIENCES MARKED FACES OF WOMEN

oston.—A woman sculptor, when of the war has left any permanent mark on the faces of women, repiled: "There are women whose faces are masks. No artist can penetrate to their souls and record in paint or marble qualities which he divines rather than sees, by the exercise of his imaginative gifts. These wom-en will not show the marks which to map for the artist their sorrows and emotions.

"But, as regards the generality of Englishwomen, I notice a greater spirituality in the faces of my sisters when I compare them with the women who came to me before the war. Plain faces are no longer plain. They are interesting, the faces of women who have forgotten themselves in spending themselves for others. And, strangely enough, I have the impression that I see more quietly happy sion that I see more quietly happy faces than I used to.

"In the eyes of many of the women I study in the streets and public places I trace sorrow and past grief, but not so often present unhappiness.

Kiel Canal Is About Sixty Miles Long

Berlin.—The Kiel canal, built by Germany and enlarged primarily for naval operations, was closed with the outbreak of war in 1914. The British fleet kept close watch lest German warships emerge into the North sea until it was realized that the Kaiser's much-vaunted fleet had no intention to come out to fight cithen by the Kiel or Skarserack RECONSTRUCTION Brumbaugh, at Juniata Event, Says Education Is Founda-

Huntingdon, Pa., April 18. — The regular meeting of the trustees of Juniata College was held yesterday, as this date is also founders' day. A special program has been arranged, including musical features, and addresses and the exhibition of plans for the development of the college grounds and buildings. These plans and drawings were made by G. Edwin Brumbaugh, an architect of Philadelphia and a son of ex-Governor M. G. Brumbaugh, who made the principal address of the evening.

neutralize the tides. When the rebuilding was completed, doubling the bottom width and increasing the canal's depth by six feet, new locks gave a length of 1,082 feet longer than those of the Panama canal. But intermediate gates were provided to afford chambers of about a third that length. Passage thru the canal takes a steamer eight or nine hours. Its entire length is electric lighted.

After eight years' work and the expenditure of $35,000,000 the canal was first opened in 1895. Its reconstruction, begun in 1907, cost $55,000,000 more.

The added width and depth permitted the biggest of the Kaiser's warships to pass thru.

That the internal political and labor troubles in Germany are not to be permitted to encroach upon the occupied zone anywhere is indicated by an order of the British commander on the Rhine.

Northern Italy is experiencing a spell of labor trouble, the workmen at Milan, Bologna, Turin and Genoa, the principal manufacturing cities, having gone on a twenty-four hour strike.

Labor troubles also are brewing in the department of the Seine, France, of which Parls is the capital. A one-day strike has been called for May 1 by the General Federation of Labor to put forward the federation's program, which calls for an eight-hour day, political amnesty, nonintervention in Russia, lifting of the state of siege and the censorship and the return of constitutional guarantees.

Disorders of such magnitude are reported from both European and Asiatic Turkey as to give rise to the fear that there will be great outbreaks at various points and new massacres of Armenians.
