

SEBASTOPOLIS EVACUATED BY CRIMEAN REGIME

Government Is Now in Hands of the Revolutionary Committee

London, April 21.—Sebastopol has been evacuated by the Crimean government, which is proceeding to Constantinople. The government of Sebastopol is now in the hands of the revolutionary committee.

Early in April the allied troops were driven back in Crimea when the Bolsheviks forced capture of Perekop. The Isthmus of Perekop had been fortified by the allies for the protection of the Russian base at Sebastopol, but the allies were greatly outnumbered, and have been continuously pressed back.

One report said recently that a French squadron was the way to the Black Sea, presumably with the object of saving the great naval base.

Russian wireless advices on April 19 reported that the forces advancing in the direction of Simferopol, the capital of Crimea.

CAPITOL LOGICAL PLACE FOR COURT

1907, was provided with suites for the judges, and a chamber of unassuming beauty, but the headquarters have been at Philadelphia.

The Courts of Other States It is an interesting fact that while Pennsylvania's highest court has been gradually going away from the State Capitol as its permanent seat, the disposition has been all the other way in other States.

Washington it may be said, has become the National Capital in an unusual way as a result of the war. In New York state, the appellate courts sit entirely at Albany. The situation in regard to Philadelphia and Harrisburg, and New York and Albany, is much the same.

Albany has been the seat of New York's court and the seat of the federal government of the Empire State, if not of the land, have achieved fame as practitioners in that city. In other states, including Ohio, the state capital is the permanent headquarters of the Supreme Court.

Certain commonwealths have gotten away from the circuit idea, although in this State it will always prevail, and sittings will be held in the cities specified in acts, although the truth is they are often brief.

The Public Service Commission maintains its headquarters here with hearings held in various cities and when Governor William C. Sproul's plan for concentration of the State Government and executive work in the State Compensation Board will have its headquarters here, in fact as well as name, and continue its travels around the State.

The Concentration Idea Harrisburg is so well recognized as the official center of the State, that legislative sittings are provided in all the cities. The Legislature is working out a plan for concentration of all Executive branches. The permanent location of the State Court, and then the Superior Court, the highest courts of the co-ordinated branch of the Government, would seem to follow naturally.

It is to be established the permanent headquarters of the Supreme Court here would require an act of Assembly, and if the rising sentiment in regard to the concentration of the State activities, amounts to anything it will probably be reflected in a bill to designate Harrisburg as the permanent home of the Supreme bench.

WEST SHORE NEWS BUILDING WAITS ON LOWER PRIESTS ENOLA PEOPLE PLAN MEMORIAL

Projects Planned at Enola May Be Carried Out During Summer Sentiment on Subjects of Fund and Site

Enola, Pa., April 21.—Continued high prices of materials will delay any large amount of building here this summer. A number of new projects are planned, but people are not interested in building at present prices. At present there are only a few houses under construction in this vicinity.

During the war the railroad company erected several large buildings and also several additions, but other than that, the building in the railroad yards included a machine shop, a storehouse and an addition to the locker house. The freight station was also enlarged.

The most important building operation which held up is the construction of a new high school building. It was the intention of the school board to start construction on the building last year, but the war caused a change in the plans. The money for the building was voted two years ago at the time when the Summit street building was being built, but the high prices will necessitate a new plan.

Another building which is rumored to be started soon is a new Lutheran church, to replace the present one, which is more than a hundred years old.

EASTER PARADE COLORFUL WITH PRETTY BLOOMS

Greatest of Christian Holidays Celebrated With Special Services in Churches

The advent of peace and victory for the Allied cause was reflected in many Easter sermons and services in the city churches yesterday. Programs of music were larger and more impressive than in any other year since the beginning of the war, and particularly since this country entered the struggle. Clergymen who extolled the sacrifices of the soldiers who made victory possible, and expressed the thanks and rejoicing of the people upon the return of peace for the Easter season.

As the weather man predicted, Easter dawned clear, crisp and bright, bringing thousands upon thousands of people to the streets. The River drive, along Front street, was thronged with promenaders who were enjoying the beautiful sunshine while hundreds occupied the park benches and speeding motorists revelled in the magnificent weather.

Florists were literally swamped with calls for blooms. Certain shops of the city were compelled to work until yesterday morning, through the entire night, to get out the Easter bundles. Live and chocolate rabbits, eggs of every hue the rainbow can boast, and candies that are a triumph in achievement, and the confectioners' fanciful art, helped to bring the Easter spirit into every home.

In church services were especially inspiring. Sermons on the resurrection, comparing that event two thousand years ago with the new era of peace of the world after a night of war, were preached in many churches.

In many places of worship the musical programs were quite pretentious. Notable among these was the magnificent program presented at the Pine Street Presbyterian Church last evening when the quartet choir, augmented by Mrs. S. D. Donahue, Miss Mary Smith and Miss Elizabeth Sadler.

Three sessions will be held during the day. A feature of the sessions will be an address by the Rev. KOREAN MOVE FOR FREEDOM HAS BIG SUPPORT

Secret Societies Back Up Leaders to Gain Freedom from Japs

Peking, April 21.—Several secret societies whose numbers aggregate millions of persons are supporting the independence movement in Korea, it is understood. Notable among them are the Progressive Party and the Heaven Worshipers which together have a membership of more than 2,000,000 persons. Others are the New Korean Society and the Light Restoring Society. Sixty thousand students of nearly all educational institutions, including government schools, participated in the movement. It is stated that the insurrection was supported also by Buddhist and Christian bodies.

The Buddhists in Korea number about one million. They have 2,000 temples and 100,000 priests. The Japanese have attempted to use the American Methodists in their position in Korea, sending many young priests to Japan to be educated. Nevertheless, many Buddhists are believed to have been closely connected with the insurrection.

Christianity has made progress in Korea for thirty years. Two large missionary bodies are working there. The American Methodist Episcopal has 750 churches and 100,000 followers, while the American Presbyterian mission has 2,000 churches and 100,000 members. Most of the Korean Christians are mostly men of character and have received higher education.

A demonstration in favor of independence which began in a nearby town and villages throughout Korea on March 1, were at first orderly and limited to the delivery of speeches and the burning of copies of manifestos. Later the movement took a distinctly revolutionary character and this resulted in clashes with the Japanese authorities and in casualties on both sides.
