PHILADELPHIA, April 22.—Registration of every member of the 28th Division already home, he wounded, ill or discharged from the service, so as to have all march with their comrades when the unit arrives home, will begin to-morrow. Men of the division will be mailed a request that they appear personally at the headquarters of the Welfare Committee in the Liberty Building and register. Those at the U. S. army hospitals in and around Philadelphia will be permitted to mail a card of registration to the committee. If a man is at home and unable to register personally, members of his family will be asked to perform the duty for him. The committee wants all "Twenty-eight" men to share in the great patriotic demonstration that famous unit will be given when it parades. Returned members of the division, when they register, will be classified into three groups. First, those able to parade. Second, those whose wounds or illnesses makes it inadvisable that they march. Third, those who are convalescents at U. S. army hospitals in and around Philadelphia. A system of automobile transportation for wounded and convalescent men so they may take part in the pageant has been arranged. Men classified in the second group will be taken in automobiles from their homes to the parade and at the conclusion returned. "Twenty-eight" men who come under the third group will be removed from hospitals and transported to a special grandstand.

K. OF C. HAS BIG ORGANIZATION BEYOND RHINE

Independent Headquarters Has Been Established at Coblenz

Coblenz, Germany, April 22.—Since the beginning of American occupation of Germany, the Knights of Columbus force has steadily grown until to-day at Coblenz there is an independent headquarters of the organization with its own complete equipment. The operations beyond the Rhine are under the immediate direction of Fred V. Milan, of Minneapolis. He has under his control a force of over 100 secretaries. This quota would be much larger were it possible to obtain men for the work. So great has been the need of labor, that German civilians in large numbers are employed in the warehouse and about the clubs in lesser capacity.

The entire operation of the Army of Occupation is directed from headquarters in Coblenz. The city is therefore a leave area and daily over 2,000 soldiers have enjoyed the liberty of the city. These men come from the far districts of the Army, from Treves and the camps situated far up the Rhine or the Moselle. It is a mighty army that the American service organizations must make as comfortable as their means will permit, while they await the word to start for the front.

Visitors From Distance The men come from the outlying camps in the big fleet of river boats plying the Rhine and Moselle rivers. They are met by men of the Knights of Columbus and from their arrival in Coblenz or Treves, the second leave center of the area, they are urged to make the headquarters and club in the organization their homes. At Coblenz the visiting soldiers are billeted in a huge structure formerly known as the Floriant Magazine and there is room for 1,200 men every night. In this big warehouse, nearly 20,000 doughnuts are fried on some days. The entire output of each day is sent to a given soldier unit in the occupied district. At their destination these delicacies are distributed by the head of the Knights of Columbus secretaries in each clubhouse.

Big Bathhouse In Coblenz, before the war, there was maintained one of the finest municipal baths in all Germany. The big structure now is in the hands of the Knights of Columbus, who are providing every modern bath, medicine, shower, tub, medicated or just a plain old-fashioned sponge and rub, for over 300 soldiers every hour.

Across the Moselle from Coblenz is a large American garrison, the soldiers of which are not permitted to cross the river. Four clubhouses have been established at that post for the enlisted men and a large club has recently been opened for officers.

Texas Shipbuilders Think Future Good; Keep Building Ships Beaumont, Tex., April 22.—Texas shipbuilders believe there will be a market for all the vessels they can turn out and will continue operations regardless of the Emergency Fleet Corporation canceling contracts for boats on which work had not started. At the shipyards here and in Orange no men have been discharged since January 1 and the work shows no great activity as in war time. Officials of many yards say that with the revival of the American merchant marine they expect to keep up capacity operation indefinitely.

Plan to Forestall German Attempt to Establish Big Army Paris, April 22.—The Council of Foreign Ministers has approved the proposed provision of the peace treaty to forestall any effort the Germans might make to re-establish a military machine by utilizing outside forces. The article prohibits the sending of German military instructors to foreign countries. It was referred to the drafting committee.

DIFFICULT TO SELL HIS WHEAT

British Farmer Has Trouble to Dispose of His Holdings

London, April 22.—The British farmer is suffering from the fact that the government had stocked the granaries of Great Britain with wheat in preparation for a great spring offensive against the Germans this year. Now that the offensive is not to be undertaken, the farmer is having difficulty in selling his crop of last year's wheat.

Explaining the situation at the annual dinner of the Land Union recently, Lord Ernle, formerly Robert E. Prothero, president of the Board of Agriculture, said: "I do not know that I am revealing a secret when I say that the government intended, if the war had not finished in November, to make its great push about this time. In this month or next month we should have tried to place on the western front the whole force of the Allies we could command and should have tried to bring the war to a conclusion this summer."

"For that purpose we wanted the absolute control of all the tonnage we could get. We wanted every ship to be free to bring over munitions, food and everything else which the army required. For that reason we brought into this country a large quantity of food supplies. If our shipping was to be engaged in bringing over food to this country in the middle of that military push we should have been hampered."

The consequence was that we filled the granaries of this country with wheat in order that we should be free for this great military enterprise. You cannot alter your plans in a few hours. The wheat is now being passed into consumption as quickly as possible."

SEBASTOPOL IS FREE OF SOVIETS

Naval Port Has Not Been Occupied by Them, Says Report

Paris, April 22.—The naval port of Sebastopol, in the Crimea, has not been occupied by Russian Soviet troops, according to a dispatch to the Journal Des Debats dated Sunday at Saloniki.

The dispatch says that fighting appears to have stopped for the time being in the Southern Crimea. The Bolsheviks are said to be slackening their advance in the face of the allied artillery fire.

A Russian wireless message received in London Sunday night said that Sebastopol was said to be in the hands of a revolutionary committee. The Russian message further added that after negotiations with the allied command an agreement had been reached for an armistice of eight days to expire on April 25.

Jules Vedrines, Noted French Aviator, Killed

Paris, April 22.—Jules Vedrines, a noted French aviator, was killed yesterday when his machine fell in the Department of Drome while Vedrines was attempting to make a non-stop flight from Villacoublay to Rome. The mechanic in the machine also was killed. The machine in which they were making the trip was wrecked. The accident occurred about 10.30 o'clock yesterday morning at Les Focillouses, and it is believed it was due to the machine collapsing in the air. The aviators fell from a great height and the death of both of them was instantaneous. The mail sack which Vedrines was carrying to Rome was found among the debris of the machine.

Use the Gasoline the Trucks Use Truck-owners do not buy gasoline by guess. They know. They keep records of the gasoline put in and the miles taken out. They buy Power. It is not surprising, then, that Atlantic Gasoline is the choice of the majority of truck-owners. Trucks are not driven for pleasure. They are a business proposition, pure and simple. They must make good on a business basis. Hauling costs are determined to the penny. What is the lesson for you? Simply this: Truck-users have experimented for you. They have found that Atlantic gives the most. No sentiment in that. Cold fact based on day-after-day experience with loads and roads. Atlantic is their choice. For Atlantic is Power. In the light of such experience, will you continue to ask merely for "gasoline"? Or, will you say, state, declare and affirm that you want Atlantic Gasoline and that no other motor-fuel will do?
