Committees to Plan Annual Rose Show to Be Held in June Named

The women's advisory board of the Y. M. C. A. is rapidly getting theritose show plans in shape, and in the course of the next few weeks will send out invitations to all known rose-lovers to participate. With these invitations will be sent entry cards on which to indicate the probable number of entries that the recipient will make. The owners of but a few rose bushes are urged to enter their blooms, for at last year's show several of the awards were given to exhibitors who had entered but a few roses. It is to be a rose show for amateurs only, no florist, nurseryman their employes being allowed to compete.
