Heads of Printin Trades Unions Admit Spread of Bolshevism

By Associated Press

New York, April 25 .- Appeals to American newspaper publishers to aid in fighting the spread of ultra heads of two international printing trades unions yesterday at the an-nual convention of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association. The day's sessions were devoted en-tirely to labor questions and by intriely to labor questions and by invitation the heads of the four in Aernational unions engaged in the newspaper printing trade addressed the convention.

The four union leaders were James J. Freel, president of the International Stereotyping and Electrical Workers' Union: William McHugh, acting president of the Printing Pressmen and Assistants' Union: John W. Hays, secretary and treasurer of the International Typographical Union, and Matthew Woll, president of the International Photo Engravers' Union.

Mr. McHugh said that many members of local unions had been carried away by the doctrines of Bolshevism, but that all the officers of the international unions of the printing trade realized the fallacy of such doctrines and were strenuously contesting their spread.

FIREMEN TO ERECT ARCH TO SOLDIERS

Erection of a "Firemen's Arch" as a tribute to firemen who entered Army and Navy service during the war, is bein gplanned by a committee from the Firemen's Union which met last night in the Washington Company house. Plans for raising funds to erect the arch which is to be placed in Market street, were discussed. It is likely it will be crected in time for the Fourth of July celebration.
