SEWING SCHOOL GRADUATES 17

Market Square Organization Closes Fortieth Year of Work This Afternoon

Interesting exercises marked the completion of the fortieth year of work of the Market Square Presbyterian Sewing School, held this afternoon in the Senior Sunday School rooms in the presence of the school and many friends.

Mrs. Herman P. Miller, the general superintendent presided, and a brief program included singing "America," Scriptural reading and prayer, followed by greetings and other remarks by Mrs. Miller.

Mrs. John A. Friese, treasurer of the Savings Fund reported $241 in the treasury which is all returned to the pupils to-day.

The Rev. Dr. George Edward Hawes, pastor of the church spoke briefly on the school and importance of its work, presenting diplomas to a class of seventeen, which included the Misses Isabelle Bowman, Mildred Bowers, Bertha Bowers, Mildred Bogar, Aline Fischer, Margaret Harm, Clara Hoover, Margaret Harsh, Elizabeth Haaton, Virginia Lytle, Elizabeth Nunemacher, Caroline Peters, Elizabeth Shaul, Pauline Wilbur, Jeanette Wise, Harriet Witman and Mary Elizabeth Worley.

Make Their Own Frocks
There was an exhibition of the work of the graduates and everyone was glad to see the Normal post-graduates wearing their dainty voile frocks made under the capable direction of Mrs. William McDowell. These girls were the Misses Marian Black, Ethel Hoover, Marea Mausteller, Isabelle Smith and Mary Foutz.

Afterward there was a social hour when refreshments were served and on going home each pupil was presented with a blooming geranium.

Secretary's Report

Mrs. Meade D. Detweiler in presenting her report this afternoon, said in brief: "The school opened November 23, 1918 with 17 teachers and 133 scholars enrolled. Five teachers and 70 scholars have been present every day during the session; there was an average attendance of 155. We have in the school many girls from surrounding towns. Mothers of these girls have expressed their appreciation of the information their daughters have gained in the sewing school, which materially aids in their home sewing. So the work not only is known in our home city, but has extended to the nearby places as well. Special mention must be made of the attendance of Clara and Ethel Hoover of West Fairview who have an unbroken record for six years, and of Mary Elizabeth Worley, who missed but one Saturday in six years. A general summary of the classes in our sewing school shows a faithful application of the scholars in their work and a perfect supervision of an efficient corps of teachers. We close this fortieth session with 23 teachers and an enrollment of 258 scholars."

TO HOLD PIE SOCIAL
The P. O. club will hold a picnic social in Kinnard's Hall, 303 and 305 Verbeke street, on Wednesday, April 30.

Will Make Future Home in Tucson, Arizona

MRS. PAUL W. REIBEL

The marriage of Miss Evelyn Cumber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Cumber, of "The Pines," Highspire, and Lieutenant Paul W. Reibel, of Tucson, Ariz., and Los Angeles, Cal., was solemnized to-day at high noon in the Cathedral Rectory, the Rev. Father Carey officiating. The attractive young bride wore a gown of white georgette with panels of crystal beading and a hat of pink crepe. Her corsage bouquet of gardenias and lilies of the valley had a faint tinge of orchid.

Miss Freda C. Stees, of Steelton, the maid of honor, chose a gown of orchid georgette with a picture hat to match and wore a bouquet of pink snap-dragon and roses. Lieutenant George Little, of Marsh Run, was best man. After the ceremony, attended by the immediate family only, a breakfast was served in the Japanese room of the Penn-Harris.

The young couple left for an extended wedding tour of the East South and West, and will visit many of the large cities, including New York, Atlantic City, Atlanta, Ga., New Orleans, El Paso, and Los Angeles. They will be "at home" in Tucson, Ariz., after June 15.

The bride, who attended the St. Mary's Academy, Latrobe, and the Emma Willard School, Troy, N. Y., is a talented musician and a student member of the Wednesday Club. She is well known in this city, where she is exceedingly popular with the younger set.

Lieutenant Reibel, who recently received his discharge from the Army, was stationed at Marsh Run, as a member of the Headquarters Staff Corps, of the Quartermaster's Department. He was a student of the University of Arizona, of Leland Stanford University, Cal., and is a department store merchant, of Tucson.

Miss Laubenstein Home After Nursing Abroad

MISS ESTHER LAUBENSTEIN

Miss Esther Laubenstein, a trained nurse formerly supervisor of the Harrisburg Hospital, came home Thursday evening after serving for a year in Base Hospital No. 29 with the University of Pennsylvania unit.

Miss Laubenstein, a daughter of Captain E. Laubenstein, 323 South Sixteenth street, is a graduate of the Nurses' school of the University, and much interested in her work. She says that the American way of handling the nurses brings them in closer touch with the boys whom they wish to serve, when they haven't the handicap of rank as do the English, which makes somewhat difficult a more personal service. Should the war break out again, Miss Laubenstein says she'd wish to return at once to France to be with the boys.

She arrived in New York just a week ago on the Kaiserin Augusta Victoria, the first of the interned German boats to reach the United States.

Himes-Kilheffer Bridal Takes Place in Maryland

The marriage of Miss Jessie Kilheffer and George W. Himes, both of West Fairview, took place Thursday, April 24, in the Lutheran parsonage of Silver Run, Md., with the Rev. A. G. Wolf officiating, using the ring service.

The bride is a daughter of the late Frederick Kilheffer, of West Fairview, Pa. She is a graduate of the State Normal School at Shippensburg and during a number of terms was a successful teacher in the public schools of Cumberland county. She was handsomely attired in a blue traveling suit.

Mr. Himes has been the proprietor of a tin and stove store at 10 North Market Square, Harrisburg. The bridal pair are spending their honeymoon at Baltimore, Md.; Norfolk, Roanoke, and Old Point Comfort, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Himes will be "at home" to their friends in Second street, West Fairview, after June 1.

Why Do We Hold These Monday MILLINERY SALES?
Why do we sell the best selling hats for less money on Monday than the other five days of the week?
In the first place we sell so many more hats, that it pays us to do it one day each week. We could not afford to sell them at so close a profit every day and stay in business—besides we get the greatest amount of advertising out of these sales. Thousands of customers attend these sales—they see what a wonderful Millinery Department we have—what an enormous variety of hats and trimmings we are showing. They go home and tell their friends—they tell them how universally low our prices are. We make new customers at every Monday sale—besides selling an enormous quantity of hats and trimmings.
