

RING FANS PAY $50,000 TO SEE LEONARD BEAT RITCHIE; MOTIVE CLUB BOXING TONIGHT

Boxing Fans Pay $50,000 to See Leonard Beat Ritchie

Eleven thousand boxing fans at Newark last night saw America's lightweight champion, Benny Leonard, give Willie Ritchie such a terrible drubbing that the referee stopped the fight in the eighth round with Ritchie hanging helpless to the ropes. No title was at stake, Ritchie thought he could win, though there was little betting on him even by those who claimed Leonard never had shown himself a great boxer, with a knockout.

Steppping into the ring, located in the First Regiment Armory, before a mighty arena which included many women, Ritchie, who formerly held the lightweight title found a different Leonard confronting him from the one who defeated him in their four-round bout in the coast. Leonard started out in the first round like a flash and landed a right to the jaw to start. Ritchie looked like a novice when he missed a right and left to the jaw, and Benny slipped across a right uppercut to the jaw. Ritchie missed several lefts to the face while Leonard hooked two hard rights in the middle of the ring and round by a considerable margin.

SNOODLES

153 PLAYERS SIGNED IN DAUPHIN-PERRY

The six clubs of the Dauphin-Perry baseball league have a total of 153 resident players signed for the 1919 season that will open May 17. Newport heads the list with 41 players signed up as "residents." McCann has the least number with but 14. To this total may be added by each club, five nonresident players, whose names must be turned in to league officials by May 2. This latter ruling gives managers an opportunity to supplement home talent with stars from the outside, whose presence helps to make a better rounded out aggregation.

As composed at present the league consists of Duncannon, Marysville, Mifflin, Millersburg, Newport, Hill, Leesville, Lewisport and Port Royal are clamoring for admission, and the matter will be considered further at the meeting to be held Thursday night in the storeroom of Sherk and Tuttle. At this meeting plans will be completed for the opening contests two weeks from Saturday.

'Neps' Bowers' Phiz, 'Made in Germany,' Reaches Allison Hill

'NEPS' BOWERS

When the Allison Hill Baseball League opens its fifth season next Monday night, it will be without the services of one of its regular star pitchers, who is with the Army of Occupation in the Rhineland. "Neps" Bowers, president of the Galahad Recreation Club and pitcher for that organization, is a member of Company E, Fifty-sixth Pioneer Infantry, and had the photo taken at Coblenz recently.

Boxing Program Tonight at Motive Power Club

One of the niftiest sparring schedules framed by Harrisburg promoters is the Motive Power show tonight at its arena, Seventh and Boyd streets. The premier bout will be McCarron and Young Weyman, as advertised as the best card, but Motive Power patrons are even more eager to witness the go between Rubie Bennett and McGorty. The latter has never appeared here, but Bennett's prowess is well known and admired. He is a clean fighter, powerful, fast and does not hang on. Manager Charles Ettinger vouches that McGorty, after eleven months in the U. S. service overseas, is in excellent shape and a match for Bennett, so this encounter should be of a luge.

Another fray of uncommon interest is the Loechner-Graney mixup. Loechner lost out at Joe Barrett's show to Mahoney the other night, being hissed by the fans; surely a mean return for a chap who was gassed in the Argonne Forest and is only getting back to normal shape now. He is said to be twenty per cent stronger after weeks' rest, and Graney will have his work cut out for himself to-night, as Loechner has one deadly wallop. By way of keeping fit, Graney knocked out Joe Dushong at Ettinger's club Monday night, and local fans have a good word for this capable fellow. He showed speed here from the first in his bouts with Nate Isaacman. Like McGorty, the party known as Battling Peskos is unknown here, but he has been meeting some good ones and Wolpert has been training for this meet so he evidently expects a hard battle. The bill is the best ever staged at the Motive Power home.

TRIBUTE TO TECH RELAY WINNERS

Coach DeWire Tells Story of U. of P. Victory to Great Assembly of Students

At a fifteen-minute assembly held yesterday morning by students of the Technical High school, Coach DeWire, of the Tech track team, told the story of how Tech won the relay race at Penn last Saturday in Class I. The banner was also shown to the school that will be hung in the Tech trophy room.

Three Classy Umpires For Allison Hill League

Clarence A. Runk, formerly umpire-in-chief in the Motive Power League; "Dick" Nebing, Boston American League topper, and "Clint" White, well known as an athlete and athletic official, will compose the staff of the Allison Hill Baseball League during the coming season that will open next Monday night at the Seventeenth and Chestnut streets diamond.

latest addition to the staff was formerly chief arbiter in the Motive Power League, and back in the good old days of the sport when masks were a luxury, Runk caught the curves of Berry and John Breckenridge, as catcher and captain of the Blue Caps. Runk has seen lots of service, both as an official and player, and his signature should help to continue the clean sport that has made the Hill league famous in this part of the country.

The resident players complete are as follows: Duncannon—John J. DeHaven, Roy Heckendorn, Abram Dearoff, Orvil Mutchbaugh, Ray Orris, Ross Sanderson, Edward Thompson, W. Stewart Duncan, Charles Jones, R. M. Barton, Charles Cummings, Lee Snavely, Charles Fenstermaeker, William Hart. Marysville—P. McGovern, L. Weisenberger, J. Hiddeman, Foster Palmer, George Moore, Charles Rutter, Edward Stees, Lloyd Palmer, Paul Ellinger, Cassius Kennedy, Joseph Lightner, George Herman, Edgar Roberts, Raymond Benfer, Dewey Bare, Clarence Lick, James Benfer, Earl Robinson, David Clendenin, M. Clendenin, James David, Paul Anspach, Walter Liddick, G. M. Skivington, Percy White, Burkey Ealing, John Myers, G. E. Sanders, Oliver Dickey, R. E. Hartman, Harvey Hipple, Walter Straw, F. W. Gebb, W. Wolf, F. Sanders, Homer Liddick, Mifflin—James A. Brown, Roy

Fire Destroys Big Part of Yokohama

Yokohama, April 29.—A large section of Yokohama was ravaged by fire yesterday, two thousand buildings, including a part of the business section, being burned. Firemen from Tokio aided in checking the flames before they reached the foreign residential section.

Jack Ozar Squeezes Lewis Headlock on Wrestler Irlinger

Lebanon, Pa., April 29.—In one of the greatest and fastest bouts seen in this city, Jack Ozar, of Lebanon, formerly of Pennsylvania State Police, defeated Henry Irlinger of Atlantic City, in two straight falls at catch-as-catch-can wrestling before a packed capacity house to-night in Fleher Academy of Music. Ozar gained a mean return for a chap who was gassed in the Argonne Forest and is only getting back to normal shape now. He is said to be twenty per cent stronger after weeks' rest, and Graney will have his work cut out for himself to-night, as Loechner has one deadly wallop.

Dauphin-Perry Meets to Complete League

Two applications for berths in the Dauphin-Perry League will be considered at a meeting of league delegates at a meeting on Thursday evening in the Sherk & Tuttle store. Within the past several days an application has been received by President E. E. Knauss from baseball fans of Port Royal and several weeks ago Lewisport applied for admission. Because of the lateness of the application, it is not believed that either will receive favorable consideration. The schedule for the season will likely be ratified at the Thursday evening meeting. Since the tentative schedule was issued about a month ago, no less than six dates have been changed. These changes and others which will likely be asked for at the meeting, will be called up for ratification during the session.
