Washington, April 30.—Demands of tally for the port of Flume were until 10 to 10 to alkali. This dries the scalp makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use. One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which ricle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair dies quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair dies and silvy bright, lustrous, auffy and easy to manage

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months—Adv.

Words in the treaty.
An official summary of 10,000 words has been made. It is in such shape that it could be made public at once, but the intention is to hold it for publication throughout the world at about the same time that the treaty is delivered to the Germans. The various governments are cabling this summary everywhere for simultaneous release when authorization is given by the conference.
The memorandum delivered to Premier Orlando on April 14 dealing with the Adriatic situation contained the salient points of the text of the statement issued by President Wilson April 23.

Puris, April 30.—The British Prime Minister has again intervened in the Italian situation by sending one of his trusted associates to communicate personally with Premier Orlando at Rome.

While the desire is to conciliate Signor Orlando, yet the Premier is advised against the nebusin of Flume under Italian control, as likely to make a settlement difficult, if not impossible with missible personal properties of the person bearing the message with Mr. Lloyd George.

Orlando May Not Return

Ambassador Page telegraphed from Rome that he had gathered from Premier Orlando in a long conference Monday that the Premier did not include the presson bearing the message with Mr. Lloyd George.

Augustus Kinley Dies Suddenly at R. R. Station

Hummelstown, Pa., April 30.— Augustus Kinley, aged 70 years, died at the Brownstone Railroad Station yesterday. He lived at Hummelstown for more than fifty years and was returning home from his work at the quarries when he was stricken with heart trouble and died in a few minutes. He is survived by a brother, Jacob Kinley, who is the only surviving relative. His wife died several years ago. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at his boarding place, the residence of Mrs. Barbara Nye. Burial will be made at the Hum-melstown Cemetery.

LEWIS H. FLETCHER HONORED ON BIRTHDAY The services in the Presbyterian hapel at Greencastle, last Wednes-ay evening, were of an unusual character. One of the most faithful members of the church is Louis Henry Fletcher, former county treasurer and when he arrived for prayer service he was reminded that it was his eightieth birthday by the presentation of a magnificent bouquet of eighty carnations and a silver loving up. The cup was from the Sunday School, over which Mr. Fletcher has School, over which Mr. Fletcher has presided as superintendent for nearly thirty years. Mr. Fletcher is the father of a remarkable family of boys and girls, his second one being the United States Ambassador to Mexico. Ex-Sheriff Rowe Fletcher, of Harrisburg is another son.

Under the improved banking methods now in use it is to be expected that fluctuations in money rates will be much narrow than in ev the during the war were successfully stabilized at or below 6 per cent, and while it is possible that periods of rapid expansion may sometimes carry them temporarily over that figure, it is highly probable that "tight money" will no longer he a recurrent feature of the markets.—Theo. Sale of Manufacturers' Surplus Stocks and Canceled Orders---Starts Friday

$75,000.00 Worth

Of High Grade Merchandise Purchased During The Past Four Weeks To Start This Event

We have been preparing for this sale for the past four weeks. Our buyers bought for spot cash the canceled orders and surplus stocks of the best manufacturers, wholesalers and jobbers with whom we do business and secured the most drastically sacrificed figures in two or more years. The ending of the war naturally caused a downward trend in prices because many firms who were ready to stock up, canceled their orders. Manufacturers and wholesale concerns were forced to unload and rather than prolong the selling, turned these stocks over to us for cash in quick transactions. And on Friday we're going to start one of those real, good, old-fashioned Kaufman's sale of manufacturer's surplus stocks and canceled orders.
