

CABLE SYSTEMS REVERT TO THEIR OWNERS FRIDAY

Postmaster General Burleson
Issues Order For Their Return

Washington, April 29.—Control and operation of all American cable systems, taken over by the government last November, will revert to their private owners at midnight, Friday.

Postmaster General Burleson, to whom President Wilson in his proclamation of last November 2, delegated to control of the marine cable lines, has issued an order providing for the return of the properties. The order, which was issued by direction of President Wilson, follows:

The Postmaster General in making the return order reiterated his announcement of Monday that the telephone and telegraph lines would be returned as soon as legislation could be obtained from Congress safeguarding the interests of the owners. He also emphasized his views as to the wisdom of government ownership of the land communication lines had undergone no change, but it was apparent these views were not shared by the new Congress, the only step left was to return the systems to the owners.

Government control of the cable lines has been exercised in the midst of controversies, legal action to restrain the Postmaster General from seizing their lines having been filed in a New York Federal Court by the Commercial Cable and Commercial Pacific Cable Companies. The New York courts refused to issue the restraining order, and appeal was taken to the United States Supreme Court.

Arguments have been heard by the Supreme Court on the appeal and a decision is pending. Court officials intimated last night that attorneys for the plaintiff companies might seek an agreement with the government to have the case dismissed.

IT TAKES GOOD SOLES TO DO THIS

"George Wentworth, a letter carrier here, has worn out pairs of shoes with Neolin Soles four months and two days. His route is twenty miles a day. This test made at our request, proves the wearing quality of Neolin Soles to our satisfaction." From Lothrop-Farnham Co., Dover, N. H.

Only Neolin Soles will stand up under a test like this. People who are hard on shoes will save money if they buy them with Neolin Soles. These shoes come in many styles for men, women and children.

Neolin Soles put on your worn shoes too. Any good repair shop will apply them. Remember—they are made by Science to be comfortable and waterproof, also. Manufactured by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, who make Wingfoot Heels—guaranteed to outwear all other heels.

Wounded Men Enjoy Baseball Games Arranged by Knights of Columbus

Local Knights of Columbus players defeated players at the Carlisle Military Hospital in a fast game of ball Monday, the score being 17-3. Approximately 1,000 people witnessed the contest. The local players were under the direction of Secretary A. G. McLaughlin. The photograph shows a part of the fans who saw the game and some of the wounded men who enjoyed the exhibition.

Disabled Soldiers to Learn of Re-education

Plans for the re-education of disabled, discharged soldiers, sailors and marines will be outlined by U. S. G. Scull, a representative of the Federal Board for Vocational Re-education, at a meeting to be held at the cross headquarters Friday. All men who have been discharged and are disabled, have been asked to meet Mr. Scull, who will go over their problems with them.

The Red Cross headquarters are in the basement of the Public Library, Front and Walnut streets.

CENTRAL HIGH NOTES

D. S. Dance

Final touches were put on the plans for their dance, last night, by the D. S. Society, at their biweekly meeting. The decoration committee, which includes Dorothy Corning, Marguerite Ambrose, Gladys Sloop, Mildred Donniver and Margaret Graef, reported that they had made all arrangements for decorating, and would "dol up" for Saturday, April 26, in the morning.

Dances for the senior class were arranged for by Vick Hollinger, Ruth Langdon, Ruth McCaulley, Merle Smith and Jean Tippet. Louise Casley, Dorothy Corning, the invitation committee stated that there were still a few invitations to be had, and that any persons desiring them could get them from the present Miss Christina Long, the secretary.

Christina Long, the secretary, Miss Fernie Stanford, the Banjo-Saxo orchestra will be on hand to jazz things up a bit, and there is every reason to believe that the dance will be one of the most successful ever this year.

The following members were present last evening at the home of Miss Sara Caton, 28 Evergreen street, where the business meeting was held: Christina Long, Betty Brown, Fernie Stanford, Dorothy Corning, Ruth Langdon, Violet Hollinger, Merle Smith, Margaret Greaff, Mary Lewis, Louise Sloop, Louise Furman, Gladys Sloop, Jean Tippet, Esther Jean and Sara Caton.

Committee Meetings—The executive committee of the senior class last night at the close of the afternoon session to form plans for a Senior class trip. The committee was in session until 5 o'clock before any final decision was reached, and even at that late hour all members of the committee were not agreed that the action taken was right.

It was voted that a huge get-together trip should be substituted in place of an extensive class trip. Mt. Gretna was selected as the place, and the arrangements were to be made by the girls' orchestra.

The trip will probably be three days previous to Class Day.

The second committee meeting of the Senior class was held last night at the home of the president, Robert W. Crist, 257 North street. The Class Day committee finished up picking plans for the different members of the class, and purchased a committee was appointed to get all the presents decided upon. This committee included Stuart Wagner, Clydesdale, William McBride, Arthur Huber, Lewis Todd, Elizabeth Howard, Francis Todd, Louise Furman, Ivy Daniels and Elizabeth Lloyd.

Club Reorganizes—The Senior Girls' Glee Club reorganized last evening at the close of school. For some time the club had been disbanded, partly because of some friction between the members, and partly because of conditions at the school. The club, which will be very little opportunity for the club to perform, they will more than likely be asked to lead the singing at all school events in the future. The entire club had their pictures taken to-day for the commencement number of the Argus.

Junior Girls' Contest at Central High School

With the old assembly hall at Central High school artistically decorated, a squad of ushers ready to show strangers to their seats, and with music by the Junior Choir and Glee Club, the junior girls' contest to-morrow evening promises to be one of the most entertaining and successful contests ever held under the direction of any junior class. The eight girls who are to take part in the competition, under the constant supervision of Mrs. Ewing, the instructor in junior declamation for the past three weeks, will add their readings that will hold the interest of their audience to the last minute. Three prizes of $10, $5 and $2.50, have been offered to the contestants by the class of 1917, and will be presented by Harold E. Eckert, president of that class. The judges will be Mrs. Robert Swartz Harling, Mrs. Harry G. Keifer and Miss Marion Martz.

The program is as follows: Junior choir; prize contest: 1. "The Story Chief's Daughter," Miriam Ulrich; 2. "Number Twenty-five," Elsie Gruber; 3. "Santa Claus in the Mines," Margaret Cunkle; 4. "A Cutting From Miss Minerva and William Green Hill," Mabel Thompson; music: Junior Girls' Glee Club; prize contest: 5. "Hagar," Catherine Rife; 6. "The Land of King," Mary Roden; 7. "My Kind Kin," Elizabeth Hoover; 8. "The Book Canvasser," Elizabeth Clark; music: Junior choir; presentation of prizes.

Prof. Walter E. Severance, principal of Central, has extended an invitation to all persons interested in school activities to be present in order that they may see just what Central High school is doing for the girls of the class.
