IN HOSPITAL FOR 8TH OPERATION

"Smiling Charlie" Archibald, Legs Shot Off in France, Under Another Ordeal

Chambersburg, Pa., May 2.—Private Charles Bryan Archibald, of St. Thomas, near here, who had both of his legs shot off while fighting in France and who won the sobriquet of "Smiling Charlie" because of his perpetual and persistent optimism, has returned to Walter Reed General Hospital at Washington, D. C., after spending a twenty-day furlough with his parents. He has been outfitted with artificial legs, but the new limbs have not yet been properly adjusted and upon his return to the hospital he will be compelled to undergo his eighth operation for their adjustment.

Six People Celebrate Birthday at Mechanicsburg

Mechanicsburg, Pa., May 2.—Today six people quietly celebrated their birthday anniversary with ages ranging from 70 years to one year. They are: Simon J. Mountz, chief of Police E. S. Cocklin, John Kramer, Frances B. Seifert, Salome B. Stevens and Mrs. Violet Wakefield, of Harrisburg, formerly of Mechanicsburg. Greetings and congratulations were exchanged among those with the same birthday date. Mr. Mountz, a life-long resident of this place, heads the list in years and has a host of friends who extend congratulations and wish him many happy returns of the day. He has been a printer fifty-one years and connected with the Thomas Printing office here for the past forty-five years. Mr. Cocklin is active and successful in his duties as chief of police, which office he has held for the past twelve years.

PRESIDENT NOT HONORED. Carlisle, Pa., May 2.—For the first time since the custom was revived about a decade ago there were no services yesterday by Dickinson College students and faculty members in honor of Dr. Charles Nesbit, the first president of the institution. May first is the time for the annual tribute when services are held at the grave of the former college head. Services may be held later in the year, college authorities intimated.

MRS. SARAH MCCUNE DIES. Mercersburg, Pa., May 2.—Mrs. Sarah C. McCune, widow of James McCune, died on Wednesday afternoon at the home of her son, M. L. McCune, aged 97 years. WEST SHORE MEMORIAL TREES FOR SOLDIERS

Honors For Three Marysville Boys Who Died in Service During War Period

Marysville, Pa., May 2.—Fitting memorials are being planned by the Marysville Civic Club for each of the three Marysville youths who died in the United States service. Plans provide for the holding of memorial services for the trio on Sunday afternoon in Bethany United Evangelical Church. A suitable program is being arranged.

Norway maple trees, one for each one of the three, will be planted on the plot of ground surrounding the High School building next Wednesday afternoon. A tentative program for these services includes an address by State Senator Scott S. Leiby, of Marysville.

Of the three men, one was killed in action. He was Daniel Spidel, who died while serving with the Twenty-Eighth United States Infantry Regiment. The other two men, James Brightbill and Blain Barshinger died of pneumonia.
