

NEWS AND NOTES OF THE BOY SCOUTS

TROOP 8 BOASTS STRONG TREASURY

Live Scouts Now Have One Hundred Dollars in the Hands of Treasurer

The members of Troop 8 were agreeably surprised when they heard the treasurer's report at the last meeting. The total has been boosted by our cake and candy sale, and by the aids which were obtained for the church directory.

THE WIGWAM

THE OLDER SCOUT By Lone Feather, Troop 28

In my work with Scout troops in half a dozen towns and cities, it has been brought to my attention that when the average Scout reaches the age of sixteen or seventeen, he feels that he has outgrown the Scout movement.

When he reaches the age of 15 years, there is an assistant scoutmaster's commission ready for him. At the age of 21 he is an experienced and qualified man for the commission as scoutmaster.

WOLF PATROL'S FINE ACTIVITIES

Bruce Grunden, Patrol Historian, Recounts Work of His Unit

The Wolf Patrol must have at least two patrol meetings per month or break up and as a consequence several meetings were held for the purpose of the patrol.

The patrol is adding sections to their organization. The first four loans sent the boys over and equipped them; this, the Victory Loan, will bring them back and finish up the job.

Flies, Look Out! Troop 28 Is on Your Trail

At our meeting on Monday night, Scoutmaster Vanaman gave the troop a very interesting and instructive talk on the house fly.

Hush! There's Mystery in Troop 15 Clubroom

After the official meeting last Friday night, a special meeting was called for all those who wished to take part in the athletics of the troop.

Troop Two Has New Scoutmaster, Charles Toor

A very interesting meeting was held by Scouts of Troop 2 at Chisick Emma Synagogue, after which the former scoutmaster, Julius Yoffee, presented his resignation.

First Class Scouts Ride 58 Miles in Six Hours

Attention! Scouts, do you know what's on for to-night? Well, then, hunt up your best Scout togs, get your insignia, and rig yourself up like a Christmas tree.

Scouts in Troop 16 Take Hike to Lamb's Gap

We were glad to have the opportunity of having Mr. Wirt's talk on trees last Friday, and we extend our hearty thanks to Troop 29 for making it possible for us to see some of the beautiful slides that were shown.

TROOP 22 HOLDS FIRST BIRTHDAY

Scouts Celebrate Anniversary With Appropriate and Unique Program

Troop 22 held its first anniversary on Friday evening, April 25. We had a large crowd present and everyone thoroughly enjoyed himself.

Scout Executive J. F. Virgin was in attendance and made a mighty good speech. Several of our boys were presented with second-class pins and we now have eight second-class Scouts in the troop.

We thank all the people of Riverdale and Harrisburg for their attendance and help in making our anniversary a success.

Scouts Make Time

Boy Scouts can now cover the city in twenty minutes, it was announced this morning by Scout Executive J. Fredrik Virgin.

Scouts in Troop 16 Take Hike to Lamb's Gap

We were glad to have the opportunity of having Mr. Wirt's talk on trees last Friday, and we extend our hearty thanks to Troop 29 for making it possible for us to see some of the beautiful slides that were shown.

McClintock, Steiner, Weitzel, Eweler, Foote, Rodenheber, Harp, Deibler, George Deibler, McGary and Buller; also Cubs Greig, Kunkle, Huston and the A. S. We left on the 2 o'clock Enola car and reached the Gap at 4:30.

The observation tower was the favorite spot. I don't believe there was an hour that some one wasn't up on the top. One fellow went up to see the lights of the towns visible from there.

IMPORTANT—Don't forget our Second Anniversary luncheon next Friday, May 9. We have had two good mothers' meetings in the past week, and the committee headed by Mrs. James Machlan is going to give us something to eat.

Why Italy Defied America's Peace Ideals

With rare foresight more than two years ago a German newspaper, the Bremen Weser Zeitung, named the Adriatic question as "the surest source of future discord within the ranks of the present Allies."

THE KAISER

in an imperial proclamation to the German Army, June 15, 1888, said, "Thus we belong to each other—I and the army—thus we were born for each other, and thus we will stick to each other forever, be there peace or storm."

NO WONDER THE WORLD was surprised when the Kaiser ignominiously ran away rather than take his medicine like a king.

If You Want to Know

the true Kaiser and his hidden, crooked, criminal life and habits; if you would learn of his debaucheries and secret crimes—if you would see him as the inner circle of the Prussian Court saw him, read every word of the startling expose,

"The Private Life of the Kaiser"

by BARONESS VON LARISCH-REDDERN, for many years major domo and chief of the royal household, at Berlin and Potsdam.

The importance and value of this feature from an historical and educational standpoint is apparent to all—YOU should read it. The first installment will be published in
