

HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH A NEWSPAPER FOR THE HOME

Published evenings except Sunday by THE TELEGRAPH PRINTING CO. Telephone Building, Federal Square

E. J. STACKPOLE President and Editor-in-Chief F. R. OYSTER, Business Manager G. M. STEINMETZ, Managing Editor A. R. MICHENER, Circulation Manager

Member American Newspaper Publishers Association Bureau of Circulation and Pennsylvania Associated Dailies

Eastern office Story, Brooks & Finley, 117 E. 11th Ave., New York City

By carrier, ten cents a week; by mail, $2.90 a year in advance.

MONDAY, MAY 5, 1919

He's true to God who's true to man; wherever wrong is done; To the humblest and the weakest 'neath the all-uboholding sun.

STATE'S RIGHTS THE Sproul administration is to be commended for the manner in which it has taken up the task of looking after the rights of the State in two important instances.

CLEAN UP; FIX UP MAYOR KEISTER has done well to add "fix-up" to his "clean-up" week proclamation.

MORE IMPORTANT FORT WAYNE newspaper is endeavoring to ascertain sentiment in Indiana on the Republican candidacy for President next year.

ABOUT TIME DISPATCHES from Washington indicate that President Wilson means to call Congress into special session not later than June.

experiments. They want to get back to firm ground. They want to be sure that the party to be placed in power the next four years has a fixed policy that will not be like a watercock in the wind.

ON RIGHT TRACK ANNOUNCEMENT that State College is to have playground room sufficient for all its students ought to be a signal for other colleges to study the system that is being introduced at State.

Recently, however, there has come a change. The individual has come to the understanding that he is missing a lot by not having a little sport on his own account.

THOUSANDS of "Welcome Home" banners appear in the front windows of Harrisburg homes, and very properly so.

TO THE JUNK HEAP SECRETARY DANIELS comes back from Europe firm in the conviction that the only thing to do with the great German fleet is to take it out to sea and sink it.

THE Song of the Bolshevik They are for the gink who shirks, cure on the guy who works, is the way the snarling Bolshevik plan; off the wearers of white collars, also those who've earned their dollars, and—there are you with a man.

Cecil Chesterton's Last Book "It is a common and obvious thing to say when a man dies that he has left nobody behind him who can quite fill his place," says a literary critic in the "New York Times."

Daniel's Thankfulness I thank thee and praise thee, O God of my fathers, Roman dome, and thine and mine, and hast made known unto me now what we desired of thee.—Daniel ii, 23.

Both Branches of the Legislature Will Meet Tonight at 9 O'clock Senator Edwin H. Vane's announcement that there will be no more hearings on the Philadelphia charter bills means that the much discussed measures, which have delayed the session of the Legislature of 1919 more than anything else, are at the courts.

Politics in Pennsylvania By the Ex-Committeeman

Both Branches of the Legislature Will Meet Tonight at 9 O'clock Senator Edwin H. Vane's announcement that there will be no more hearings on the Philadelphia charter bills means that the much discussed measures, which have delayed the session of the Legislature of 1919 more than anything else, are at the courts.

Measuring the Day's Work [From Answers, London.] The most difficult task of the coal commission seems to be to discover how much coal cutting is a fair day's work for a collier.

THE SUPREME DESIRE It was their welcome home—the cloud scraping towers of Manhattan, brilliantly white in the warm spring sun, the dancing plumes of steam, the shrilling, howling, roaring whistles and the slamming of the bands; after weary months of French rain and mud and waiting—this was their welcome home.

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE —James F. Woodward, who becomes secretary of internal affairs of the Kansas City, Mo., hospital in McKeesport for a year.

DO YOU KNOW —That Harrisburg workmen helped build ships during the war and some are still employed at the yards?

HISTORIC HARRISBURG —Just 100 years ago the agitation for the construction of the canal to this city was being voiced at meetings.

EDITORIAL COMMENT There's only one end when Miss Liberty rides Anarchy tiger. They come back from the ride with the gaily inscribed banner on the face of the tiger—Brooklyn Eagle.

When Earth Hears the Corn And it shall come to pass in that day, I will hear, saith the Lord, I will hear the heavens and they shall hear the earth; and the earth shall hear the corn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall hear Jezreel.—Hosea ii, 21 and 22.

THE DAYS OF REAL SPORT

Strasbourg Again Is the "City of Storks" After Five Years' Absence, Forecasting the War and Its Continuation in the Alsations' Belief, the Long-Legged Birds Have Resumed Their Pilgrimages, Bringing Good Luck to the People on Whose Homes They Nest.

STORCHERICH, a trial and putting to death of one of their number. Some hold the opinion that the unfortunate bird is one that has been injured and cannot accompany the flock, and is therefore "extinguished."

THE DUTCH many centuries ago asserted storks would never nest except in republics and free countries. "But this," says Willoughby, writing in 1676, "we found by experience to be false, having observed them in the territories of some princes in Germany."

THE SONG OF THE BOLSHIEVIKI They are for the gink who shirks, cure on the guy who works, is the way the snarling Bolshevik plan; off the wearers of white collars, also those who've earned their dollars, and—there are you with a man.

CECIL CHESTERTON'S LAST BOOK "It is a common and obvious thing to say when a man dies that he has left nobody behind him who can quite fill his place," says a literary critic in the "New York Times."

DANIEL'S THANKFULNESS I thank thee and praise thee, O God of my fathers, Roman dome, and thine and mine, and hast made known unto me now what we desired of thee.—Daniel ii, 23.

By BRIGGS

Strasbourg Again Is the "City of Storks" After Five Years' Absence, Forecasting the War and Its Continuation in the Alsations' Belief, the Long-Legged Birds Have Resumed Their Pilgrimages, Bringing Good Luck to the People on Whose Homes They Nest.

STORCHERICH, a trial and putting to death of one of their number. Some hold the opinion that the unfortunate bird is one that has been injured and cannot accompany the flock, and is therefore "extinguished."

THE DUTCH many centuries ago asserted storks would never nest except in republics and free countries. "But this," says Willoughby, writing in 1676, "we found by experience to be false, having observed them in the territories of some princes in Germany."

THE SONG OF THE BOLSHIEVIKI They are for the gink who shirks, cure on the guy who works, is the way the snarling Bolshevik plan; off the wearers of white collars, also those who've earned their dollars, and—there are you with a man.

CECIL CHESTERTON'S LAST BOOK "It is a common and obvious thing to say when a man dies that he has left nobody behind him who can quite fill his place," says a literary critic in the "New York Times."

DANIEL'S THANKFULNESS I thank thee and praise thee, O God of my fathers, Roman dome, and thine and mine, and hast made known unto me now what we desired of thee.—Daniel ii, 23.

By BRIGGS

Strasbourg Again Is the "City of Storks" After Five Years' Absence, Forecasting the War and Its Continuation in the Alsations' Belief, the Long-Legged Birds Have Resumed Their Pilgrimages, Bringing Good Luck to the People on Whose Homes They Nest.

STORCHERICH, a trial and putting to death of one of their number. Some hold the opinion that the unfortunate bird is one that has been injured and cannot accompany the flock, and is therefore "extinguished."

THE DUTCH many centuries ago asserted storks would never nest except in republics and free countries. "But this," says Willoughby, writing in 1676, "we found by experience to be false, having observed them in the territories of some princes in Germany."

THE SONG OF THE BOLSHIEVIKI They are for the gink who shirks, cure on the guy who works, is the way the snarling Bolshevik plan; off the wearers of white collars, also those who've earned their dollars, and—there are you with a man.

CECIL CHESTERTON'S LAST BOOK "It is a common and obvious thing to say when a man dies that he has left nobody behind him who can quite fill his place," says a literary critic in the "New York Times."

DANIEL'S THANKFULNESS I thank thee and praise thee, O God of my fathers, Roman dome, and thine and mine, and hast made known unto me now what we desired of thee.—Daniel ii, 23.

By BRIGGS

Strasbourg Again Is the "City of Storks" After Five Years' Absence, Forecasting the War and Its Continuation in the Alsations' Belief, the Long-Legged Birds Have Resumed Their Pilgrimages, Bringing Good Luck to the People on Whose Homes They Nest.

STORCHERICH, a trial and putting to death of one of their number. Some hold the opinion that the unfortunate bird is one that has been injured and cannot accompany the flock, and is therefore "extinguished."

THE DUTCH many centuries ago asserted storks would never nest except in republics and free countries. "But this," says Willoughby, writing in 1676, "we found by experience to be false, having observed them in the territories of some princes in Germany."

THE SONG OF THE BOLSHIEVIKI They are for the gink who shirks, cure on the guy who works, is the way the snarling Bolshevik plan; off the wearers of white collars, also those who've earned their dollars, and—there are you with a man.

CECIL CHESTERTON'S LAST BOOK "It is a common and obvious thing to say when a man dies that he has left nobody behind him who can quite fill his place," says a literary critic in the "New York Times."

DANIEL'S THANKFULNESS I thank thee and praise thee, O God of my fathers, Roman dome, and thine and mine, and hast made known unto me now what we desired of thee.—Daniel ii, 23.

By BRIGGS

Strasbourg Again Is the "City of Storks" After Five Years' Absence, Forecasting the War and Its Continuation in the Alsations' Belief, the Long-Legged Birds Have Resumed Their Pilgrimages, Bringing Good Luck to the People on Whose Homes They Nest.

STORCHERICH, a trial and putting to death of one of their number. Some hold the opinion that the unfortunate bird is one that has been injured and cannot accompany the flock, and is therefore "extinguished."

THE DUTCH many centuries ago asserted storks would never nest except in republics and free countries. "But this," says Willoughby, writing in 1676, "we found by experience to be false, having observed them in the territories of some princes in Germany."

THE SONG OF THE BOLSHIEVIKI They are for the gink who shirks, cure on the guy who works, is the way the snarling Bolshevik plan; off the wearers of white collars, also those who've earned their dollars, and—there are you with a man.

CECIL CHESTERTON'S LAST BOOK "It is a common and obvious thing to say when a man dies that he has left nobody behind him who can quite fill his place," says a literary critic in the "New York Times."

DANIEL'S THANKFULNESS I thank thee and praise thee, O God of my fathers, Roman dome, and thine and mine, and hast made known unto me now what we desired of thee.—Daniel ii, 23.

When Earth Hears the Corn And it shall come to pass in that day, I will hear, saith the Lord, I will hear the heavens and they shall hear the earth; and the earth shall hear the corn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall hear Jezreel.—Hosea ii, 21 and 22.

Fully Qualified That Virginia private who wears a No. 16 shoe is the fellow who is worth to be sent overseas to see his foot on Germany's neck.—Charleston News and Courier.