

GENERAL WOOD'S NAME TO BE PUT TO CONVENTION

Army Chief Will Be Proposed at Party Gathering by New Hampshire, Says Senator

Washington, May 5.—In the opinion of Senator Moses of New Hampshire, a growing sentiment is spreading throughout the Republican party for the nomination of General Wood as the party's candidate for President in 1920.

Senator Moses says sentiment for General Wood is developing in all the New England states, as well as throughout the West. He finds "more sentiment of the kind that elects Wood than any other who has been mentioned as a nominee in 1920."

Harrisburg Girl Wins $1,400 Piano in Contest; Wins Over Six Players

NAOMI HOWARD BEVARD

Playing against six other contestants, Naomi H. Bevard, of 1223 Green street, won the prize of a grand pianoforte valued at $1,400 in the tenth annual Mason & Hamlin Piano Company at the competition instituted by the New England Conservatory of Music last Thursday afternoon.

Each contestant was required to play the following numbers: Bach's "Chromatic Fantasia in E Minor" (without fugue); Beethoven's "Sonata in A Flat Major," Op. 110 (first movement as far as Allegro Molto); Chopin's "Scherzo in B Major," Op. 20 (without repetitions).

Previous winners of the Mason & Hamlin prize have been: 1919, Julius Chaloff; 1911, Grace Nicholson; 1912, Charles L. Shepherd; 1913, Sara Helen Littlejohn; 1914, Herbert Ringwald; 1915, Howard M. Goding; 1916, Fannie M. Lewis; 1917, Martha Baird; 1918, Sue Kyle Southwick.

When in Harrisburg Miss Bevard studied with Madame Pfaff-Froelich, graduating from her school in 1912. Miss Bevard is a member of the Wednesday Club in which she took an active part before she left for Boston, where she has been studying for two years. She has had her training there under George Proctor, one of the best known teachers of that city and a fine exponent of the great master Leschetizky, with whom he studied in Vienna for many years.

Says Friend "Forgot" to Get Pint of Liquor

On a disorderly charge, Charles Hale and Frank Werner will be given hearings in police court during the afternoon. The men were arrested after a quarrel between them in 1912. Hale with "forgetting" to secure him a pint of whisky with the $1.25 which he had furnished to him for that purpose.

Fears Social Upheaval in England Is Near

New York, May 5.—Mrs. Mary MacArthur, secretary of the British Women's Trade Union League and of the National Federation of Women Workers, declared in an address here last night that England seems to be dangerously near a social upheaval.

Harrisburg Lads

Those from the city and vicinity who are in the company and who with the other members kept the supplies moving to the men up front are: Clyde Hopple, 1912 Wallace; John Rakovsky, 527 Race; Paul Knox, 620 Kelker; Roy R. Wiley, 123 Vine; William Peckart, 1627 South Cameron; Charles B. Bowers, 1504 Walnut; Peter Rheam, 663 North Front; Steelton; Charles Waltman, 1230 Cowden; Lester Finney, 122 Dock; M. H. Stephenson, New Cumberland; George Frazer, Herbert A. Shaffer and George F. Sponser, Camp Hill; Earl L. Wagner, 2007 Kensington; Raymond J. Michaels, 309 North Third; Edward Strung, 934 South Twenty-first; Christ Hiner, Camp Hill; Joseph Moody, 1107 North Cameron; Sergeant Samuel Murlat, 2207 Jefferson, one of three brothers in the 112th; Cook Paul R. Miller, West Fairview; Harold Snoddy; Paul J. Kitzmiller, 2534 Lexington; Sergeant John Franklin, South Sixteenth; Harry Neely, Carlisle.

Frazer and Lance Wallace, of Everts, showed their bravery when they brought back Foster Kammerer, who was wounded, taking him to a first-aid station while the Huns were sending shells over, others in the company say.

Hopple collected a lot of souvenirs including some of the German propaganda sent over the lines in airplane and dropped. Rakovsky's stunt of grabbing a blanket and thinking it was a gas mask in his excitement during shelling on one occasion, has been mentioned while the fellows were sitting around in the barracks.

Francis Knoble, 1621 North Fourth, and Leroy Landis, 1849 Regina, are two Harrisburgers in Company G, in which there are a number of Carlisle men.

GERMAN WRITER SHIVERS UNDER FRENCH FROST

Bitter Teuton Expresses Disgust at Treatment Accorded Huns by the Frenchmen

Berlin, May 5.—Newspapermen with the German peace delegation at Versailles are sending generally conservative accounts of their experiences, but Schuermann, the correspondent of the German Gazette who wielded a bitter pen during the war, does not disguise his disgust at the treatment given the Germans by the French.

He tells of a stenographer who sought to purchase tooth powder at a drug store and "nearly caused a diplomatic breach," the incident ending with her explosion from the store. The writer says that American correspondents, "believing they could move about as freely as they do in Berlin," tried to interview a member of the German delegation on General staff but were sharply denied the privilege.

Schuermann complains of the high prices, especially since the German mark must be transformed in francs, and says the charge for the exchange is exorbitant. He closes by saying: "Frenchmen are neither to petty nor proud to do cheap business with enemy delegates."

NAMED GUARDIAN

The Union Trust company was appointed guardian for Mrs. Catherine S. Fitzpatrick, minor wife of Philip T. Meredith, a well-known killed in an accident January 16, 1918, while in army service overseas. She will receive monthly insurance payments from the government.

gether with some casuals made up of many widely-scattered regiments. There are a number of men from the city in the 8th, but no organizations not connected with the 112th. Quite a few of these were old Eighteenth Regiment, National Guard men.

Company K has Harrisburg and Central Pennsylvania guardsmen in it. York is well represented, and the following from the city and vicinity are still on the roster: Sergeant B. O. Mogel, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Mogel, 1513 South Cameron street, Harrisburg, visited him to-day; Philip London, 1429 North Sixth street; Roy C. Coble and Roy Fortney, New Cumberland.

Former Governor's Troop men and others from the city and vicinity do in the 103d Mobile Ordnance Repair shop. Among them are Sergeant Irwin P. Weaver, Sergeant A. A. Weaver, Greysburg; Sergeant Thomas D. Darborow, Sergeant Harry D. Wilson, 1235 Kittittany street; Corporal Edgar D. Leshar, 1508 Green; Corporal Daniel C. C. French, 2315 Division street; Division kept the men busy, and at one time they acted as repairmen for a whole army corps composed of the 7th, 8th and 9th stationed near Metz at the time.

Pershing's Inspection

They were talking about General Pershing's inspection of the 28th division, which was held in the city and they told about a little interview between the commander of the A. E. F. and Ralph Garrett, of the company. General Pershing is to be held in camp for a divisional inspection and a number of times when he saw boys with wound chevrons on their sleeves would ask about them. Garrett has no overcoat for the inspection and loaned one belonging to Er H. Peterson, Philadelphia, who was wounded. A red stripe on Garrett's uniform indicated the fact and when General Pershing passed Garrett he asked where he had been wounded.

"I wasn't wounded sir," Garrett replied. "But you are wearing a stripe," General Pershing remarked.

"The overcoat isn't mine, sir," Garrett explained. "Private Charles Ryan, 1556 Vernon street, wasn't around when they told about him to-day, but his fearlessness in running messages through the terrific barrage of artillery and machine gun fire during one of the battles showed to the fellows that he was over there unafraid of the Boche and his guns."

Sergeant "Dutch" Bernheisel happened to see his father, a sergeant in the 111th Regiment, on July 4, last year, just at the time the Huns were sending over a barrage. They called it a Fourth of July celebration at the time, "Dutch" says.

Every man in the Supply Company of the 112th was exposed to danger many times while the war was on in France as nightly these boys had to take food, ammunition and other necessary supplies to the men up front. No Harrisburgers in the outfit were killed, but often while bringing up supplies the work was done with the men under heavy bombardment.

Francis Knoble, 1621 North Fourth, and Leroy Landis, 1849 Regina, are two Harrisburgers in Company G, in which there are a number of Carlisle men.

Government Asks Supreme Effort to Make Victory Loan a Success

By CARTER GLASS Secretary of the Treasury

Washington, May 5.—The Victory Liberty Loan campaign is two-thirds over, but subscriptions have been reported for little more than one-third of the loan.

Is it conceivable that the American people, who with heart and soul waged the fight for freedom, will permit this loan of victory and thanksgiving to fail? Our sons gave of their strength and of their lives that freedom might not perish. There are one and a half million American boys in France and Germany. Now that the war is ended, it would be as reasonable for them to dishonor the nation by deserting the flag as for the nation to dishonor itself by deserting them. Is it a large thing that we now are asked to lend our money to pay the cost of victory? Is American money less willing than American manhood?

Let every one of the millions who have bought Liberty Bonds buy Victory notes and success is sure.

points outside Pennsylvania are on the rosters now.

With Headquarters Company Those from the city are scattered in the five platoons of Headquarters Company. The first platoon is composed largely of runners who carry messages; second platoon, signal; third, trench mortar; fourth, pioneers, and fifth, handling the 27-millimeter guns. First Lieutenant John Westling, Harrisburg, is with the fifth platoon. Others from the city in it are Sergeant J. A. Cassell, 2285 North Sixth; Roland R. Swenson, 310 Granite; Harry Shimp, 612 Church; Corporal Roy Murlat, 68 North Twelfth; John Moreland, 1315 State.

In the other platoons are C. C. Murlat; J. E. Peters, Enola; William Musgrave, Middletown; Walter Rutz, Hummelstown; George M. Kudy, Mechanicsburg; Paul Christener, 162 South Summit; Albert Reed, 739 South Nineteenth; John Mumma, 1933 Kensington; Corporal E. A. Fisher, New Cumberland; E. R. and Bruce Pott brothers, 124 Swatara; J. L. Swannbery, 2168 Swatara; J. L. Swannbery, 2168 Brookwood; Lewis Straining, 715 North Nineteenth; J. S. Weisenfeld, Steelton; H. J. Physicians in Charge at Rotary Club Lunch; Colonel Martin Speaks

Col. Martin, State Health Commissioner; Major Gans, of the State Health Department, and Major Grant of the Carlisle Army Hospital, addressed the Harrisburg Rotary Club at luncheon in the Penn-Harris today. A committee of the physicians of the club, Dr. C. E. L. Keene, Dr. Samuel Z. Shrove and Dr. H. A. Stine, had charge of the program and they had as their guests army physicians from camps and hospitals throughout the country.

During the luncheon a mock operation was performed by the physicians in charge, who appeared togged out in their operating costumes. The "patient" was brought into the room in a closed cabinet, which when opened revealed a very charming young woman soloist who sang for the Rotarians.

Commissioner Martin addressed the club on the necessity for a contagious disease hospital in Harrisburg and Major Gans spoke on the campaign against gonorrhea, which is being staged in Pennsylvania. Major Grant paid a high compliment to Colonel Keefer, in charge of the Carlisle Hospital, who he said ranks with the best in the country. He invited the club members up to inspect it. The members of the One Hundred and Twelfth Infantry at Carlisle, with the exception of six who are confined to their cots, will be brought to Harrisburg to be entertained by the Red Cross when the Harrisburg companies come home.

Three Big Seaplanes Try Ocean Flight Tomorrow Morning

New York, May 5.—The three big seaplanes in which United States Navy aviators will attempt a flight across the Atlantic will "hop off" for New Foundland on the first leg of their journey at 7 o'clock Tuesday morning if weather permits. It was officially announced at the Rockaway Beach naval training station.

Scranton Is Facing Sympathetic Strike

Scranton, Pa., May 5.—This city is facing a general sympathetic strike of all trades unions who reject the rejection by the city of the award arbitrators made in the recent strike of the city employees. At a meeting of the Central Labor Union yesterday a resolution was adopted giving the city until May 9 to accept the award and calling a meeting of all representatives of the various affiliated crafts for next Friday night for the purpose of making a general strike vote.

"Waste Savings" Campaign For Nursery Home Starts Tomorrow at North Street

The "Waste Savings" campaign, for the benefit of the Nursery Home, begins to-morrow. A big motor truck will start out in the morning, beginning at North street and working uptown, to gather the bags of waste materials left on the doorsteps. A bugle will be sounded at each square to give householders time to get the bags to their front doors.

Most of the homes contain the following things which can help swell the fund: Rags, large or small; unwearable articles, such as old flannel baby clothing, blankets, petticoats, women's outing suits, stockings, woolen underwear, shirts, yarn, knitted articles, such as unwearable house jackets, shawls, sweaters, scarfs, toboggan caps and mittens, and women's men's and boys' unwearable garments, including overcoats, suits, cloths, and rubber footwear, automobile tires, hot water bags, and copper, brass, lead, tin, and old plated ware, knives, forks, etc.

Surety of Peace Suit Against Boughter Dropped

The suit has been withdrawn against W. H. Boughter, of Middletown, who was arrested last week on a surety of peace charge at the instance of his wife and the costs paid. No hearing was given Boughter, who, after his arrest, spent a total of ten minutes in the borough lockup.

SONG TO GREET SOLDIERS

The War Camp Community Service is arranging to make singing an important feature of the welcome home reception to the returning members of the Twenty-eighth Division. A request has been issued to all choirs of the city to join in with the delegation at Front and Walnut streets. The singing will be in charge of Mrs. Florence Ackley, musical director of the service; Mrs. J. G. Sanders, A. W. Neale, Elmer H. Ley, Howard E. Gensler, Miss Mildred Conklin, Miss E. S. Yost and Charles Shaffner.

F. B. Aldinger Takes Over the Hotel Senate

The wholesale liquor license held by Frederick B. Aldinger, 24 Green street, was transferred to-day to Harry L. Aldinger. A few minutes after the court approved this transfer another license, held by Frederick B. Aldinger authority to take over the retail liquor license at the Senate Hotel held by Frederick H. Menger.

BIBLE CLASSES TO MEET

The State Federation of Bible classes will meet in Partor A at the Penn-Harris to-morrow. Among the speakers scheduled are representative J. W. Vickerman and W. G. Landis, general secretary of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association. Approximately 100 people are expected to be present.

THIS time of the year there are many odd jobs about the home that every well man likes to do. But no man or woman with a "bad back" enjoys doing anything. There's surely something wrong when every day brings morning lameness, sharp pains when lifting, and a dull, tired state. Likely it's kidney weakness. Don't neglect it! It's easily corrected at first, but delay may encourage gravel, dropsy or dangerous Bright's disease. If your back aches and kidneys are disordered, get Doan's Kidney Pills. This successful remedy is recommended so strongly by people you know, you can use it with real confidence.

Read These Harrisburg Cases:

- North Second Street: D. H. Neff, 1928 North Second street, says: "Whenever I catch cold it seems to settle in my kidneys causing my back to get weak and ache. The kidney secretions would become too frequent in passage and were highly colored. At such times I have purchased a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Kennedy's Drug Store and they have always cured me of the attack. I am glad to recommend this medicine to others suffering with weak kidneys."
Swatara Street: Mrs. E. L. Eppinger, 1808 Swatara street, says: "About four years ago my kidneys were in a bad shape. My back was awfully lame and sore and it was hard for me to stoop over to dust or sweep. I felt dull and languid and was annoyed by the blurred vision in my eyes. I had attacks of blurred eyesight and dizzy spells and I felt badly all the time. Hearing Doan's Kidney Pills recommended so highly by those who had tried them, I decided to try them also. Four boxes of Doan's made a complete and lasting cure and I gladly endorse this fine, old kidney and backache remedy."
South Sixteenth Street: Gerald F. Corkle, 7 South 16th street, says: "For several years I suffered from severe pains in my kidneys and bladder. I could not rest at night on account of the pain and my kidneys acted too frequently. I tried several different remedies and they did not relieve me. Finally I got to taking Doan's Kidney Pills and I found them to be the best remedy I ever used. On account of my work I use them occasionally now to rid me of the poison caused from inhaling the fumes of turpentine. I have great faith in this medicine."
Berryhill Street: Mrs. William Fry, 1418 Berryhill street, practical nurse, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are fine for the kidneys and my advice to any one suffering with them is to try Doan's. Some years ago my kidneys were in bad shape. Every time I moved my body quickly or stooped over, sharp pains would catch me in my back. My kidneys were congested, weak and scanty in action. The kidney secretions were highly colored and I felt miserable. Headaches and dizzy spells caused me annoyance, too. As one of the family had used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results a short while ago, I decided to try them. This medicine cured me and I have had no trouble with my kidneys since."
Peffer Street: Daniel Cless, 516 Peffer street, says: "Whenever a cold would settle in my kidneys my back would become weak and would ache for a long time. Often I thought I could not keep about on account of my back hurting so and I was annoyed by the too frequent action of my kidneys. The secretions of the kidneys were highly colored and burned in passage. Every time I have been this way I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and a couple of boxes always relieve me."
Front Street: Mrs. Harriet Sees, 1117 North Front street, says: "I am past seventy years of age and my kidneys are in a good, strong, healthy condition. I give Doan's Kidney Pills credit for this. I have used this medicine for some time, occasionally, and it has always done me a world of good. At times when I have suffered from backache, due from a cold, I have taken Doan's and they have never failed to flush out the congested kidneys and strengthen my back. I believe the occasional use of Doan's has prolonged my life and I cannot praise them too strongly, especially to those along in years."
