

Roll of Honor

- |                       |                          |                              |
|-----------------------|--------------------------|------------------------------|
| Lee Bale              | Sergt. Frank Lindsey     | Ray Snow                     |
| Alvin L. Beistline    | John Losh                | Capt. Harry A. Souders       |
| William F. Dwyer      | Frederick O. Lyter       | Lieut. Albert H. Stackpole   |
| Walter Eby            | Clifford Morton          | Capt. Edw. J. Stackpole, Jr. |
| Paul D. Fettrow       | William E. Mower         | Lieut. John C. Swank         |
| Frank F. Hailman      | Paul Nace                | Lieut. Charles W. Thomas     |
| Isaac O. Heckert      | Arthur Earl Owen         | Geo. Herbert Walter          |
| L. G. Hertzler        | Frank Redeker            | Joseph D. Weber              |
| Frank L. Hessenberger | Sergt. Willred J. Reilly | Sergt. Bion C. Welker        |
| Samuel Koplovitz      | Nelson Roundsley         | Purcel Wightman              |
| Jacob Leff            | Charles L. Shields       | J. B. Wilver                 |
| Linn C. Lightner      | Luther G. Smith          |                              |

To the Members of the Telegraph Family

Who Have Already Come Home---
Who Are Coming Home Today---

We Extend to You

A Cordial Welcome

We know you will join with us in our hopes that the day may not be far distant when your comrades still in the service will be with us again. It is significant that on this day, which marks the anniversary of the sinking of the Lusitania, we should welcome you, who have had such a large part in avenging this crime of the ages.

We are proud of you—proud of every member of the Telegraph Family who has shared in making Right and Justice triumphant and the world safe for Democracy.

ALL HONOR TO YOU