Returns From War to Enter Business Life

DAVID V. MORRIS

Many Harrisburgers know David V. Morris, who has just returned from service in the World War and who will engage in the shoe repairing business as manager of the new Modern Shoe Repairing Company, 504 Market street, soon to be opened.

Morris was in Company G, One Hundred and Forty-sixth Infantry, Thirty-seventh Division. He left Harrisburg April 20 of last year and landed in France June 22. He was not wounded despite the fact that he saw strenuous service overseas.

DRUMMER LONES FINGER... Louis Westphaler, drummer of the Steelton band, this morning had a finger on his left hand amputated. The finger had been crushed while he was working at the Bethlehem Steel Company eight weeks ago and since then every effort had been made to save it.

GERMAN CABINET TO FALL UNLESS PACT IS SIGNED

Peace Delegates Divided in Views on Terms Submitted by Allies

By Associated Press. Paris, May 9.—It is generally believed the Germans will answer the delivery of the treaty of peace by proposals relative to certain phases of the document. A competent commission will examine the German answer and if modifications are necessary, the Germans will be notified. It is expected that in this rejoinder the energy will be allowed four or five days to agree definitely to the whole treaty. It is, therefore, probable that from 25 to 30 days will elapse before the pact is finally signed.

Delegates Are Divided... The German delegates to the Peace Congress are considerably divided among themselves in their views on the peace terms submitted by the allied and associated powers, it was intimated to-day by a high British authority, a Reuters statement says. Due consideration is naturally given the fact that the declaration that Germany would refuse to sign the peace unless the conditions were greatly modified, in her favor, possibly have been put out just now with the object of influencing the negotiations, and that it is not necessarily conclusive.

Government May Fall... Experts attached to the inter-allied conference who have just returned from Germany where they endeavored to obtain material for a definite verdict on this subject believe, however, that a refusal by the present government to sign is not case the existing government would fall immediately and be succeeded by an independent Socialist government which would sign any treaty proposed, provided, however, any intention of binding the government of future or observing the conditions if the opportunity arose to disregard them.

To Discuss Phases... Despite the decision that no oral negotiations should be permitted, it is expected here that discussions of some phases of the treaty may take place, and possibly at the Ebert-Palace Hotel are being held in readiness for a possible session of inter-allied and German commissions. Information coming from German sources indicates that the Ebert-Scheidemann government is considering its fate if it should accept such a drastic treaty. It may choose to refuse to sign the treaty and go down in a blaze of patriotic glory.

Germans Shocked... According to this information the greatest shock to the Germans was given by the formula establishing the frontier of Poland, giving, as it does a great part of West Prussia and a considerable seacoast to Poland, in addition to large coal fields in Upper Silesia. When the German delegates left home they expected to hear rather more moderate proposals regarding the Polish frontier and Danzig.

The delegates also question the possibility of Germany paying reparations to the extent laid down in the treaty, and they doubt whether they should sign clauses which they are said ostensibly to regard as impossible of fulfillment. They object also to the surrender of their entire merchant fleet, arguing that this would force them to pay an additional indemnity to England in freight for every ton of raw material imported, manufactured and exported under the virtual British monopoly of ocean tonnage which they assume would soon follow the elimination of the German mercantile fleet.

Berlin, May 9.—There is only one immediate solution—peace with Russia and the use of Bolshevik troops for Germany. Herr Reiser, one of the German delegates at Versailles, is quoted by the Neue Zeitung, as declaring with reference to the peace terms submitted.

Versailles, May 9.—Eight new members of the German delegation have arrived here, but they have not yet communicated with their colleagues who arrived prior to the presentation of the peace treaty. Colonel Henry, who was the only link between the Germans and the Allies up to the time of the presentation of the treaty, has ended his activities.

Among the arrivals was Count Alfred von Oberndorf, a member of the German Armistice Commission. He brought credentials as a minister plenipotentiary at the congress and is expected to take an important part in the negotiations.

Pine Street Church to Welcome Men Home From War With Big Banquet

A big welcome home banquet for the men of the Pine Street Presbyterian Church, who served in the United States forces during the war, is being planned for Thursday, May 22. A celebration such as this on the occasion has never been arranged.

Included among the men of the One Hundred and Twenty-eighth Division, who returned home on Wednesday, a total of seventy-five of the Pine Street church are now again at their homes in Harrisburg and others are expected to be mustered out of the military service before the time of the banquet. The Red Cross Auxiliary of the church will provide and serve the supper for the occasion, after which an interesting program is being for the entertainment of the men. The committee is observing the strictest secrecy in its arrangements, and thus far they refuse to give any intimation of what will be included.

It has been announced that whatever seats at the banquet remain unused after the needs of the soldiers have been met, will be granted to church members in the order of application, although the civilians will be required to pay for their plate at the banquet. Special efforts are being made by officials to get every man from the church service in attendance at the event.

Georgia's New Senator Is to Vote For Suffrage; Predecessor Had Opposed

Washington, May 9.—Information reached Washington to-day that William J. Harris, the new senator from Georgia, who is now in Europe, has told President Wilson that he will vote for the equal suffrage amendment resolution which failed at the last session of the Senate by one. Former Senator Thomas W. Harterick, whom Mr. Harris succeeds, voted against the measure.

PENNSYLVANIA MAN DIES... Albert Forney of Denning, died in the Harrisburg Hospital to-day of pneumonia, aged 32 years. He had been admitted to the institution four days previous.

eral years and learned the trade of miller. Later he went to Columbia, where he first entered the service of the company, working on the coal wharf. An opportunity soon presented itself when Mr. Brady went into the train service and being desirous of running an engine went to firing over the road. He remained a fireman seven years when he was promoted to engineman. His ability was soon recognized and he did not remain long running freight. After his promotion to passenger engineman he was often detailed to take charge of fast trains operated by the company.

Secretary McLaughlin Will Remain on Job Here

Despite the fact that he has received word that he has inherited $10,000, Captain A. G. McLaughlin, secretary of the Knights of Columbus War Activities, stationed here, will stick to his job, he stated to-day. He will remain in office as long as his services are needed. The fortune was inherited from his father, for thirty-six years a large coffee broker.

Red Blood Is What Sick People Need

Doctors Discover New Blood Food Which Adds Red Blood to Veins of Pale, Thin, Weak, Sickly People at Rate of One Ounce a Day

In Many Instances Dangerous Disease Vanishes as Blood Is Renewed and Strengthened, Says Noted Authority

Thousands of people who suffer from various serious ailments, including Heart, Lungs, Kidney, Stomach, or with Chronic Catarrh, Rheumatism, Eczema or Nervous Debility, might easily, quickly and entirely recover and become sound, healthy and strong simply through a thorough system of blood building, states a well-known authority. In any case of chronic disease involving a deficient or improper blood supply it is my invariable custom to start the patient on a course of "NOVO-SAN." This remarkable medicine is a true blood-food and tissue builder and while in no sense a "cure-all," it works wonders in the treatment of a wide variety of disorders, simply by its wonderful action on the blood. Only recently, for instance, there was the case of a Civil War Veteran suffering from heart weakness. His condition was so serious that he had often fallen on the street during attacks. He had also sought advice of numerous local and foreign physicians without receiving any benefit. Examination clearly indicated a serious case of anemia or blood poverty. And so as a preliminary to any heart treatment he was put on a course of NOVO-SAN to renew and build up his blood supply. Soon afterward, as strange as it may seem, his heart trouble completely disappeared, even though he had not received any direct treatments for his heart. At this time
