PRIMARY MAY FIX ELECTION

With Only Two Candidates For Judge in Perry County One Will Win Out

New Bloomfield, Pa., May 9.—The president judgeship election will likely be settled at the primary election, it is believed. With but two candidates in the field for the office in the Forty-first judicial district, including Perry and Juniata counties, one of the candidates is practically certain to receive more than fifty per cent. of the votes and this will constitute an election.

James M. Barnett, of New Bloomfield, is the Perry county seeker for the nomination now in the field, and it is not believed in political circles that he will have any opposition in this county. Before the non-partisan act became effective, he was a candidate for the office on the Republican ticket, but was defeated by Judge William N. Seibert.

Insurance Man Tells of Friend's Recovery

"He suffered considerably from gas in stomach and cold attacks, and at times was very yellow. His doctors diagnosed his ailment as gall bladder trouble and that an operation was necessary. Some one persuaded him to try May's Wonderful Remedy. Since taking it one year ago he tells me he has been able to eat anything." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

HOW THIS NERVOUS WOMAN GOT WELL

Told by Herself. Her Sincerity Should Convince Others.

Christopher, Ill.—"For four years I suffered from irregularities, weakness, nervousness, and was in a run-down condition. Two of our best doctors failed to do me any good. I heard so much about what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others, I tried it and was cured. I am no longer nervous, am regular, and in excellent health. I believe the Compound will cure any female trouble."

—Mrs. ALICE HELLER, Christopher, Ill.

Nervousness is often a symptom of weakness or some functional derangement, which may be overcome by this famous root and herb remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as thousands of women have found by experience.

If complications exist, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for suggestions in regard to your ailment. The result of its long experience is at your service.
