

LAST OF 110TH IS BACK HOME

Men Waited Three Weeks to Get Vessel Bound to Philadelphia

Philadelphia, May 13. — Additional members of the Keystone Division arrived in port here yesterday and have started at once to make preparations to participate in the great Keystone Division parade on Thursday. Yesterday's arrivals include a total of 1325 men, members of the 110th Regiment.

Many of these returning transatlantic voyagers had been taken from many quarters of the globe. Every State in the Union except Delaware was represented in the personnel, with Finland, Denmark, Switzerland, Italy, Canada, Panama and other places tossed in for good measure and to make the vessel carry its own characteristic League of Nations.

To these men the visit to this city was merely one more camp before they struck out for home, and they were phlegmatic and peaceful and did not react to the general bedlam evoked in their honor.

Those fighting men who had gone out among the first of the 110th Infantry carried with them poignant, precious memories that stilled any tumult that they might like to create. These returning lads, battered and bruised in flesh, but undaunted in spirit, were thinking of the comrades they had left forever somewhere in France, comrades who would keep the eternal bivouac of the dead until the final reveille was sounded.

The men were reviewed by Colonel George E. Kemp, their old commander before they left St. Nazaire, and they had a kick coming, too, they said, about the parade and review. They were scheduled to leave three weeks before they did, but the War Department promised to send them here and they had to wait the extra time for a vessel bound to this port. In fact the Twentieth Division, the Maryland and New Jersey boys, got away a month before they expected because the 110th had to wait. Incidentally they said another protest they had about the parade was that is all they have been doing for the three weeks the regiment was tied up in Brest.

The companies returning and their commanders are as follows: F, Captain E. R. Taylor, Bellefonte; G, Captain John Rose, Philadelphia; H, Captain W. J. Scott, Conneville; K, Captain U. C. Hendler, Philadelphia; L, Captain Homer M. Wilmer, Blairsville; M, Captain W. R. Cummings, Blairsville.

The 110th Infantry originally was made up of the 3d and 10th Regiments, Pennsylvania National Guard. Of the 1,000 officers and men of the 3d Regiment who went to France, but six officers and ten men returned today, the others having been killed or sent home as casualties.

Harrisburg was represented in two or three of the companies of the 110th which arrived from France yesterday. Captain E. J. Stackpole, Jr., was commander of M company and has been home for sometime recovering from wounds; Frank P. Hawk, of Woodbine street, a member of Company K was killed in the fighting last year and other Harrisburgers were Geo. Moltz of Co. L; Private George Meyer, who was transferred from Co. M to the Supply Co and John Moltz, a brother of George, who was attached to the Ordnance Theatrical Troup.

Middletown

Accused of Stealing Horse and Carriage

Lester Hoy, who told the police he lived in Reading, was fined $10 and costs yesterday at a hearing before Burgess Gingrich on charges of being drunk and disorderly. Norman Risser had accused Hoy of stealing his horse and carriage from a store in Union street Saturday night. After a search the team was found at the East End of the borough with Hoy, the police say, asleep in the carriage. At the hearing Risser claimed $75 damages for the team.

This was settled between Risser and Hoy. The Middletown Praying Band will meet at the home of Mrs. Mary Brown, Keystone avenue, this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

George Croll, who spent the weekend in town with his brother, E. L. Croll, West Main street, returned to his home at Baltimore, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Seidler and son Robert Seidler of Newark, N. J., are spending sometime in town as the guests of the former's mother, Mrs. Louise Seidler, West Main street.

Miss Elizabeth Salky has resigned her position as stenographer at the aviation supply depot and will leave for her home at Kansas City, Mo.

The senior class of the Middletown High school, who spent the weekend at the Bachman Cottage at Mt. Gretna, returned home yesterday. They were chaperoned by Mrs. Kathryn Sticklell, and were composed of the following: Miss Marie Bortner, Miss Helen Croll, Miss Betty Croll, Miss Esther McClure, Miss Lena Selcher, Miss Harriet Swartz and Miss Louise Hanna, Messrs. Nissley Ulrich, Karl Wagner, Eber Noell and Edwin Yost.

Poketo Tribe, No. 315, I. O. O. R., will hold a homecoming meeting in its hall in Ann street next Saturday evening in honor of several of their members who recently returned from service overseas. Several of the State officers of the lodge will be present and a fine program will be rendered. Refreshments will be served.

Hugh Bernhart, who recently returned from overseas and a member of the United States Marines, is spending several days on a furlough in town with his aunt, Mrs. George Mish, North Union street.
