

Balloon Race Will Go to One of Two in Flight to the Coast

Washington, May 14.—While the Navy Department has not yet officially determined the winner of the free balloon race from Akron, Ohio, to the Atlantic coast, officials said today that first honors undoubtedly would go either to the entry of the Superintendent Constructor of Aircraft at Akron, piloted by Lieutenant F. Rodegarts, U. S. N. R. F., or to the bag sponsored by ex-navy men of Akron, piloted by Ensign T. D. Collins, U. S. N. R. F. Both drifted approximately 850 miles, the first descending near Tuckahoe, N. J., and the second at Ocean City, Md. The Navy Department has started an investigation of its own to determine the identity of persons who fired more than a score of rifle bullets at two of the balloons late Sunday, bringing one of them to earth near Baden, Pa.

To Take Photographs Of Solar Eclipse From Naval Plane

New York, May 14.—Professor David Todd, who has charge of the Amherst College astronomical observatory, has sailed on the steamer Elinor for Montevideo, where he will take observations of a solar eclipse on May 29, from a naval plane at an altitude of from 10,000 to 15,000 feet. Professor Todd predicted that his plan, which is an innovation in astronomy, would result in the obtaining of clearer photographs of an eclipse than ever have been made

Communist Regime In Hungary Stronger

Vienna, May 14.—Reports from Budapest say that the position of the Hungarian Communist government appears to have grown stronger in the last few days. The halt of the Rumanian advance has encouraged the Communists who believe that the Rumanians undertook more than they were able to accomplish, if their intention was to reach Budapest. (Official announcement has been made that the allied troops, moving on Budapest,

Golden Eagles Meet For Annual Session

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., May 14.—Three hundred and forty-four Knights are here for the forty-third annual convention of the Grand Castle, Knights of the Golden Eagle, and 150 ladies are also present for the twenty-fifth annual convention of the Grand Temple, Ladies of the Golden Eagle, the sessions of which were opened yesterday. A joint session was held yesterday after the delegates had paraded to their meeting places, led by a band. Henry Geiss, of Scranton, presided at the joint session. E. A. Morgan, representing Mayor Kosek, made the address of welcome, and A. G. Stiemme, of Philadelphia, responded. Short addresses were made by John C. Kenney, Philadelphia, past supreme chief of the Eagles, and by Mrs. Ida Greidley, Altoona, grand templar.

All Toilet Articles Taxed One Cent on 25-Cent Purchase

Washington, May 14.—Consumers are required to pay a tax of one cent for every 25 cents, in the purchase price of practically all toilet articles and all patented or advertised medicinal articles, under regulations announced by the Internal Revenue Bureau, defining the taxability of such commodities under the revenue act. Stamps to cover the tax, which became effective May 1, will be issued, it was said, in nine denomina-

Second Body Found in River After Two Months

Missing since March 15, the body of Harry M. Gramm, of New Market, who drowned with William Trimble while attempting to cross the Susquehanna between New Market and Steelton, was found yesterday near Elkton, Md. Trimble's body was found Monday. It is believed the high water caused the bodies to float ashore from entanglements.

These Bright May Days Bring Many Requirements

Everybody is coming outdoors, for fuller health and comfort. So there are outdoor things to wear and outdoor things to use — all of which must be rightly provided, or much of the outdoor comfort and happiness may be missed.

It is our province to find and assemble all these things. This is the public service that indicates our right to exist, and it is our pride that we have done our work well — especially this Spring.

See our Outdoor Wearables for Women and Misses. See our Outdoor Garments for Baby and Children. See our Outdoor Furnishings for the Home. Nothing is missing that we could anticipate that you would want, and we think each item is the best for every need, at its fairest price. Now we shall thank you for your judgment about it. Come and see what we have brought.
