

ROLLER TO WRESTLE DRAAK HERE; OZAR AND GARDNER IN GREAT GRAPPLE TONIGHT

West End Ball Club Has All-Star Cast

The West End baseball club which has furnished baseball to fans of this city for the last ten years, will open their Saturday game season this coming Saturday, when they will meet the Methodist Boys' club, of this city. This is the same club that applied for admission to the twilight league and perhaps would now be members of that strong organization but for the fact that the Motive Power has the proposition under consideration at that time. It is generally understood that should there at any time in the future be an opening in the Boys' Club will have the first chance for the franchise. Manager Flickinger has gathered together a strong bunch of talent and says he will give the West End some chance for their opening game. He has been following the West End play in their twilight games to get a line on them. The West End team is going a fast clip in this league, and their roster shows some of the best players in the county. Amongst those available for Saturday games as well as twilight, are as follows: Conklin, youngster of 17 years, is catching in big league style, and after seeing this boy handle "Kid" Stucker's delivery Monday evening, when the "Kid" was returned from the base hospital at Carlisle, where he was recovering from injuries received in France, "Lefty" being a West End favorite before leaving for the battlefield. "Dode" Finner, who was with the Harrisburg Tri-State team in the days of professional ball here. "Dode" is known for his speed and should be a star in the evening games. John Jones, now at Villanova College, will be home shortly and take his turn on the mound, while the club has the signature of George Levan, the iron man of the Hill League to a contract. He will not be available for all games, but when George does work he will be able to bring home many victories. First base is covered by "Dusty" Motter, a West End idol. "Dusty" has played this sack for Duncannon for several seasons. Motter is known for his clouting. Second sack will have that all around athlete "Ike" McCord, who has seen service in the Southern League for the last several seasons, and will make the fans in this town think of big circus stunts when the season gets under way. At short stop is the captain of the club, "Bill" Baker. "Bill" covers this field like "Rabbit" Manville, and if he could hit as well as he fields, he would not be with this club. But most likely making his name with the hitting leagues, although he does some hitting here.

Third base is covered by Harry Kline, he having developed into a reliable third sacker, working for the

Tommy Draak Will Wrestle Dr. Roller Here On May 20

Local wrestling fans who have been anxiously waiting for the return of the ancient sport to Harrisburg, have been joyously stirred up by the announcement that Dr. Roller, the famous physician wrestler, will again be seen in action at the Chestnut street auditorium on next Tuesday night, when he meets Tommy Draak, the champion heavyweight of the Netherlands, in a match that will go two falls out of three to a finish.

The bout here Tuesday night is under the management of Promoter Bauman, who staged the Lewis-Roller match here some time ago and the fans are assured of a good night's entertainment of good clean and exciting wrestling. It is expected that within a few weeks Draak will be placed in position for the fans.

Saturday games will start at 3.45 o'clock with "AL" Baxter umpiring. The management takes this means of thanking those who have contributed to the club, and assure them a good brand of ball all season.

Mercersburg in Baseball and Track Events at State Keep Tech Busy

Athletics at Tech High School will get another boost this weekend when the baseball team will go to Mercersburg Academy to oppose the team representing that school, while the track team goes to State College to compete in the annual inter-scholastic meet held under the auspices of State College.

In regard to the track meet, Tech has queried that meet for the last five years. If State were wise that institution would send Tech an invitation to remain away. Just as soon as Tech enters, the other State High schools drop out. It has been so long since any other high school has won, that one's memory must return to the winning track teams up at Central that romped home with the cups and whatnot prior to the other than making athletes of them. Every shop in the school will be a veritable hive of industry, where the students will display the work that they have done during the year in woodworking, tin-smithing machine practice, blacksmithing and foundry work. The laboratories—both the chemical and physical—will be filled with upper classmen performing experiments.

In the various classrooms will be displays by members of the clubs that were instituted at the school this year. In the auditorium there will be musical numbers by the orchestra led by Professor George W. Stedrovo with Henry Shope as the student leader. Julian DeGray of the Freshman class will play several piano solos. He is one of the most talented of the younger musicians of the city.

Then to cap the climax, the Dramatic club, under the direction of Prof. Samuel Wilson will put on "The Last Rehearsal." Participating in this sketch will be Warren Cless, Fred Hamel, William Kennedy, Hyman Cramer, Warren Harder and

East End Wants Game For Saturday

The fast East End Club intended to play Hershey on Saturday, but the Hersheyites canceled, and now East End will take on any first class club at home or away. The headquarters are at Royal Fire Company house.

"Buck" Ramsey Figures Largely in Victory of Motive Power Team

More than 2,500 fans saw Motive Power nose out Commonwealth at Fourth and Seneca last evening by 5-4. It looked as if Commonwealth would come through with the feet-footed Gerdes on second base and Wrightstone set to bat for a clean-up wallop. But owing to the cleverness of "Buck" Ramsey he was allowed to walk and Eisenberger did not have the punch. Fields' catching was high class and he is better even than when he starred in local high school arenas. Harle's and Wrightstone's fielding and hitting were swell. Ramsey and Washington each had speed and control. Hoeker, Brown and Howe showed their ability to hit. The score:

East End Jrs.	4	2	.666
Swatara	4	2	.571
Algonquins	2	2	.500
West End Jrs.	1	3	.250

The West End Juniors entered the City Junior League with a victory over Swatara, 11 to 7, which tumbled Swatara back to second place again. Shindler's pitching, and hitting featured.

The East End Juniors again took the lead, when they defeated the Algonquins 3 to 1, in their game at Nineteenth and Greenwood streets. Strine's big drive in the third, with a runner on base, also featured.

This evening's schedule brings together Swatara and West End Juniors, Sixth and Division streets, and East End Juniors with Algonquins,

Sunday Sports in Fairmount Approved

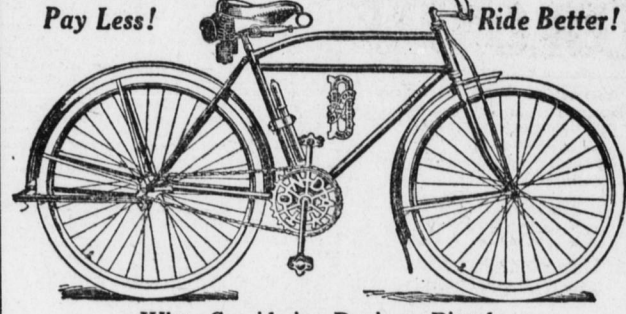

Philadelphia, May 15.—Sunday sports in Fairmount Park, Philadelphia's 3,500-acre playground, received official sanction yesterday at a meeting of the commissioners having charge of the park. A resolution "that the chief engineer be instructed to permit the orderly playing of all outdoor games in the park on Sunday" was adopted unanimously.

Ozar-Gardner Tonight

Two of the finest specimens of physical development ever seen here will be matched to-night at the Orpheum theater when Jack Ozar and "Pinkey" Gardner, grapplers for title in the best two out of three. The public is familiar with dimensions and other particulars of these two well-matched athletes. Ozar was a State policeman for six months and gave satisfaction in the line but found he had little time to train, so went back to the rugged sport in which he has been a champion for years. His weight compelled him to get out of the middleweight class and he is ambitious now to meet the top notchers and he will challenge Roller or Draak when they wrestle here next week.

Many claim that Gardner is the cleverest wrestler in the arena today. He, too, is a college man and has been compared to Sandow for physical perfection. Two 15-minute preliminary matches will be run through with before the star event of the evening. Ernest Lehner, Harrisburg, will tackle a Lebanon High school athlete named Troutman, and the other match will be a set-in between two Lebanon lads, Ned and "Red" Miller. The first bout will begin at 8:30 o'clock.
