

MYTON SUGGESTS A SPECIAL TOUR FOR CAR OWNERS

Pleasurable Trip Can Be Taken Only One Day a Year

By J. CLYDE MYTON Secretary, Harrisburg Motor Club I suppose motor car owners of Harrisburg ask themselves one particular question 250 times a year; and that question is: "Where will we go to-night?" Or: "Where will we go to-day?"

I have in mind a little trip for every owner of a motor vehicle which will be on the beaten path only part of the way. It isn't a long voyage. In fact it's comparatively a short one. But not another trip that can be made out of Harrisburg in what the poets call "merry month of May" will be more pleasurable.

Delicious Flavor

The flavor is the quality mark of the coffee. Upon it depends its popularity. The better the flavor and aroma, the greater the demand for the coffee.

Golden Roast Blend Coffee

The blend and the roast are responsible for the flavor — this in its turn for the popularity. Tell your grocer to send you a pound

Mechanicsburg, Pa.; they don't go to Mechanicsburg. They "head" for it, and in a few minutes they come to Washington Heights, Lemoyne. There's a little pleasure-place there they call Willa-Villa. And that is where the car drivers stop and unload next Thursday.

I don't know of a thing people of Harrisburg could do right now that would be productive of better results than to go to Willa-Villa next Thursday afternoon and evening, and participate in the sky-lark to be staged for the benefit of the Pure Milk Society. As a matter of fact, however, it isn't for the benefit of the Pure Milk Society at all, but for the benefit of the many hundreds of Harrisburg babies who are going to need certified milk, and ice, and a nurse's care and advice, and ice.

Joseph I. Delaney, Well Known Merchant, Dies in His 73rd Year

Lykens, Pa., May 15.—Joseph I. Delaney, aged 72 years, one of the best-known business men in the upper end of Dauphin county, died last night. Mr. Delaney was a resident of Lykens for sixty-two years, living at one residence during that entire time.

He was a leading citizen and had been engaged in the mercantile business for many years. He was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church and took an active part in the work of the congregation. He was also a large stockholder in the Miners Deposit Bank, Lykens, and was prominent in civic and industrial work here.

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The Rev. Father Herzog will officiate. Burial will be made in the German Catholic cemetery. Mr. Delaney is survived by the following children: John M. Delaney, Harrisburg; Mrs. O'Hara, Potsville; a daughter in New Jersey, Miss Verma Delaney, Lykens, and his wife.

County Engineer and Other Bills Are Signed

Announcement was made today that Governor Spruhl had approved the Willert House bill providing that county commissioners in any county of Pennsylvania may appoint a county engineer. In a number of counties engineers are elected by the people, while in others the officer is named by the courts or commissioners. Originally the bill would have affected only counties having between 150,000 and 250,000 population.

Another bill signed providing for instruction in "safety first methods" in elementary schools. The Governor also approved the bill increasing the limit of expenses for burial of an indigent person to $50.

BRIDE IS AFRAID TO OPEN PACKAGE

Mrs. Thomas Schmidt Finds That Messenger Brings Her Kitchenware, Not a Bomb

While Mrs. Thomas Schmidt, a recent bride, formerly Miss Marie Johnson, of Loch Willows, was enjoying a social evening at the home of Miss Mary Carroll, 1709 North Third street, a messenger boy brought a large package for her. It looked so big and queer in its bills and dapes of paper that the bride was afraid to open it, lest it prove to be a bomb.

Finally with an "all-together boys" pull, the cover came off and there was disclosed a fine array of kitchenware for Mrs. Schmidt's new home in Allentown. Later in the evening supper was served with appointments of pink and white, dogwood, lilacs of the valley and peonies prevailing in the flowers.
