

SURRY PLAN TO CROSS ATLANTIC

British Will Probably Start Dirigible in Day or Two

Atlantic City, N. J., May 16.—Word was received at the Pan-American Aeronautical convention here yesterday from Washington that the British air authorities have speeded up their plans to send the dirigible R-34 on a dash across the Atlantic and that it was probable the English craft would set out in a day or two.

Officials of the convention, who had expected that facilities here for handling the English ship would be completed before her arrival early next month, in accordance with plans announced by General L. E. O. Charlton, British attaché at Washington, immediately got busy. Alan B. Hawley, president of the Aero Club of America, and Henry Woodhouse, director of the Atlantic City air port, hurried to Cape May in a seaplane where arrangements were made to "stable" the English "Blimp" should she arrive ahead of the schedule previously announced. Thus, by an odd coincidence, the nest vacated by the C-5 at Cape May when she made her successful run to Newfoundland may become the anchoring place of the R-34, her competitor for overseas honors.

MORE WAR RESTRICTIONS OFF

Washington, May 16.—All rules and regulations governing the production, manufacture, distribution or transportation of oil in its various forms, including gasoline, and of natural gas were removed by an order of Fuel Administrator Garfield.

STOMACH TROUBLES ARE DUE TO ACIDITY

Tells Safe, Certain, Speedy Relief For Acid Indigestion

So-called stomach troubles, such as indigestion, gas, sourness, stomach-ache and inability to retain food are in probably nine cases out of ten, simply evidence that excessive secretion of acid is taking place in the stomach, causing the formation of gas and acid indigestion.

Gas distends the stomach and causes that full, oppressive, burning feeling sometimes known as heartburn, while the acid irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach. The trouble lies entirely in the excess of acid secreted. It should be stopped or prevented this souring of the food contents of the stomach and to neutralize the acid make it bland and harmless, a teaspoonful of bisulphated magnesia, a good and effective corrector of stomach acidity, should be taken in a quarter of a glass of hot or cold water after eating or at any other time when acidity is felt. This sweetens the stomach and neutralizes the acidity in a few moments and is a perfectly harmless and inexpensive remedy to use.

An antacid, such as bisulphated magnesia which can be obtained from any druggist in either powder or tablet form enables the stomach to do its work properly without the aid of artificial digestants. Magnesia comes in several forms, so be certain to ask for and take only Bisulphated Magnesia, which is especially prepared for the above purpose. G. A. Gorgas.

A Quick and Harmless Rheumatism Remedy

RETIREMENT FOR GUARDSMEN

Governor Approves Golder Bill—Other Measures Become Laws by Approval

The new National Guard retirement act became effective to-day upon approval by the Governor of the Golder bill providing that an officer who has served ten years in the Guard or Reserve Militia may be retired at the highest grade he may have reached. It also provides that service in the Spanish War, Mexican border service or any Federal service may be computed at twice its actual length. The act authorizes men so retired to wear uniforms of their rank on military or semi military occasions. The act of 1917 provided that an officer had to serve fifteen years continuously in any one grade.

The Buckman bill authorizing the Board of Public Grounds and Buildings to act on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with the State of New Jersey for purchase of toll bridges spanning the Delaware river between the two States has also been signed by the Governor. It authorizes condemnation in event that purchases can not be consummated and carries with it unexpended appropriations made in two previous sessions. The States are to pay equal shares of acquisition and maintenance. The act is effective at once.

The Governor signed the bill requiring clerks of courts relative to creation, consolidation, division and parties of cities, boroughs and townships for which they are to be paid one dollar. This bill is one of the series relative to the department's new activities.

Other Senate bills signed included: Validating municipal liens for paving and curbing of highways in boroughs.

Requiring Allegheny county to establish an employes pension fund to be directed by the county commissioners, controller and treasurer, the employes to make regular payments at stated intervals. It also repeals the act of 1915.

House bills signed included: Amending sinking fund act so that payment need no longer be made to State Fire Insurance Fund of revenues set aside for sinking funds.

This act was made necessary because of the Road bond issue legislation. Providing that sheriff's coroner's and tax deeds may be indexed in recorders' offices at expense of counties instead of in common pleas court clerks' offices.

Changing time for making service of divorce subpoenas and validating divorces where service was made personally at any time before return day or where return was made that respondent could not be found and sworn to prior to return day.

Mail Service On the Chicago-Cleveland Leg Is Established

Chicago, May 16.—Daily aerial mail service on the Chicago-Cleveland leg of the Chicago-New York route was established yesterday on a satisfactory schedule. One mail flight a day from each terminus of the leg to Bryan, Ohio, the relay point, has been arranged by the Aerial Mail Service until arrangements for expansion have been completed. Elapsed time on the Chicago-Cleveland relay yesterday was three hours and 15 minutes, while the Cleveland mail was relayed to Chicago in elapsed time of three hours and 54 minutes.

The chief value of the flight as seen by postal officials was a gain of about three hours in handling the mail between New York and Chicago.

Germans Reply to Trade Letters of Before the War

Trèves, May 15.—To illustrate the German attitude toward the war as a mere artificial interruption of trade relations the following incident is cited by the chief American censor: "A German firm in the American occupied area writes to a firm in New York, enclosing the New York firm's letter of June 6, 1914, and began in this manner:—In reply to yours of June 6, 1914, beg to state, etc."

At the American censor's office here, where all mail from the occupied zone is passed upon before being sent on its way to the Entente countries, an average of two thousand letters a day written by Germans have been received, with indications of a gradual increase during the next few weeks.

First "Tap Day" At Yale Since 1916

New Haven, Conn., May 16.—In the first "tap day" at Yale since 1916, three men met the aftermath election to Skull and Bones, the leading senior society and three others turned down election to the "Head." The three who rejected Skull and Bones were "tapped" for Scroll and Key, while two of those refusing Wolf's Head were picked by Skull and Bones and the third was elected to Scroll and Key.

Among those elected to Wolf's Head were C. Z. Gordon, Brookville, Pa.; Charles S. Garland, Edgewood, Pa.; and Charles W. Gamble, Haverford, Pa.

Textile Operators To Ask Increase

Fall River, Mass., May 16.—At a mass meeting of textile operatives John Golden, of New York, president of the National Textile Workers of America, announced that all textile manufacturers in the country would be immediately requested to grant 15 per cent wage increases, to take effect May 25, and continue until April, 1920. Orders covering the demands, he said, were mailed to all locals affiliated with the national body and added that the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers had already been notified.

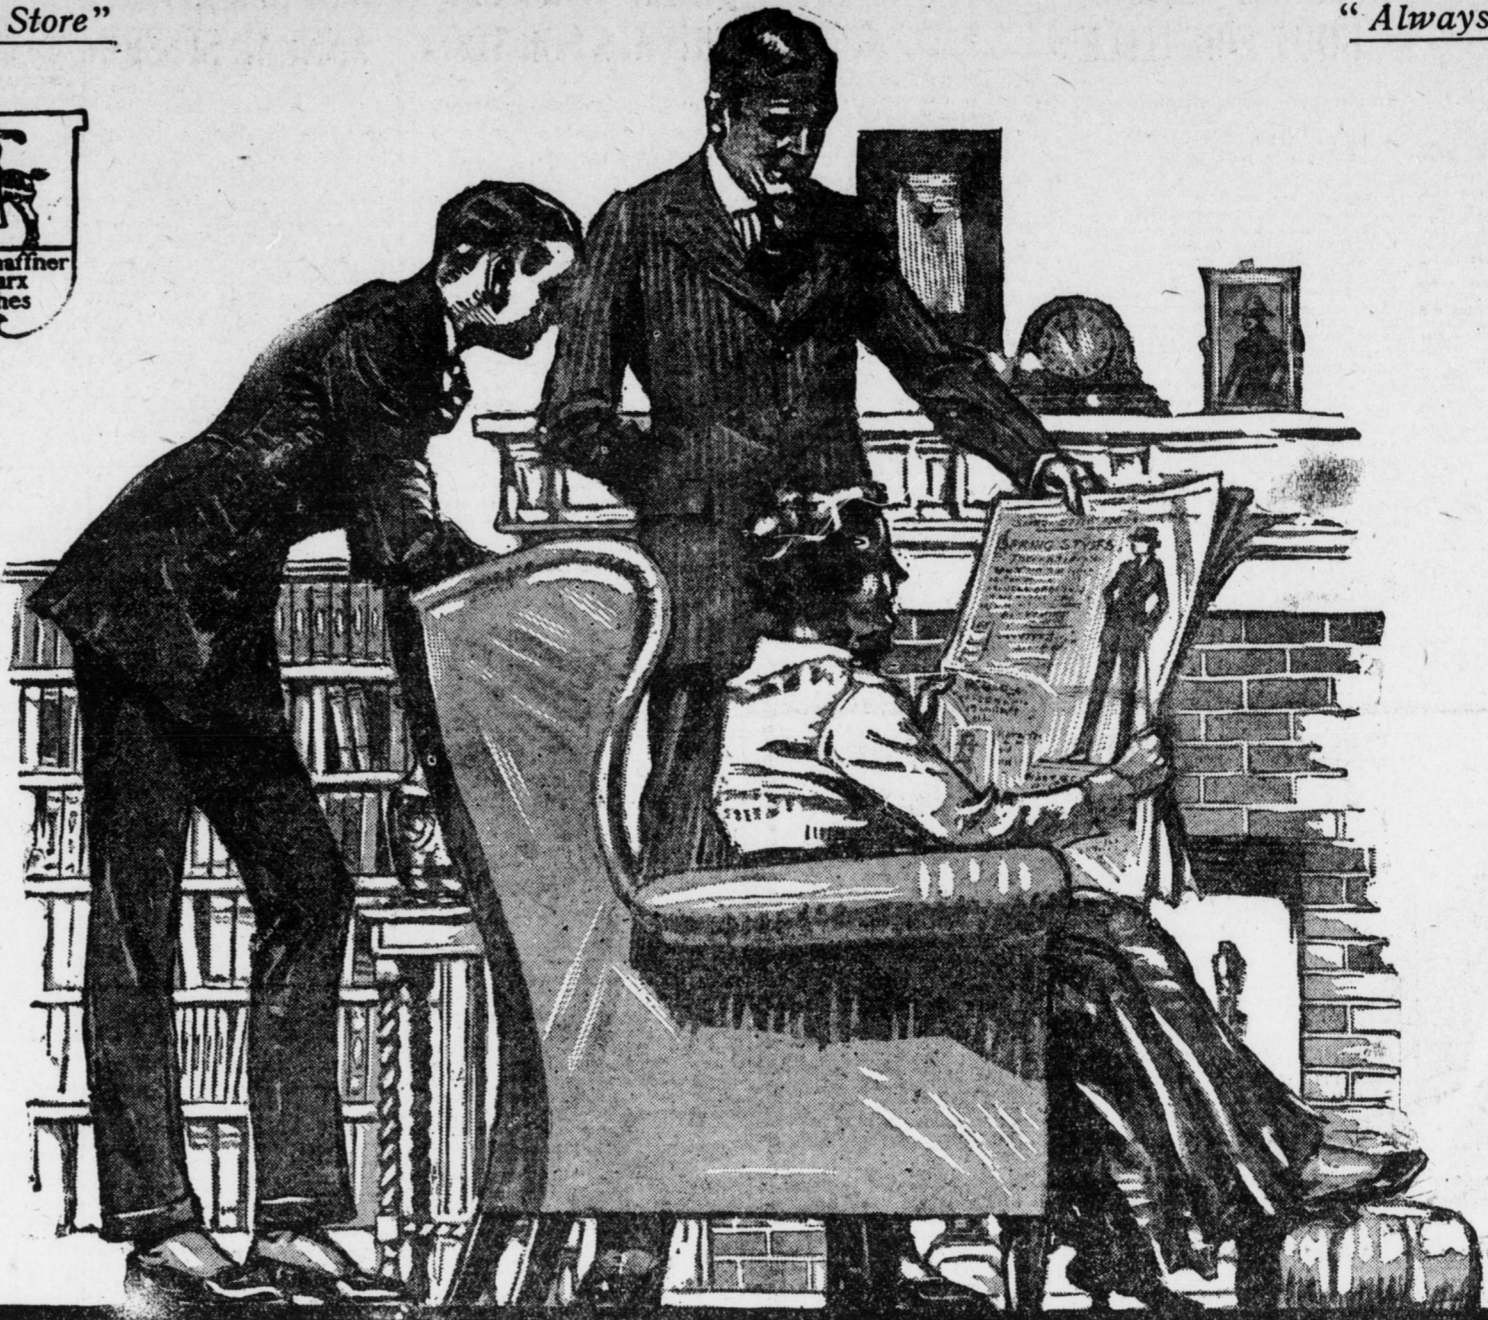

Sees No Drop in Live Stock Prices

Pittsburgh, Pa., May 16.—Declaring it would be many years before the prices of live stock reach the low level of before the war, W. B. Tagg, of Omaha, Neb., president of the National Livestock Exchange, told delegates to the exchange's 31st annual convention, which opened here, that Government ownership of packing houses and stockyards "would be a serious handicap to the business."

The conference will continue three days.

Helping Men to Buy Clothes

No man would knowingly spend his money for poor clothes, but the determination to buy good clothes isn't all that's necessary — You must know what you are getting; whether the clothes are tailored right, whether the fabric is all wool and the style is good and the only way to be certain on all these points is to go to a merchant whose "word" and "clothes" you can depend upon. BE SURE OF YOUR STORE.

That's where we come in. We don't expect you to know all-wool fabrics from part cotton, to know whether the lining will wear; whether the seams are silk sewn; even an expert will fall down on these points. You don't have to worry about any of these points when you come here. We help you to buy right by having the best clothes that are to be had.

Hart Schaffner & Marx, Kuppenheimer & Society Brand Clothes

Some merchants are content merely to sell goods, and most any goods at that. They are in business purely for the profit that's to be had. Being clothing merchants we are interested in the profit, but our customer's profit much more than our own—We know that if we furnish them with the merchandise they want; give them good values and complete satisfaction, they are going to do most of their buying at this "Live Store." That's why we are so much concerned about buying the right kind of merchandise for you—buying right is half the selling.

When there's a boy in the house its a pretty safe bet that father is kept "up to scratch" on the latest styles. He may not want the newest waist-seam suits, but he'll want all the latest style touches — On the other hand, father is likely to be a little more particular than his son. He knows "good clothes" are the cheapest in the end, and he'll teach the boy his lesson in economy.—Remember, your money don't belong to us until you are satisfied.

This is a store for women as well as for men—Some women feel that they are out of place in a man's store—But they don't feel that way about this "Live Store" for you can always find plenty of them Here — A great many men depend on some woman's judgment of quality and style. And they ought to. Women are usually keener about those things than the men. That's why we like to have them come here. We sometimes think they appreciate our service even more than men do.
