OF CENTRAL PENNA. AND NEWS CITY'S Store Closes Saturday ELECTRIC SIREN Evening at 6 O'clock WHISKY MONEY United Brethren in Christ |Duncannon Council Asks Samuel M. Taylor Is CENTRAL PA. PERSONALS Meeting at Antrim Church Appointment of Burgess Seeking Nomination SENT TO WIDOW

Columbia Dealer, Believing I Was Stolen, Gives $5.25

to Mrs. Eshenhauer

Marietta; Pa., May 16. - There vas considerable comment in Bainbridge regarding what should be with the slayer of George Eshenhauer and that the murderer, William Hyter, was gotten away as fast as he was in all probability sav-ed him from being lynched. On Wednesday, Mrs. Mary Eshen-hauer, the widow of the murdered man, received a check amounting to 5.25 from Lacob Komparaty a lightor William Hyter, was gotten away as fast as he was in all probability saveled him from being lynched.

On Wednesday, Mrs. Mary Eshen.
Anauer, the widow of the murdered man, received a check amounting to $5.25 from Jacob Kemmerly, a liquor dealer at Columbia, he having sold whisky to that amount to Hyter, and Mr. Kemmerly, believing it was the money stolen from her husband, returned it. At the time the sale was made nothing was known of the murder.
The funeral of the victim was held yesterday afternoon from the home, with burial in the cemetery at Bainbridge. The slayer will be given a hearing this evening at the office of Justice of the Peace Hicks, at Maytow.

the borns of D. L. Farner.
the nome of the procession of the processi

MILLERSTOWN Mrs. J. E. Lehman and Mrs. S. F Mrs. O. W. Wagner and son, Orande, are visiting relatives in Woos-ter, Ohio. Daugherty are attending the

FOR FIRE ALARM

Annville Volunteer Company Installs Modern System For Calling Out Its Members

Annville, Pa., May 16 .- The Union Hose Company of Annville will, in near future install a large electric silen on the top of their new $12,000 use, which was built two years fireho ago. The siren is to be used as a fire alarm in place of the bell system which was a failure and a great exwhich was a failure and a great ex-pense to the community. It will be installed by the local electric com-pany. The alarm can be sent from both telephone exchanges and then the siren will be sounded. his is the only siren in Lebanon county. The officers of the company are: Presi-dent, E. P. Saylor; vice-president, A. W. Fay; treasurer, A. K. Kettering, and secretary, Arthur Hostetter.

and secretary, Arthur Hostetter. ROBERT N. WRIGHT DIES Lewisberry, May 16.— Robert N. Wright, of York, who was for many years a resident of Lewisberry, died on Tuesday from paralysis Monday. Funeral services were held at York this afternoon. Burial was made in the Nebinger Cemetery at Lewis-berry. Mr. Wright was a traveling salesman, and was aged 73 years. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Mary Jane Beck, two daughters and two sons, the Misses Beulah and Virgie and William at home and Emory H. Wright, a tailor, of New Cumberland.

Cumberland. MOTORIZING FIRE APPARATUS York Haven, Pa., May 16.—It has been decided to motorize the com-bined water and chemical apparatus of the local fire company. This ac-tion was taken at a joint meeting of the Borough Council and fire depart-ment on Monday night. The Council has extended financial aid to the extent of its yearly appropriation to the fire company, amounting to $100. A committee composed of George Shaffer, George Cooper and Harry Weaver, was appointed to ascertain the cost of motorizing the apparatus:

the cost of motorizing the apparatus. WEI.COME FOR SOLDIERS Dauphin, May 16.—A meeting will be held on Tuesday evening, May 29. in the Odd Fellows Hall to make plans for the homecoming of the soldiers, sailors and nurses compris-ing the district of Speceeville, Dau-phin, Clarks Valley, Heckton, Stony Creek, Zionville and Fishing Creek. Committees have been appointed from the churches, Patriotic Order of Sons of America, Camp No. 424; Patriotic Order of America, Camp No. 240; Independent Order Odd Fellows No. 621, and citizens.

Duncannon, Pa., May 16.—F. E. Cook has been recommended by Dun-cannon council for appointment as burgess of Duncannon to succeed Charles E. Johnston, resigned. The petition will be sent to Perry county ourt for action at its next session. The appointment is practically cer-tain and to-morrow Cook will toss out the first ball at the opening game of the 1919 Dauphin-Perry League season between Duncannon and Mil-lersburg. Burgess Johnston resigned because he found himself unable to devote the necessary time to the performance of the duties incumbent on the office. Greencastle, Pa., May 16.—The Church of the United Brethren in Christ is holding its annual meet-ing at Antrim Grove Church, east of town. Representatives from the denomination are in attendance from all parts of the United States and Canada. Tents have been erect-ed on the grounds surrounding the church to accommodate the people. Four thousand persons were in at-tendance yesterday and more are ar-riving each day.

riving each day.
Riving each day.
Blain, Pa., May 16. — Plans are pleing completed at the Blain Voca-otional School for commencement week to be held May 23-28. The Junior Class play, "A Noble Outcast," will be given on two evenings, May 23 and 24. Baccalaureate ser-inmon will be preached by the Rev. Lewis D. Wible, in the Methodist I Episcopal Church on Sunday even-ing, May 25 alt 8 o'clock. Commencement Day will be on Monday. May 25, all day, when there will be an exhibit of fancy work, canned fruit, livestock, etc., and a baseball game. Blain vs Harrisburg Technical School. Class Day will be on Tuesday, May 27. Commencement usercises proper will take place on Wednesday evening, May 28 at 8:30 o'clock. Professor Newton G. Kerstetter, director of the school will perside and music will be furnished by the Blain orchestra.
BIBLE CLASS ENTERTAINED

on the office. MRS. ANNIE MADER DIES Linglestown, Pa., May 16.—Mrs. Annie Mader, the oldest resident of Linglestown, and a member of the Church of God, died yesterday at her home, aged 89 years. Mrs. Ma-der was the widow of Moses Mader. Two daughters, Mrs. George R. Moyer and Mrs. Hammelbaugh, of Wormleysburg, and one son, William Mader, of Johnstown, survive. Private funeral services will be conducted by the Rev. Mr. Bartel, of York, who was pastor twenty-five years ago in Linglestown, at the home of Mrs. Mader's daughter, Mrs. George R. Moyer, on Monday afternoon. Further services will be held at the Church of God at 2.15 o'clock. Burial will be made at Willow Grove Cemetery. SOCIAL HELPERS MEET SOCIAL HELPERS MEET Blain, Pa., May 16.—The Minis-ter's Social Helpers Society of the Zion's Reformed Church, held the regular weekly meeting on Wednes-day evening at the home of Riley M. Smith. The evenings entertain-ment consisted of games, music and refreshments.

they are created.

white serge, checked and wool velours.

nets, foulards, linens.

silk, laces and organdie, silk net and sequins.

and tricotine full length coats, taffeta coats.

Store Closes Saturday Evening at 6 O'clock

28-30-32 North Third Street

New Correct Summer Apparel

unique service to its clientele. The matter of summer attire is of utmost importance. The leadership in fashion authenticity is maintained through the constantly arriving new merchandise and the capability of our organization in securing the finest qualities and new modes immediately

Summer Suits at $29.75 to $97.50

-Developed in silk tricolette, taffeta, silk Paulette, Tyrol wool,

Summer Dresses $7.90 to $185

Evening Gowns Brocaded silk, satin, laces, combination

Frocks printed and plain voiles, organdie, batiste, gingham,

Summer Wraps $25.00 to $97.50

capes of mixtures, velveteen sport coats, Jersey sport coats, serge

Satin capes, serge and tricotine capes, Polo coats, coats and the take taken to the state

T HIS establishment is prepared to render an Samuel M. Taylor, former jury ommissioner, has announced his commissioner, has announced his candidacy for county commissioner. Mr. Taylor is seeking one of the Democratic nominations. Prior to making announcement of his can-didacy Mr. Texter didacy Mr. Taylor received ances of support of his many friends

LITTLE BOY'S BIRTHDAY Mount Wolf, Pa., May 16.—In honoi of the fourth birthday anniversary of their son, George H. Jr., Mr. and Mrs. George H. Wolf entertained a party of little folks at the Wolf home on Monday evening. Mrs. Wol Mrs home on Monday evening. Mrs Wolf had provided a program o games for the entertainment of th little ones. Refreshments were result These become ware. Editi little ones. Refreshments were served. Those present were: Edit Ziegler, Phyllis Greiman, Helen Zuse Sarah Bahn, George H. Wolf, Jr. Harold Buchar, David Herbst, Luella Baney, William Brown, Mary Herbst Wilton Buchar, Hazel Bloss and Dor-othy, Buchar othy Buchar

SERVICE FOR RED MEN York Haven, Pa., May 16.— Sus-quehannock tribe, No. 420, L. O. R. M., will attend divine services on Sun-day evening at the York Haven Unit-ed Brethren Church. The pastor, the Rev. J. H. Schmitt, will deliver a special sermon to the lodgemen, who will attend in a bady. special sermon to the will attend in a body

Not Only Time to Think about them but it is time to buy them-

> Summer Suits

Palm Beach Kool Cloth Tropical Worsted Gabardine

$15 to $30

They wear well, look well, wash well and are full of comfort. They have style, too, and from Schleisner's Men's Store they are all the more desir-

Thell. BSchleisner

Concerning the Closing of Stores

Saturday Evenings at 6 o'clock

We Favor the Closing of Stores

at 6 o'clock Saturday Evenings

THEREFORE

Beginning tomorrow, our Store will Close Saturday Evenings at 6 o'clock

Summer Skirts $3.50 to $35.00

Wool plaids in plain fancy weaves, cotton gaberdines, silk tricolette, silk Paulettes, Faille silk, serge and tricotine, satin striped and crepe de chine.

Summer Blouses $1.95 to $35

Tablier, Russian and peplum effects in Georgette and crepe de chine. Sport shirts in silk stripes and pongee. Tailored blouses in printed and plain organdies. Washable voile blouses, embroidered, frilled and lace trimmed.

Summer Furs $22.50 to $85.00

Small animal scarfs in Nippon mink, Eastern mink, stone marten, Kolinsky and skunk. Also fox scarfs closed and open.

Summer Millinery $5 to $35

Gage sailors in white and pastel, white toques, crepe hats in pastel, transparent plume trimmed, in black. Leghorns, lace trimmed. Satin and taffeta in pastel, also white Milan hats.

Schleisner's Men's and Young Men's Spring Suits $30 to $60 able.

Just as low in price as any other kind but that's 📥 where the similarity stops. The quality, style, fit and wear of Schleisner Suits are decidedly better-DE-CIDEDLY BETTER.

Johnsmers

MEN'S STORE

28-30-32 N. 3rd St