Roller Will Put Up Hard Battle Against Draak Next Tuesday Night

No better card for the return of the heavyweight wrestlers of Harrisburg could have been arranged than the one that will take place at the Chestnut Street Auditorium next Tuesday night, May 20, when Dr. B. Dauphin-Perry Opening

Inactive for one year because of war conditions, the Dauphin-Perry League will open its fourth league season to-morrow afternoon with four instead of six teams represented. Hallfax and Dauphin, represented in former seasons, have found it impossible to place teams in the circuit this year.

Open arrangements in the several towns with opening dates are not extensive, but favorable weather tomorrow will find large crowds in attendance. Both games find two old rivals pitted against each other and big crowds will be carried by visiting teams. With practically no baseball in either of the four towns last year, interest is running high.

"Tell Marysville we have a surprise for them," John E. Eby, president of the Newport Association said last night. Newport's line-up is uncertain, but a warm battle is assured. The pitching selection will likely be made from Guttshall, F. Manning and Rush. Kerns, a Newport lad, will likely do the receiving. The outheld presents a stone wall appearance and the infield promises to hold up its duties.

Harry Blever, veteran hurler of many frays, including frays in which he was on the mound for Marysville. Blever served some years in the old Halifax team of the league, will be on the mound for Marysville. Blever served some years in the old Tri-State League, but still has much cunning remaining in his trusty right arm. Earl Killinger, catcher for the Rosewood team of the Allision Hill League, Harrisburg, will do the receiving. He was signed up for immediate service by the Marysville management last week when
