County Game Warden Asks Victim of Drowning Accident Farmers to Aid in Con-

Marysville, Pa., May 16 .- The Marysville, Pa., May 16.—The greatest handicap in the increase of game in Perry county is the fact that dogs are permitted to run loose all over the county. S. Maurice Shu-ler, of Liverpool, county game war-den, said in speaking of game con-ditions in this county. He has is-sued one request, and will issue others, asking that farmers and sportsmen of the county take steps-to prevent their dogs from destroy-ing game. The large number of un-licensed dogs in the county is detri-mental to game propagation, Mr. Shuler declares. Game, with the exception of rab-bits, is comparatively plentiful in all sections of the county. Rabbits, however, are more numerous than they have been for several seasons, the mild weather of the past winter-aiding materially in their increase. Mr. Shuler has devoted consider-able attention during the spring months to efforts designed to in-crease the quail and pheasant sup-ply. Mr. Shuler has devoted consider-able attention during the spring months to efforts designed to in-crease the quail and pheasant sup-ply. A half hundred ringneck pheas-ant eggs have been distributed among sportsmen for hatching pur-poses, while 150 eggs, supplied by State authorities, will be distributed as soon as available. Almost two hundred quail and pheasant have been liberated in various sections of the county since winter and the best sport for seasons is promised county huntsmen. Trout fishing is reported by Mr.

Trout fishing is reported by Mr. Shuler to be unsurpassed in Perry county this season. The best streams are in Western Perry county in the vicinity of the State game preserves.
