

WELCOME HOME SERVICES IN MANY CHURCHES FOR RETURNING SOLDIERS TOMORROW

UNUSUAL WEEK AT PINE ST. CHURCH

Many Services of Interest Scheduled for Presbyterian Congregation

The coming week promises to be one of unusual interest in the work of the Pine Street Presbyterian church. The pastor, the Rev. Dr. Mudge, will occupy the pulpit at both services on Sunday. The subject of the morning sermon will be "The Ideal Democracy." The purpose of this sermon will be to make clear the fact that the Christian church, if properly governed and organized is the ideal democracy. This subject is suggested by the service of ordination of deacons which will take place at the morning service, when the following men will be set aside to this high office by the laying on of hands: Capt. Henry M. Gross, Capt. Carson Coover, Edward B. Diven, Arthur W. Lebo and John H. Holzberrger. At the evening service the pastor will preach on "A Penny Sermon." This sermon will be an earnest presentation of why and how and when we should be ambitious and of how worthy ambitions may be realized. At the church Sunday school in the afternoon classes will be found absorbing interest to both men and boys and girls of all ages.

On Monday evening the Mrs. John Y. Boyd Bible class will have an important meeting in the Memorial building to which the attention of all members is especially called. The session and trustees will hold a joint meeting in the church parlor this same evening for the consideration of matters of pressing importance. On Tuesday evening the Home and Foreign Mission Circle will meet in the Women and Girls' Building. Mrs. Conrad will have charge of the devotional service. Mrs. John W. German, Jr., will deliver an illustrated talk on the Philippines. An important item in the evening's program will be the annual election of officers. On Wednesday evening the regular mid-week service will be held in the lecture room and will be conducted by the pastor. To this service all who desire a period of spiritual refreshment in mid-week are cordially invited. This service will be followed by a special meeting of the church Sunday school at which matters relating to the new era movement will be considered. Thursday evening is the date set for the welcome home dinner for our returning soldiers and sailors. This dinner will be held in the Boyd Memorial building. The program is being arranged by the War Veterans' Association and the dinner arrangements are in charge of the Red Cross Auxiliary. The extensive facilities of the building will undoubtedly be taxed to their utmost. After the dinner the served tables will be removed, and all who may be interested, especially the relatives of the returning boys, will be most cordially welcomed to enjoy the program of the evening. On Friday evening there will be the usual meeting of the Boy Scout Troop at the Boyd Memorial building.

Announcement of the arrival of Miss Louise Whitman, the newly-appointed director of women and girls' work in Pine Street church has been made. Miss Whitman will have her residence in the Women and Girls' building, in South street, and has already taken up with vigor and intelligence the large and important department of the work of which she is the head.

Make Plans for Children's Day at Olivet Church

Olivet Presbyterian Sunday school has already started to prepare for Children's Day, the second Sunday in June. The program has been selected and the school is practicing the new songs. The following committee has been appointed to arrange the details: Mrs. S. A. Bower, chairman; Miss Anna Holbert, Miss Tillie Keiser, Miss Myrtle Wagner and Miss Ruth Williams. Miss Florence Hill has been elected captain of the new Girls' Scout Troop, and Miss Helen Smith, lieutenant. Two patrols were formed and Mrs. Rose Bowman, the Rev. E. B. Bower and G. L. Cullumery were named as the advisory board. It is planned to have the Children's Day take place in Stunt Day, to be held shortly in Reserve Park. To-morrow morning the Rev. S. A. Bower will preach on "The World's Greatest Cleansing Agent," and in the evening the subject will be "Growing Weather For the Church." The attendance at the past two years was the largest in the past two years, and the outlook for Olivet was never brighter.

"VICTORY CONVENTION" AT BUFFALO AUGUST 5-10

Many Interesting Notes About Work of Christian Endeavor Members

Christian Endeavor leaders are planning for a "Victory Convention," to be held at Buffalo, N. Y., August 5-10. "Put me off at Buffalo," is the title of the new cheer song that the delegates are already singing and "boasting" for the big gathering. Dr. E. Clark, president of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, says: "The song will have a new significance for thousands of Endeavorers on August 5, 1919. Why August instead of the old convention date in July? Because, before the armistice made it possible to think of a convention, many State conventions had pre-empted the earlier dates.

Let us make it a "Victory Convention" in the largest sense of the word, to celebrate the great triumph of temperance, of right over might, of Christian fellowship over sectarianism, and, please God, the victory of the great ideals that means a permanent world peace. But not alone will we consider past or present victories. We will plan for, and look forward to the future victories which our million of Endeavorers must win for Jesus Christ. Come on to Buffalo for a Victory Convention. I expect to see many soldier boys at Buffalo. They will have an enviable record at which we will all highly resolve that we also will not count our lives dear unto us, for Christ's dear sake.

Let the days between now and then be welcoming days. The Southern Endeavorers have the most complete list of this sort I have yet seen. Here is an outline of it: Every Endeavorer returning from camp or France to be given an office or place on an important committee in the society; a welcome for each boy as he returns, telling the members of his service, the place in the society to which he has been assigned, also the presentation of a Christian Endeavor pin or the Daily Companion; and the placing of a Christian Endeavor seal on his star in the church or society service flag. This plan also contemplates an "After-the-War Social" for the returning soldiers, and for two or three months to come, an "After-the-War Three Minutes" in the society prayer meeting, giving each soldier a chance to bring a message concerning his experiences and for his purpose in the future. Let us, therefore, to have a "Welcome Home Evening," in which the seven districts of the Boston Union are doing.

Let this also be a welcome year to a multitude of young recruits who have never before seen or trench. Welcome, newcomers all, to the society. "Welcome, thrice welcome to Christian Endeavor and its new and abounding opportunities for joyful service." The program will include many prominent speakers, rousing conferences, inspiring and helpful committee and other special meetings in various churches, and charming music and singing.

C. E. Notes

Pennsylvania, Pennsylvania, answers every call, Pennsylvania, Pennsylvania, none too large or small, Other States in our great Union strive to set the pace. But Pennsylvania Endeavor friends will always lead the race. The above cheer song can be used by delegates attending summer conventions and conferences. The Rev. John W. Hills, of Malua, Samoa, who is an honored missionary of the London Missionary Society and a leader in the Christian Endeavor movement throughout the islands, reports that the influenza epidemic has put that country in a sad state of affairs. About 25 per cent. of the people were swept away by the disease. "Life, the School of God, and Lessons," will be the topic for study in the Endeavor societies on Sunday evening. The meetings in many places are well attended and interesting programs are arranged by the leaders of the various services. Miss Emma Hilebrun will have charge of the Endeavor service at the Second Reformed Society to-morrow evening. Miss Hilebrun is a member of the Pastor's Aid committee, and will have an interesting service arranged. Every Endeavorer is urged to bring a friend to the meeting at 6.30 o'clock.

"Father and Son" Day to Be Observed at Park St. U. E. Church

Believing that "father" should also have his "inning" and keeping in mind the significance of combining the two, Sunday evening will be observed in Park Street United Evangelical Church as "Father-and-Son Day." A committee of "fathers" and "sons," with L. L. Booda as chairman, is arranging for the program and an interesting hour is promised by the committee. There will be a number of "surprises" in the program, and the information, however, permits the information to be passed to the public that there will be a men's and boys' choir to lead the congregational singing and that special music can be expected. The speakers on this occasion will be Mr. John T. Olmstead, of the law firm of Olmstead, Snyder and Miller, and Mr. Clark, special, and Mr. secretary for returned soldiers, both of whom will speak on "What Every Father Ought to Tell His Son." The pastor will preach on the subject, "By the Grace of God I Am What I Am," following the Sunday School subject of the day.

Music in the Churches

DO YOU KNOW THAT Every church member should be a Christian Endeavorer. Endeavor a church member?—W. H. Myers, chairman of the music committee of the State Street United Brethren Society, will conduct the prayer service at 6.30 to-morrow evening. "You are welcome" —If the president or chairman of the publicity committee will clip this column of Endeavor news and place it on the bulletin board in the society room, many Endeavorers will read it. Try it.

Many Endeavorers are expected to attend the big meeting at the Harris Street United Evangelical Church, at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Dr. P. R. St. John will speak on the subject, "Sabbath Observance." —Mrs. Raymond White will have charge of the Endeavor service at the St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, to-morrow evening. Mrs. White is the chairman of the Junior League, and will have an interesting message on the topic. —"The Postponed Brides," a sketch arranged by Miss Grace Spangler, will be given at the special features at the concert to be given by the Girls' Glee Club, of Albright College, in the Technical High School Auditorium, on Thursday evening, May 22d. The Keystone Leagues of the Presbyterian churches of this city and vicinity are planning to fill the large auditorium. —Three leaders have charge of the big Sunday evening meetings at the Spangler church of God Society. P. R. St. John, president, and Mrs. Ed. Richardson, will make the program interesting to-morrow evening. —Eighty-one countries are represented in the world-wide fellowship of Christian Endeavor. Total enrollment of Christian Endeavor societies in all the world, 79,759. —St. John's Lutheran Endeavor Society, Steelton, are doing an excellent work among the Endeavor folk. Special meetings are held periodically, at which time socials and other special features interest many workers and friends. Mrs. Wm. Williams will conduct the service at the church to-morrow evening, at 6.30 o'clock.

CHAPLAIN BOOTH BANQUET AT THE STEVENS CHURCH

Former Local Minister to Tell of His Experiences on Transports

Early this morning Dr. Clayton Albert Smucker returned from Syracuse, N. Y., where he and his family have been spending the week. Tomorrow morning, at 11 o'clock, in the Stevens Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, Thirteenth and Vernon streets, he is scheduled to speak on "The Law of Team Work." Sunday evening at the closing service of the day, beginning promptly at 7.30 o'clock, Sergeant Humphrey J. Roberts will sing. The big crowd that heard him last Sunday night will want to hear him in his special program to-morrow evening. Many telling things will be heard in the sermon-lecture at this service on "The Flag of Secrecy." The Sunday School hour is from 10 to 11 a. m. Al. K. Thomas, the superintendent, has a very interesting service booked for to-morrow.

Friends of the Rev. Winfield Booth, former pastor of the First Baptist Church, Second and Pine streets, will be glad to know that he will speak in that church to-morrow evening on his experience as chaplain aboard the army transports. Mr. Booth enlisted as a chaplain with the rank of lieutenant, in the service and after training was assigned as assistant chaplain at Newport News. Later he was assigned to transport service and has made several trips back and forth from France. This experience gave him an unusual opportunity to get into close touch with the boys. He is prepared to tell some interesting stories gleaned from their first hand. His sunny disposition and sterling qualification eminently fitted him for this important task. Leaving the pastorate of the First Church, the Rev. Mr. Booth went to the First Baptist Church of Cincinnati, N. J., where he was successfully engaged in the ministry until his enlistment. His church graciously and patriotically granted him a leave of absence and stood nobly by him during his military service. Upon his discharge he will return to them and take up his work with greater enthusiasm.

Methodist Camp Hill—The Rev. J. Merrill Williams, 9.45, Sunday School; 11, "The Victory That Is Not To Come"; 7.30, "The Beatitude of the Eyes." Dauphin—The Rev. Geo. L. Schaffer, 10.30, "Lessons From the Spring Season," 2, Sunday School; 6.45, Epworth League. Heckton—The Rev. Geo. L. Schaffer, 7.30, address by Mrs. J. A. Eaton, of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, "Admission to the Conference," 2, Sunday School. St. Paul's—The Rev. William Moses, preaching at 10.30 and 7.30; 9.45, Sunday School. Concord—The Rev. John G. Davis, 10.30, "The Great Commandment"; 7.30, Inasmuch As Ye Did It"; 9.30, Sunday School. Camp Curtin—The Rev. John H. Mortimer, 10.30, "The Great Commandment"; 7.45, the Rev. E. R. Heckman will preach; 2, Sunday School.

Episcopal St. Augustine's—The Rev. Wiloughby M. Parchment, rector; 11, matins, sermon and holy communion; Church School and choir rehearsal after service; evening service at 8. St. Paul's—The Rev. Lloyd Appleton, pastor, will preach at 11 and 8; men's communion, 8 a. m.; Sunday School, 9.45. St. Stephen's—The Rev. Rollin Alger Sawyer, pastor; 8, holy communion; 10, Sunday School; 11, morning prayer and sermon, "The Church," 8, evening prayer and sermon. Until further notice the evening service will begin at 8.

Church of Christ Fourth Street—The Rev. Ira Boyd Wenger, pastor, will preach at 11, "Christian Stewardship," and at 7.30, "The Church and Its Doctrine," Sunday school at 10. Lemonsville—The Rev. P. Harbaugh, pastor, will preach at 10.30, "Putting Them In," and at 7.45, "Abah Tasting Naboth's Vineyard," Sunday school at 9.30. A. M. E. Wesley Zion—The Rev. A. McNeill, 10.30, last sermon of the conference year; 7.30, special sermon to the K. of P., 1, Sunday School.

TALK ON "LABOR AND SABBATH" A timely topic will be studied at the Fourth Street Church of God on Sunday evening at 7.30 o'clock. Under the subject "The Laborer and Sunday," the pastor, Dr. William N. Yates, will study the question—Do the "blue laws" help or hinder the laboring man? Dr. Yates has frequently been criticized for being too radical in behalf of the laboring class. Among those who know him, there is no doubt as to where he stands as to the intense interest in everything that affects the toilers. The laborers have a special invitation to attend Sunday evening's services.

BISHOP LEWIS TO SPEAK Sunday morning, Bishop Wilson S. Lewis, of China, will preach in Grace Methodist Church. Bishop Lewis and Dr. Bagnell have been friends since their early ministry in Iowa. Those who heard Bishop Lewis about a year ago on "God Knows, God Cares," will be delighted to hear him again. Dr. Bagnell, the pastor, will preach Sunday evening.
