s make one of his stirring addresses and Miss Mary Bell Corbett will sing.

Mrs. William Elmer is supering tendent of Department No. 2 with Mrs. A. J. Babb, assistant superintendent and secretary. This department was organized in August, 1917, for the care of Pennsylvania Railroad soldiers and sailors' families and is now for the relief of Pennsylvania Railroad families in general. Mrs. William B. McCaleb was first superintendent.

During 1918, 625 families of men in the service were gotten in touch with by letters and personal visits, An emergency hospital was established at Paoli during the epidemic of influenza and contributions of money were made to the Red Cross Messenger truck and to the tornado sufferers at Riverside. As No. 2 stands for service the hearty copperation and interest of the Pennsy women has been solicited.

M. Lanson chaperoned the outing.

REPUBLICANS TO DECIDE PROGRAM

Suffrage, Railroad and Wire Legislation Is Scheduled For Decision

Washington, May 17 .- Plans for the organization of the House of Representatives will be perfected by the caucus of Republicans to be held tonight and a program of legislation will be decided upon.

The Republican steering committee met yesterday and will have the legislative program ready when the caucuse meets. It will include the following Passage of appropriation bills by July 1. Legislation of the immediate return of the telegraph and telephone lines to their owners.

Early consideration of the railroad problem, including the necessary advance of money to meet obligations incurred under Government control

Determination of a national merchant marine policy.

Reduction in taxation, including the repeal of the so-called luxury the repeal of the so-called luxury taxes.

Rigid economy in Government expenditures and a budget system to be provided for.

Tariff legislation to preserve industries developed during the war.

The program will probably provide for a postponement of any general tariff legislation until the elections of 1920.
