

GO TO BERLIN FOR FINAL WORD ON THE TREATY

Some of the German Delegates Not Expected to Return

By Associated Press. BERLIN, May 19.—President Ebert, in addressing a demonstration here yesterday, said that Germany would "never sign the peace terms."

Versailles, May 19.—Count Von Brockdorff-Rantzau, head of the German peace mission, who left for Spa on Saturday night returned to Versailles this morning. He was accompanied by Herr Landsberg and Herr Giesberts, two other members of the delegation who had been to Berlin.

Paris, May 19.—The head of the German peace delegation, Count Von Brockdorff-Rantzau, came to Paris Saturday night, but only for a brief stay. On his way from Versailles to Berlin, the count and other members of his party went through the city to the Northern Railway station. They arrived at the station at 10:20 o'clock and departed an hour later.

It was evident from a survey of the baggage that several of those who left for the German capital would not return. Their departure from Versailles was shrouded in mystery by the French and it was witnessed by no one except a large force of detectives and gendarmes.

The purpose of the trip of the peace delegates to Berlin is to discuss with their government whether or not to sign the Peace Treaty. There is a sharp difference of opinion on this subject. Non-Socialist supporters of the government, with the exception of some leaders of industry, are strongly opposed to accepting the conditions imposed by the Entente. The Independent Socialists outside the government are just as strongly in favor of signing. Chancellor Scheidemann himself apparently has not yet made up his mind and is awaiting a detailed report from Count Von Brockdorff-Rantzau, in the meantime leaving the way open for either an affirmative or negative decision.

RED MEN ATTEND SERVICE

Ten Years In Business In Harrisburg

Starting with small beginnings and growing to be the largest concern of its kind in this section of the State

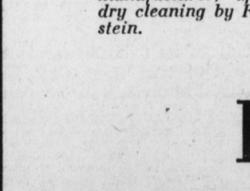

THE Dress, however dainty, takes on the appearance of the most charming new frock, after dry cleaning by Finkelstein's Process.

THE Suit is worth more to you, after dry cleaning by Finkelstein.

THE Skirt is as dapper as the new garment direct from the manufacturer, after a dry cleaning by Finkelstein.

THE Coat receives the smartness of the new garment, with long service ahead, when dry cleaned by Finkelstein.

IT IS fitting at this time to express a word of deep appreciation for the patronage given us during all these years—the incentive that made us steadily build a bigger and better establishment and encouraged us to enlarge our plant and facilities so that we can meet the increased demand for our service with promptness and in the most efficient way.

Our method of dry cleaning is the most modern and assures thoroughness of work with perfect safety to the fabric. And our process leaves no odor on the garment.

All Work Carefully Done.
