With a view to increasing the army of workers in Railroad Christian Associations throughout the United States, nation-wide campaign was inaugurated yesterday. The local association quota is 300, an average of fifty each day. That number was reported as enrolled on the first day.

At a noonday luncheon yesterday, plans for the local campaign were outlined. Addresses were made by A. G. Murray, the president; F. H. Gregory, general secretary, and Robert Ross, of the 499th Motor Truck Company, recently returned from overseas.

Two teams are in charge of the work, representing the Army and Navy. Each team has thirty-one members. C. A. Sollers leads the Army, and G. A. Golsel the Navy.

When the campaign ends, the team with the best record will be awarded a prize. Three classes of membership are being enrolled.

At the same time all contributions will be needed, and do not forget, generous lady, that Irving E. Robinson offers a $50 Liberty Bond for the most industrious. This contest closes Thursday non, sharp.
To-day is the first when headquarters are opened to receive all contributions, for be it known this will be the most uniquely handled of all the campaigns. No one is to be pressed or nagged. If you have a smallest coin for the unfortunate who "may be down, but not out," the executive committee aims to furnish the opportunity. There are no pledge cards; no tickets; the committee has a system of canvassing industrial establishments, but it will have no house-to-house drive.
As Captain Henry M. Stine, who is acting chairman for Captain E. J.
Stackpole, Jr., said to-day: "Tell Harrisburg we look to her generosity and kindly feelings for this deserving organization."

Dozens of motor messenger maids selling doughnuts to-morrow. A Kiwanian and a Rotarian on either side of the street have promised to do some actual barking for their particular booth. The public downtown must be ready for some noisy times when the "barking" starts, because it is apt to keep up uniti every basket is empty and the girls are calling for more doughnuts.

Mercer B. Tate, of the executive committee, says the public is laboring under a great mistake if they think the greatest part of this money is to go out of Harrisburg to national headquarters. "It is the opposite," Mr. Tate explained. "Only a small portion will go to headquarters. The remainder will be used right here in Harrisburg, and very Judiciously, under the sanction of the local executive committee.

"Before going to bed I rub a little Parlaian Sage into my scalp," says a woman whose luxurious soft and fluffy hair is greatly admired. "This keeps my hair from being dry, brittle or scraggly, helps it to retain its natural color and beauty, and to make it easy to dress attractively." Beautiful, soft, fluffy, healthy hair, and lots of it, is a simple matter for those who use Parisign sage. This harmless, inexpensive, delicately perfumed, and non-greasy invigorator is sold by kennedy's Drug Store and at all good drug and tollet counters. Be sure and get the genuine Parisian sage (Giroux's) as that has the money-back guarantee printed on every package.—Adv.

placed in various parts of the city the signboards which are to direct Harrisburg to the Skylark at Willa-Villa Thursday afternoon and evening. These boards are four feet long and about eleven inches wide. They are blue and yellow; and across the top of the board are two skylarks, rampant.

Blue and yellow are to be the predominant colors at this smart Skylark of Thursday. For instance, in the pretty pavilion huge revolving hoops will be suspended from the girders, and on these hoops there will be scores of giant flowers of blue and yellow. Then throughout the pavilion there will be blue and yellow iris in great profusion. The women's committee, headed by Mrs. Francis J. Hall and Mrs. William E. Wright, has made 6,000 vari-colored morning glories, which will be used throughout the pavilion, but particularly in the canteen.

Here are some of the new features announced for the Skylark:

In discussing the charges made by the bank that the call for special reports was the result of personal spite and that he did this to retaliate upon Congressman McFadden for advocating the abolishment of the Comptroller's office, Williams says he informed him that "the attitude of this office in its dealings with his bank had no reference, directly or indirectly, to any action he had taken or might take relative to the abolishment of the office of the Comptroller of the Currency, I assured him that I had not been aware of his activity in that direction, never having seen or heard of the speech which he claims in his bill to have delivered on this subject before some convention in the year 1914. I told Mr. McFadden very plainly that he might pursue any course he saw fit in that connection and that, whether he approved or disapproved of the Comptroller's office, efforts to protect and safeguard the depositors and shareholders of his bank would be unremitting."
