

RULING MADE ON NEGLIGENCE

Compensation Board Awards In Case Where Boys Were at Play

Compensation has been awarded Joseph Reilly, of Wilkes-Barre, in a claim against the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Coal Company, in a ruling which holds that while he was injured in course of play about unguarded machinery while on his way to his particular place of work, the officials of the company had knowledge of boys playing in and around the washery and that they made no effort to stop them. The machinery was unguarded at the time. The decision says "At most, the claimant was go-

OUCH! CORNS! LIFT CORNS OFF

Doesn't hurt a bit to lift any corn right off with fingers

Drop a little Freezone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. It doesn't pain one bit. Yes, magic! Why wait? Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of Freezone for a few cents, sufficient to rid your feet of every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and callouses, without soreness or irritation. Freezone is the much talked of other discovery of a Cincinnati genius.

WORSE THAN DEADLY POISON GAS

Kidney disease is no respecter of persons. It attacks young and old alike. In most cases the victim is warned of the approaching danger. Nature fights back. Headache, indigestion, insomnia, lam back, lumbago, sciatica, rheumatic pain in the joints and lower abdomen, difficulty in urinating, all are indications of trouble brewing in your kidneys. When such symptoms appear you will almost certainly find quick relief in GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. This famous old remedy has stood the test for two hundred years in helping mankind to fight off disease. It is imported direct from the home laboratories in Holland, where it has helped to develop the Dutch into one of the sturdiest and healthiest races in the world, and it can be had at almost every drug store. Your money promptly refunded if it does not relieve you. Be sure to get the genuine GOLD MEDAL Brand. In sealed packages, three sizes.

The Man Who Loved Good Desserts

"There goes Edith Bradford," said Mrs. Knowlton as she and Mrs. Winton were sitting on the porch sewing one afternoon. "She and Bob certainly seem happy together."
"I am sure they are," answered Mrs. Winton, "and that reminds me of something funny that happened before they were married. One day Edith came to me in the greatest excitement.
"What am I going to do?" she exclaimed tragically. "Bob's mother has just told me he could live on corn-starch pudding and blanc mange, and I simply cannot make either one."
She was so serious about it, it was laughable.
"Never mind," I reassured her. "There is Pudding."
"Pudding?" she questioned. "What is it?"
"A most wonderful dessert—rich and creamy and luscious."
"How do you make it?" said Edith.
"Why, you just add sugar and milk, either fresh or condensed, and boil it for three minutes. Out it comes, after it's cool, a firm, creamy mold of luscious, rich dessert."
"Well, I'm certainly glad to know it," sighed Edith. "Bob's mother is such a wonderful cook!"
"I know you'll both like Pudding," I said, "and it comes in any number of flavors—chocolate, rose vanilla, almond, spice and several others. And then you can make rich, creamy pie and cake fillings with Pudding, and you can even make ice cream with it."
"I suppose you'll finish, however," said Edith, "by telling me it's expensive and so rich one can't eat much of it anyhow."
I told her that a 15c box served 15 people, and was very wholesome. Shortly after she was married I was talking to her again. Oh, Mrs. Winton, she said, "how can I ever thank you? Pudding is wonderful. Bob raves about my desserts, and Pudding has done it all."
Order some Pudding from your grocer to-day.—Adv

ing about his appointed duties in a round about and negligent or reckless manner" and that "neither negligence nor even recklessness is a defence to a claim for compensation for an injury sustained by an employe within working hours and while engaged in his appointed tasks, nor does the fact that he went to his machine in a round-about way disentitle him to compensation. The mere disobedience of orders or adopting an authorized or even forbidden method of doing work does not disentitle the claimant to compensation."

The Board has awarded compensation in Hick vs. State Insurance Fund, Williamsport; dismissed appeals in Chambers vs. Henderson & Bros., Philadelphia; Schneider vs. Reich-Marketer Company, Philadelphia; Hoesch vs. American International Shipbuilding Company, Philadelphia, and Betz vs. Model Mills Company, Philadelphia.

Two Vetoes—Governor Sproul has vetoed the House bill making it a misdemeanor for any one to circulate false reports about insurance companies, holding that they "are not within the reason" which led to passage of the act protecting financial institutions from defamatory reports. The Governor also vetoed the bill increasing tipstaves' salaries, saying he had already one bill of that character and that he can see no warrant for any increase now.

To Add Places—The bill reorganizing the Department of Public Buildings and Buildings was recommended to the committee on public buildings for amendment on motion of Mr. Hefferman, Philadelphia. Several places will be added.

Mr. Sweitzer Taken Ill—Representative E. M. Sweitzer, of Clarion, was taken ill while in his seat. He remained in the House until the Vickersman and Fox bills were acted upon.

Board to Meet—The State Board of Pardons will meet to-morrow at 10 a. m. with a long calendar.

Leaves Granted—Leaves of absence were granted in the House to Messrs. Flynn, Elk; Ruenberg, Berke, Cook, York, and McGary, Westmoreland because of illness. Mr. Haines, Bucks, because of death in his family, and Mr. Bangard, Westmoreland, owing to illness of his brother.

Ex-Members Here—Ex-Representatives J. Adams and E. C. Schad, Allegheny; Milliran, Armstrong; Kelsey, Clinton, and Stites, Montgomery visited the House.

Return of Harrisburg Soldiers Was Caught by Motion Picture Camera

Harrisburg's enthusiastic and long-to-be-remembered welcome to her soldier heroes of the famous Keystone Division, has been made imperishable through the medium of the motion picture camera. Through special arrangement, and at the personal expense and through the foresight of Manager Peter Magaro, of the Regent theater, a wonderful motion picture of this monster welcome home to Harrisburg's famous fighting unit, is to be shown at the Regent theater, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

This picture records the cheering thousands who greeted the boys, shows the returning heroes themselves, the Red Cross members in the welcome home committee, the Home Folks' Victory Association, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, local company of the State Reserve Militia, G. A. R. Veterans and the whole parade.

An occasion like this marks an epoch in the city's history and is fortunate that the scenes of welcome are not to become mere memories. The boys themselves, their relatives and friends, and the whole shouting, cheering crowd is shown in this film. The pictures are unusually clear and distinct and it is very easy to recognize hundreds of well-known people.

After the picture has been shown at the Regent, it is Mr. Magaro's purpose to offer the film to a local historical society, where it may be kept intact for future generations, affording a permanent record of a most important incident in the city's history.

Big Trackmeet on Saturday at Island

Island Park will be the scene on Saturday afternoon of a smashing intercollegiate meet conducted by the Harrisburg Track Athletic Committee. The contest will not be very inclusive, but it will be intense bringing together Reading High School, Lewisburg High School, Steelton and Tech. It is very safe to predict that with all Tech's success this last year she will ride through the contest without whip or spur. The drawings were made last evening at the offices of the City Park Department.

"The Live Store"

"Always Reliable"

Even An Expert Might Have Been Fooled

Have you ever had clothes that looked stylish in a show window, that even stood inspection at close range and then wore out completely at the end of a few weeks? You may not have had an experience like that; but plenty of men have—They were fooled by a low price. By the time they discovered that they couldn't get style and quality unless they were willing to pay for them, it was too late. That's the reason we say that the time for a man to decide how much wear he is going to get out of his clothes is when he buys them. If he buys his clothes at this "Live Store" he is certain of long wear and lasting satisfaction for we sell the kind of clothes that we can guarantee.

You'll get value when you buy the "good Clothes" we sell for we are back of every transaction, we take the responsibility to see that you get all that's coming to you—There never was a time when we were more particular than we are right now, we realize that there are so many alluring temptations thrown in the customer's way, and it's really a little confusing to know just what to do. That's why YOU SHOULD be more CAREFUL than ever before to BE SURE OF YOUR STORE.

It's really marvelous how many new customers are choosing Doutrichs for the first time, and it's a very happy thought to us that such vast multitudes of people place so much confidence in us because their friends have recommended us—It pays to live up to your agreement with the buying public—You'll always find this a busy store, that can't be said of every store these days but we are getting the business because we have good merchandise to sell.
