City Prepares to Light Memorial Bridge to Be Erected at State Street

City Electrician Clark E. Diehl was directed in a resolution passed by Council to-day to prepare plans and specifications for the lighting system to be placed on the new memorial soldiers' and sailors' bridge at State street. The plans are to be included in those now being prepared for the State so that they can be furnished to bidders together with all the other specifications.

The commissioners passed finally an ordinance placing arc lights in various parts of the city, but delayed further action on the ordinance placing lights in the Fourteenth ward, until the new system proposed by Mr. Diehl has been studied. It is likely the councilmen will go to York to see a similar system in service there. The ordinance permitting construction of houses with brick veneer finish outside the fire zone was held over for a week pending a report from Building Inspector James H. Grove. The measure authorizing the paving of York street, from Seventeenth to Eighteenth, passed finally.

Commissioner W. H. Lynch introduced an ordinance authorizing the opening and grading of Sixteenth street, from Herr to Calder streets. Bids for furnishing 405 water meters of various sizes were presented by Commissioner S. F. Hassler, who requested that the contract should be awarded to the Gamon Meter Company, at its bid of $3,930, the lowest received.

Motion Picture Censor Limits Argued in Court

The question of how far the State Board of Motion Picture Censors may go in exercise of its discretion in declining to license a film was argued to-day before the Supreme Court in the appeal of the State from the decision of Philadelphia Common Pleas Court No. 2. Attorney General Schaffer argued the case for the State.

The court also heard the Watson appeal in the State Highway viewer case from Allegheny county and the Superior Court.

No decisions were handed down.

The court will probably sit until late to-day.

Tonight the judges will be guests of Highway Commissioner Sadler at his country home near Carlisle.

WILLIAM H. LAYTON, SR., DIES

William H. Layton, Sr., aged 75 years, died this morning at his home, 427 Fairview avenue, West Fairview. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock and burial will be made in the Enola cemetery.

TRAINED MEN HOME FROM THE WAR SEEK JOBS

State Employment Bureau Lists Qualifications of Former Soldiers

Many men returning from France after service with the Keystone Division, together with scores of other soldiers and sailors, have been placed in positions by the Pennsylvania State Employment Service, but there are still some men for whom positions are being sought. Information to this effect was issued this morning by Jacob Lightner, in charge of the service, with headquarters located at Third and North streets.

In an appeal to employers, issued by the service to-day, officials say:

"The real test of the patriotism of employers lies not so much in the flaunting of flags and bunting, in loud hurrahs and cheers, as it does in the readiness with which they will open places of employment for these men.

"While we have been able to secure employment for many men who were recently discharged, there are still some applicants whom we have been unable to place. Below is given a list of some of these men.

"If you feel that you can use one or more of them kindly fill in the coupon hereto attached and mail it."

LARGE CLASSES TO BE INITIATED

Scottish Rite Reunion Opens Tomorrow at Harrisburg Consistory

Big classes of candidates will be initiated during the three-day annual spring reunion of the Harrisburg bodies, Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, Northern Masonic Jurisdiction of the United States of America, Valley of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, which is scheduled to open officially to-morrow evening in the Scottish Rite Cathedral, North and Capital streets.

Because of the large number of candidates, however, it has been found to be advisable to get as much of the early degree work completed as early as possible. Consequently many candidates will receive some of the degree work this evening. The reunion will not open officially until to-morrow evening, when a reception to the candidates will be held.

Announcements of the meeting have been issued over the names of Edward A. Miller, thrice potent master; Franklin J. W. Horich, sovereign prince; Howard M. Bird, most wise master; William S. Snyder, commander-in-chief, and Charles C. Schriver, secretary.

Further degree work will continue morning, afternoon and evening on both Thursday and Friday, with the thirty-second degree being administered in the Orpheum Theater on Friday evening, at 8 o'clock. William S. Snyder, commander-in-chief, will preside at this session.

William S. Snyder is chairman of the general spring reunion committee, with Henry S. Gough and Andrew S. Patterson as vice-chairmen, and Charles C. Schriver as secretary. A large committee of resident and nonresident members has been named.

Suffrage Opponents Concentrate on Congress

Miss Eliza D. Armstrong, of Pittsburgh. Legislative Representative of the Pennsylvania Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage, when asked her opinion of the passage of the bill providing for another referendum to the people of the State on the question of woman suffrage said:

"We know there is no increased demand, but rather increased opposition to woman suffrage in the State and, therefore, opposed the passage of this bill in the House. We have done nothing in the matter and are not opposing its passage in the Senate, concentrating all our efforts on Congress to defeat an amendment to the Federal Constitution which would deprive the State of its right to decide its own electorate."

The proposed woman suffrage amendment to the State Constitution was reported out of committee in the Senate this morning. The resolution passed the House several days ago, and will now be taken up by the higher body.

In order to become a part of the Constitution, the amendment must pass two legislatures, the present session, and the one scheduled for two years hence.

Priest Blames Mothers For Immodesty in Dress

Atlantic City, May 20. — "Don't blame the foolish girl whose efforts to garb herself fashionably carry her to the verge of immodesty," declared the Rev. John T. Sheahan, O. S. A., denouncing modern vogues of dress before the Blessed Virgin's Sodality.

"Blame her mother," he added explanatorially.

"The mother who relinquishes the reins of authority to a seventeen-year-old daughter is a failure, and should turn her task over to some one more competent to guide her child."

CITY AND COUNTY TO PLAN JOINT BUILDING

Plans are being made to have a joint meeting of city and county commissioners on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock to discuss further arrangement in connection with the proposed erection of a city office building and county courthouse, Mayor Keister said to-day.
