

SUN ONLY NEEDED TO MAKE SKYLARK A GREAT SUCCESS

Huge Fund Certain to Be Raised For Benefit of the City's Pure Milk Fund

Hundreds of Harrisburg men and women—and all the Harrisburg babies who are going to require pure milk during the coming summer months—are rooting to-day for fair weather to-morrow. Only that is necessary to make the Skylark at Willa-Villa (Lemoyne), a complete success.

Why must it rain so much? mourned one of the members of the executive committee this morning, gazing sadly at the drizzling skies. "I never dreamed it could rain so much."

It seemed several times to-day, however, that the sun would succeed in breaking through the clouds, and the indications for to-morrow are apparently favorable, so far as the weather is concerned. They are certainly favorable so far as the Skylark itself is concerned.

Supper reservations closed to-day at noon, and Caterer Rutherford will have plenty to do to-morrow evening. The Skylark is to be "informal."

Expenses Are Guaranteed It has been announced that the expenses of the Skylark have been guaranteed by friends of the Harrisburg babies so that all money received from the sale of the $3 tickets will go direct to the fund for certified milk, ice and the services of a nurse.

"The sale of tickets continues tremendous," declared Treasurer George Whitney this morning. "I'll predict that the Skylarking crowd Thursday afternoon and evening, will be a record-breaker."

Members of the executive committee this morning were at Willa-Villa in large numbers, superintending the work of decorating the large pavilion. The floor has been refinished and is in perfect condition. Artisans are placing the huge, flower-covered, revolving drums between the steel girders. One section of the sidewalk has been removed, and a 20-foot staircase has been built to the lawn. The tent will be hung in blue and white, the Skylark colors, and carpeted in red. The carpenters are finishing their work on the willow pagoda, wherein the mystic from New York will read the future. Thousands of morning glories are being hung and scores of dozens of gold and blue iris are being placed. The stage is a mass of color. There are to be tents with canopies for dressing rooms. Absolutely nothing is being overlooked.

Reservations for supper have been closed. It was announced to-day, but tickets may be purchased at Rose's, Harry's hat store, and the Penn Harris hotel up to to-morrow evening.

The Luncheon That Proved a Success "Mary," exclaimed Mrs. Gordon to her new maid, in dismay, "what in the world are we going to do! Mrs. Redfern has come for lunch. You might be sure she'd hit upon the very day we had planned on just a pick-up lunch. We might manage, but there isn't a thing we can have for dessert at this short notice." "I can manage, Mrs. Gordon," replied Mary, confidently. "Just you leave it to me." Luncheon time arrived, and Mary brought in a delicious, smooth mould of rich chocolate blanc mange. She had saved the day! "How in the world did you do it?" said Mrs. Gordon. "Your dessert was delicious." "Why," replied her maid, "I made it with Pudding." "Pudding?" questioned Mrs. Gordon. "Do tell me about it." "It's a dessert that always turns out right and isn't a bit of trouble to make. All you have to do is to add milk, either fresh or condensed, and sugar, and boil for three minutes, and then when it is cool, you have a rich, creamy mould of dessert." "Does it come in more than one flavor?" asked Mrs. Gordon. "Oh, yes, indeed—chocolate, rose, vanilla, orange, lemon and in several flavors. And it only costs 15c for a box which will serve 15 people." "Well," said Mrs. Gordon, "it certainly is delicious." "You may use it for cake and pie fillings, too," said Mary, "and it makes ice cream smooth and rich." "Well," exclaimed Mrs. Gordon, emphatically, "there is one thing sure. In the future, we will never be without pudding!" For sale at all grocers.

Dr. Thomas E. Finegan Pays First Visit Here Dr. Thomas E. Finegan, the new Superintendent of Public Instruction, made his first appearance in the Capitol to-day. He came here from New York to look over the situation and expects to assume his new duties as soon as he can wind up his affairs in New York. The expectation is that he will succeed to the office made vacant by the death of Dr. Nathan C. Schaeffer about June 1. "The Governor of Pennsylvania made it clear to me," said Dr. Finegan, "that this State presents the greatest educational opportunities in the world. That is why I am here. "I had a congenial position in New York, where I could do good service, and was contented to stay there, but came to Pennsylvania at the suggestion of Governor Spruill." Dr. Finegan was taken on a tour of the State by Harry S. McDevitt, secretary to Governor Spruill, and was introduced to the heads of the various departments in the State, including Harry Baker, secretary of that body. He presented him to the Senators. He declined to discuss any phase of the educational system in Pennsylvania, and said he would have no plans for the future until he had inquired into the situation thoroughly. The Board of Pardon took a recess to meet the new Superintendent.

Motive Power to "Take Away Dark Brown Taste" With a "Regular" Show "We are going to take the dark brown taste out of boxing," chorused Managers Reindell and Runk, of the brisk Motive Power Athletic Club, last evening, after Doc Roller had demonstrated that a man can be a giant at the age of 48. They referred to the next sparring fray at the Motive Power arena which takes place May 28. "We won't try to get any Lew Tendlers," explained Runk, but we will have a regular jim-dandy program, with no $1,000 stars to gun the cards. First, there will be Jimmy Pappas, the phenom with "Little Bear." Then there will be Jack Wilport and Young Fulton (Dick Conlon and Young Peasos and two bouts of local boys. The Motive Power attracts the best patronage in the city, its bouts always being clean and fast; no smoking is allowed and the fair sex are in plentiful patronage. In taking away the "dark brown" taste this show will be effective.

AMERICAN DOUGHBOYS SENT $19,500,000 HOME New York. — Approximately $19,500,000 has come back to the folks at home from American doughboys in France, Germany, England and Russia since January 1, 1918, through a single channel. It is estimated that postal and express money orders for that sum would have cost the boys $60,000, but the bureau of soldiers' remittances of the Y. M. C. A. War Work Council transmitted the money without charge. At the close of business on April 21 last the bureau had handled 225,394 accounts. Every one of the association's 8,250 representatives with the American Expeditionary Forces is an agent of this remittance bureau, and the "Y" has been able to receive the soldiers' money for transmission to America while no other agency was available. By virtue of its central department in New York, in which forty-five persons are employed, and its thousands of representatives in every part of the country, the "Y" has been able to deliver remittances to any individual, in any locality specified. Two months ago the total of undelivered remittances was 1,659. Co-operation of newspapers in publishing lists of payees who could not be found has resulted in a marked reduction.
