Miss Katherine Stamm had a customer just as soon as she opened her doughnut shop in front of the Kunkel Building this morning. He was John Taeffner, of Philadelphia, who happened to be in the city on business. He's fond of doughnuts, too, remaining at the stand until he had munched the last bit of the one he paid a fancy price to purchase.

Pictures Power Growth: Director Sees Super-System

Atlantic City, May 22.—George Oits Smith, director of Geological Survey, in discussing the development of the power possibilities of the nation before the convention of the National Electric Light Association, said: "The picture of the superpower system demanded by the rapid growth of the Northeastern industrial region includes a multiple transmission line of high voltage extending from Boston through the Eastern States, crossing the Connecticut river near Springfield, the Hudson at Poughkeepsie, the Delaware near Easton, and the Susquehanna below York, to Washington and Richmond, flowing energy to serve millions of homes, a score of railroads, hundreds of public service companies, and thousands of manufacturing plants."

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.

Thinness and weakness are usually due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency for the starved nerves. Our bodies are the organic phosphotophosphate, which is indigists as bitro-phosphate, which is not starved nerves and is sold by most all druggiets and era guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitro-phosphate quickly produces a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing. This increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, soon disappear, dull eyes become bright and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health.

CAUTION:——Although bitro-phosphotophosphate, it should not, owing the reral weakness, it should not, owing the reral weakness, it should not, owing the reral weakness, it should not, owing the reral weakness. It should not, owing the last of the remarkable flesh-growing properties, be used by anyone who does not desire to put on flesh.
