The new vaudeville show, which opens at the Majestic to-day, features a farce comedy, with musical trimmings, entitled "At Half Past Two." It is presented by seven people in an attractive, staged and costumed, and contains some good comedy and singing. An added attraction on the bill is Nevins and Gordon, a popular team, who are offering their skill, "A Holland Honeymoon," which consists of song and dance specialties. Helen Miller, young woman of pleasing personality, plays the xylophone, her repertoire embracing all the latest popular hits. Gray and Parker offer a breezy comedy sketch and the Curzon Sisters, called "The Aerial Butterflies," perform some sensational feats on the rings.

Would you be able to prove yourself innocent of seven charges like the following? Kidnaping, armed robbery, grand larceny, aggravated assault with attempt to kill, motor vehicle and speeding. If you were found guilty on all charges it would cost you approximately $10,000 for lawyer fees. But George Walsh doesn't pay any lawyer nor does he serve one day in jail and he is charged with the crimes. See how he vindicates himself in his latest release, "Help! Help! Police," which shows at the Victoria Theater to-day only. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, "A Midnight Patrol" will be played. This picture shows the dangers which confront a policeman who is on night duty.

Imagine a woman-hater going to Europe for a cup of tea merely because a certain girl was serving it. This is what Earle Williams is doing in his latest film release, "The Usurper," which plays at the Victoria Theater for the last time to-day. In this play Williams takes the role of an American ranchman, and a woman-hater. He meets a girl by saving her life. Then she returns to Europe, and he becomes sufficiently interested in her to go to Europe to visit her. Consequently he finds an English Lord is courting her and attempts to beat her time. See which one wins. To-morrow and Saturday, Tom Moore will be shown in "One of the Finest." This picture lives up to its name, for it is one of the finest ever shown out featuring athletic Tom Moore. He takes the role of a burly policeman, and all it does is portray the character that enormous crowds stopped their daily routine of work to watch the comical man "shoot" Tom.

WILMED & VINCENT'S HALF-PAST TWO Do you know? It's a musical comedy that's different. Also "A Holland Honeymoon" A laugh rollicking farce. 3—Other Keith Acts—3 "The Tiger's Trail"

VICTORIA TODAY ONLY "Help! Help! Police" A comedy which will make you laugh until your sides ache featuring GEORGE WALSH The hair raising experiences of a young man who is constantly getting in "Dutch," but in the end manages to square himself. PARAMOUNT-DREW COMEDY "Harold, the Last of the Saxons" in VIVIAN MARTIN in "You Never Saw Such a Girl" MONDAY AND TUESDAY MARGUERITE CLARK in "THREE MEN AND A GIRL"

Imagine a burly policeman being the center of attraction for a city the size of New York. Stranger things than that have happened. And to prove it we offer for your inspection "ONE OF THE FINEST" Featuring TOM MOORE Athletic as a traffic policeman. No wonder, then, the crowds stopped and gaped. You would too, because he is one of the liveliest actors appearing on the silver screen. This picture will be shown Friday and Saturday. Today is Your Last Chance to See Earle Williams in "The Usurper" In this picture an English Lord of loose morals and an American ranchman attempt to seize the family estate of the Dultverton's. This is a picture you will like. Coming MONDAY, TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY of Next Week BEAUTIFUL DAINTY ARTISTIC ALICE JOYCE in "THE THIRD DEGREE" SEE THE BEST PICTURES AT THE COLONIAL

Did you ever hear of one man rounding up a band of professional criminals with an auto truck and thereby saving his father $100,000. $50,000 Prizes For Motor Race Winners

Six drivers who have won nine world's championship road races in Europe and America, will face the starting line in the 50-mile Liberty sweepstakes at Indianapolis, May 31—Jules Ablot, Louis Wagner, Eddie Mulford, Ralph dePalma, Jules Ablot, in 1913, captured one of the dual Grand Prix races run that year, relinquishing the other only to the late George Sottler, his great rival. In the race in which first honors were denied him he finished second, being beaten only by a hair. Louis Wagner crossed the start line in 1906 and took one of the early Vanderbilts run on Long Island. Two years later he returned and won the first American Grand Prix race at Savannah. In 1914, just before the World War, he teamed with the Mercedes aggregation in the French Grand Prix, and drove his car into second place, being bested only by the celebrated Lautenschlager. His team captain, Eddie Mulford, is the only American ever to win the American Grand Prix with an American car. He accomplished this feat in 1914, when he outdistanced the field in a Mercedes. He will drive a Hudson this year at Indianapolis.

"Alias, Mike Moran" is a story that proves the folly of deception. In Wallace Reid at the Victoria Theater, which will be on the program to-day and to-morrow, "Larry Young" deceives his sweetheart, his friends and his country by sending her man in his place when he is drafted to serve in the Army. Then he has to leave town to make his deception stick. His man goes over, fights and is killed and does a hero's death. Then "Larry" is picked up by his family, and his sweetheart, he is a dead man. How can he face them now? But he does it in the last year, and he turns on the devil within him and blots it from his path and confesses, and atones for his crime. On the same program will appear the moving pictures of the Welcome Home Parade of the Boys of the Twenty-eighth Division.

Benny Leonard Makes Good His Title by Knocking Out Ernie Trenton, N. J., May 22.—Benny Leonard, champion lightweight of the world, knocked out George Young Ernie, of Buffalo, in the sixth round here last night. Ernie put up a game fight for three rounds and staggered the champion in the fourth. The titleholder became mad and gave Ernie an unmerciful lacing, the bell saving him in the fifth. After forty-five seconds he sent him to the canvas in the sixth, badly bleeding about face and body.

Opening Game in the C. I. and S. League Staged For Saturday The Central Iron and Steel League will have a bunch of games postponed on account of rain, and today the management was not sure whether these contests ever will be played as the players only have leisure, as a rule, to get in one battle at a time. It is planned now to have the opening fray on Saturday, starting at 2 p. m., the opponents being Mill No. 1 and Open Hearth.

79TH DIVISION ON WAY HOME

Many Harrisburg Boys Served With Splendid Fighting Machine

The Seventy-ninth Division — Pennsylvania's own — is homeward-bound! The transports bringing the various units are scheduled to arrive as follows: Transport Dock Due Manchuria New York 24 Virginia Newport News 25 Tiger New York 26 Luckenbach New York 26 Dakotan New York 26 Kroonland New York 27 Matolka Newport News 28 Texan Newport News 28 Shoshone Philadelphia 28 Santa Rosa Philadelphia 29 Minnesota Philadelphia 29 General Gorges Philadelphia 29 Maul New York 29

The Seventy-ninth Division, with its scores of Harrisburgers, Dauphin countians and other men of this territory, is on its way home. The War Department has issued notice that a dozen transports have set sail with men of the Lorraine Cross Division, containing more men from this territory than any other division, even more than the celebrated Keystone Division. The transport Manchuria, carrying the 304th Trench Mortar Battalion, will be the first of the vessels carrying units of the division to land in this country, it being scheduled to dock in the port of New York on Saturday. Sailings already announced by the War Department call for transports to land on each of the succeeding days until May 29, inclusive. Draftees from Pennsylvania and Maryland, the first to be sent to can- tonments under the selective draft regulations, make up the larger portion of the division. But volunteers and specially inducted men make up no mean portion of the division, which made such a gallant record in France. While Pennsylvania and Maryland furnished the greater portion of men for this division, there are others from Delaware,

A DISTURBING INFLUENCE "Germany," said a lawyer of New York—"Germany now declares her pacifism. She wants to participate in the League of Nations. Our par- tor Bolshievists would welcome her, too. "But the rest of us know well that Germany's presence in the League of Nations would be like Wash White's presence at the wedding." "What caused the wedding to break up in a fight?" asked the magistrate. "It was Wash'ton White's fault yer honor," said the bride. "De weddin' guests was frowin' ole shoes at him from de gallery. Wash White was jealous, 'kase I jilted him, he started frowin' ole hoss shoes."—Washington Star.

HIS CONTEMPLATED ABSENCE "In case I do not return, you will find full instructions in this envelope. Sidney," solemnly said Cyrus K. Savace. "My will reposes in my safety deposit box. The cane you have so long admired will become yours in the event that I fail to reappear. I have forgotten my enemies. Try to think as kindly of me as you can, and— "But, gracious heavens, Uncle! grieve not your relative. You are not contemplating suicide?" "No," returned the corned-beef. "I am going downtown to make a sample of silk for your Aunt Sam- uella."—Kansas City Star.

New Jersey and the District of Columbia. In France for slightly less than a year, this division made a remarkable record during its period of service on French soil. It got in the hottest fighting shortly after landing on the other side of the Atlantic and was near the front-line during the greater period of the time intervening between then and the signing of the armistice. At the cessation of hostilities the men were where the heaviest fighting was taking place. Much of the time until the date of embarkation was spent in the Army of Occupation.

A big welcome is awaiting them! Plans for their reception, discussed for several weeks, now are rapidly taking form, so that if the boys themselves desire, the Seventy-ninth may participate in a demonstration and parade equal to that of the Twenty-eighth. Many difficulties have been presented against the parading of the Seventy-ninth as a division, due to the fact that the government contemplates their demobilization at more than one point, but various agencies now are hard at work on a scheme to give them all honor due. It is planned to hold the pageant in Philadelphia.

GUTSHALL-LONG WEDDING Blain, Pa., May 22.—The marriage of Edward L. Gutshall of Madison township, and Miss Mary S.
