Wounded Soldiers Edit Bright Little Magazine

Copies of the first issue of The Up-Grade, a bright little magazine published by soldiers at the Carlisle Military Hospital, have been received in Harrisburg. The aim of the publication, as set forth by its publishers, is to keep the outside world posted on what the Government is doing for the wounded and disabled along medical lines of reconstruction, vocational training and entertainment. It will also contain much military news that will be of interest to the men, both in and out of the service, on such subjects as allotments, compensation and War Risk Insurance. The paper is edited, managed and printed entirely by men who are still in the service.

SOLDIERS URGE FLAG FOR TECH

G. A. R. Men and Recruiting Officers Make Stirring Speeches

At the chapel exercises of the Technical High School, held yesterday morning, half a dozen fighting veterans of American wars, spoke to the students of the school, holding their attention during two hours. Commander George W. Rhoads, of Post 58, Captain John H. Campbell, and Colonel C. Deming, veterans of the Civil War, were the first speakers to entice the Tech boys. Then Captain James I. Long and Sergeant William Long, of the local recruiting station, told of the more recent battles in which the American doughboys distinguished themselves. Sergeant Long illustrated to the audience how skillful the soldiers were in donning a gas mask in six seconds. The program was in line with the annual Memorial Day exercises.

Hail Does Damage to Mifflin County Crops

Lewistown, Pa., May 24.—A hail storm that visited Mifflin county on Thursday evening did much damage to crops and fruit. The storm struck the farms lying west of this place. Charles M. Smith, the trucker, living about two and a half miles from town along the big ridge, reports big damage to his crops. The new growth of 200 grapevines, and a big strawberry patch were wrecked and fruit trees suffered. The George Shaw and the Moore farms nearby were hard hit by the hail and their loss will be heavy. In Brown township many crops were badly injured by the hail. The damage will amount to several thousands of dollars in the county. In Lewistown the fall of hail was light, but at Lake Park a suburb, windows were broken by the hail.

Marietta, May 24.—Last night Acric's theater was filled with people to listen to the presentation speech of John E. Malone, of Lancaster, when Marietta received her Victory Loan flag for going over the top a number of times. The Liberty band held a short street parade before the presentation. The flag was accepted by the chairman of the committee.

Boys Find Razor With Which Man Killed Himself

Gettysburg, Pa., May 24.—A razor pick up in a gutter where the body of a suicide was found Wednesday morning, probably tells the story of the instrument used in the act of self-destruction. The little stream was swollen because of the recent heavy rains, but it had subsided, and some high school boys who visited the place saw the razor and notified the sheriff. He went to the place and took possession of it. From marks on the man's clothing it is now believed he was W. H. Hardeson, of Jacksonville, Florida, but no word has yet been received from the southern city to confirm the belief.

RACE WITH THE GALE —and put the wind in your face. At will, you can instantly transform the delectable softness of the Peerless Eight into resistless power and speed. Like a giant refreshed, the Peerless answers the call for speed with a deep growl of brute power. No climb is now too steep or long—no level stretch invites speed which you cannot attain to the limit of your nerve to dare. In its ability to meet the extreme demands of the motor-wise, and to run the whole gamut of motor car performance, the Peerless is unique in its day and generation.

PEERLESS TWO-POWER-RANGES THE "LOAFING" RANGE THE Peerless is ready to match softness for softness, smoothness for smoothness, with those cars that frankly discard all claims to the more rugged virtues of prodigious power and stupendous speed in order that they may easily excel in soft, smooth performance. In its "Loafing" range, it exhibits all the admirable traits you would expect in an eighty-horsepower Eight of real class. Quietly, and without apparent effort, it performs in high gear, with velvet smoothness, at any speed from almost imperceptible motion to the fastest clip permissible in town driving. And through all its varied performance in its "Loafing" range, it is automatically operating on half fuel rations—in fact it uses fuel so sparingly as to shame many a lesser powered six—even many a four. THE "SPORTING" RANGE THE Peerless is ready to match power for power, speed for speed, with those cars that frankly discard all claim to the gentler virtues of ultra soft, smooth operation, in order that they may clearly excel in their ability to deliver power and speed. You have only to open the throttle wider to call upon its "Sporting" range. But instead of the usual response, you change the whole character of your car. You automatically open her double poppets and give her full fuel rations. You have exchanged the soft purr of your motor for a deep growl of brute power—you have all ordinary contenders at your mercy, and have nothing to fear from even the few cars that rightly claim the distinction of real class.
