COUNTRY CLUB'S NEW HOME TO BE OPENED MAY 30

Work on Building Started May 2 Almost Completed, Committee Reports

The new clubhouse of the Country Club of Harrisburg will be opened next Friday, it was announced this morning, following a meeting of the board of governors held yesterday.

The report of the temporary building committee set forth that the entire building will be completed ready to turn over to the club on or before Decoration Day, May 30.

The committee on permanent building has been in conference with the architect, W. S. Stoddart, of New York, for the past few weeks.

The house committee advised that with the assistance and co-operation of the Ladies' Auxiliary committee they have purchased the necessary equipment for the operation of the temporary house.

The golf course is in fine condition, it was reported by the grounds committee. The greens are in better shape than they have ever been.

FINE EXHIBITION OF GYM CLASSES

Miss Bolles and Her Pupils Carry Through Successful Program Last Night

That the annual exhibition of the Y. W. C. A. gymnasium classes held in the Chestnut Street Auditorium, last night, was the finest display of the sort witnessed in this city in many years, was the consensus of opinion reached by the spectators last night after they had seen the gorgeous spectacle.

The first part of the program, an exhibition of calisthenics, was really a revelation. Watching a wee kiddie swing her Indian clubs with the grace of a born athlete, a stout man remarked mournfully, "Gee! I'm forty and I can't begin to do that!"

The program of the second part included: "Dumb-bell Drill," 1919 Business Girls' Class; "Indian Club Drill," Advanced Juniors' Class; "Wand Drill," 1918 Business Girls' Class; 1919 High School Class; "Exercises," Juniors (6 to 10 years); "Free-Arm Exercises," 1919 Junior Class, led by Miss Turner; "Wand Drill," Advanced Business Girls' Class; Advanced High School Class; "Folk and classic dancing made up the second part of the program.
