Employes on Stand to Disprove Tribune's Anarchistic Charges

By Associated Press.

Mount Clemens, Mich., May 27.—
Witnesses for Henry Ford, who is suing the Chicago Daily Tribune for $1,000,000 damages on a charge of libei, gave glimpses of the routing of the bir Ford plant yesterday, opening testimony was along the line of refutation of the assertion in the Tribune's alleged libeious editorial, headed, "Ford Is An Anarchist," that at the time the National Guard was called out for service on the Mexican border, Mr. Ford would not hold his employes jobs open for them while absent. The witnesses were John J. Henkel, head of the employment department; Harry Sommers, his assistant, and Norman Baker, a foreman in the plant, who for seven years has been a member of the Michigan National Guard.

Baker testified that during his military service he was always reinstated and never discriminated against because of his activity in the National Guard. The substance of the testimony of the witnesses ments followed a social period.

TIN FORD PLANT

was that for years it has been the Ford policy to reinstate men who cased employment for reasons beyond their control, such as sickness or military service, and that this policy was in full operation when the National Guard was called

Date For Rose Show Moved Up to June 6-7

Because of the unusual weather conditions, the Woman's Advisory Board of the Y. M. C. A., at a meeting yesterday afternoon, advanced the date for the Second Annual Rose Show to Friday and Saturday, June 6 and 7. It was explained that the cool, damp weather of the last few weeks will cause the period of rose bloom to be earlier in the season.

J. Horace McFarland will lecture on the evening of June 10 on "Roses in America." The address will be flusting from the last few will be country for the largest rose gardens in the country. Mr. McFarland is editor of the Largest rose gardens in the country. Mr. McFarland is editor of the American Rose Manual. No entry fee will be charged for the rose show, but tickets of admission will be sold which will also include admission to the lecture.

icatory oration, but thus far the speaker for the Geary monument has not been selected.

On behalf of the State of Pennsylvania Governor William C. Sproul will present the three monuments to the National Government, and they will be accepted by the Secretary of War Newton D. Baker.

Families and descendants of the three late generals will be present at the exercises, and a battery of artillery from Fort Meyer, Va., will be detailed by the War Department to come to Gettysburg to participate in the ceremonies. The Grand Army of the Republic of Pennsylvania has also been invited and plans are under way to furnish transportation to one hundred veterans of the Civil War from all parts of the State. When these one hundred veterans come to Gettysburg, with their old battle flags flying and attended by a guard of honor, it will most likely mark the last Civil War dedication, and the final large gathering of the Pennsylvania boys of 1863.

Girl Burns Self to Death: Sweetheart Dies by Bullet

Allentown, Pa., May 27. — Nava Newhard, 16 years old, and Falmer Lilly, aged 19, of Northampton, nearhere, died in a tragic manner yesterday afternoon as the result, it is asserted, of a suicide pact, because the parents of the girl refused to permit her to accept the attentions of Lilly. Niss Newhard, is is said, was recently chastised by her mother because she persisted in keeping company with young Lilly.

The young people evaded their parents and walked to Howertown, a mile away, where they sat down by the roadside and ended their lives. The girl, with the assistance of her lover, it is thought, set fire to her dress and was burned to death, every bit of clothing on her body except her shoes being destroyed. Then young Lilly, according to the theory of the Coroner, shot himself several times through the head, dying in a few minutes. They left a note on the ground in which they told of their purpose to die, as they could not live apart. The bodies were found soon after, and were turned over to the parents.

Black Hand Secrets Bared

by Members in Open Court

Greensburg, Pa., May 27.—Start-ling reyelations have marked the trial here of Dominick Domico, who is charged with the murder of Tony Cordillo, at Mount Pleasant, Janu-ary 5. For the first time in the an-nals of the country witnesses are re-vealing workings of the Black Hand Society.

vealing workings of the Black Hand Society.

A price of $1,000 is alleged to have been set on the head of Cordillo, the killing having been determined upon at a meeting of the society in Mount Pleasant.

When the hearing was resumed yesterday witnesses testified that Frank Mialli, Italian, wanted Cordillo killed or injured. At a meeting of the Black Hand Society it was determined that Mailli would have to put up $1,000 if he wanted Cordillo killed, and $100 if he wanted him maimed. A detailed statement of the activities of the lawless gang was given by Joe Gross and Josina Dermot, members of the society, who have made a clean breast of the affair.
