Bonner, Tomstown Plum King,

Fears Rain Will Cause Great Early Drop of the Fruit

Waynesboro, Pa., May 27.—Charles O. Bonner, the plum king of the Tomstown section, east of Waynesboro, reports that his crop of damsons and sugar plums will be an entire failure this year, due to the effects of the long rainy season, which has caused the fruit to drop off. Some other varieties may be saved if the rain lets up. The cherry crop has been badly affected from the same cause. As to the peach crop the outlook is as yet problematical. The "hang" is good yet but the "June drop" is to be reckoned with Memorial Day Plans Made
