FRIDAY EVENING,

PUDDINE is the dessert everybody can make. That's because it is the sure dessert - always turns out right. All you have to do is to add sugar, milk - either fresh or condensed - and boil for three minutes. The result is a firm, smooth mold of rich creamy dessert.

Do you like rich, brown chocolate, delicious pink rose vanilla, cream vanilla, orange, lemon? Makes no difference - you can get your favorite flavor in Puddine.

Puddine is pure and wholesome, too - good for the children, and they love it!

UDDINE

Puddine is economical, also - a 15c package will serve 15 people. And you can use as much or as little of a box of Puddine as you need. It will keep. Use Puddine for rich cake and pie fillings, and smooth, velvety ice cream. Your grocer sells Puddine

Home Folks Entertain Boys With Dinner and Reception;
Dance Follows Splendid Program; Honor Roll Unveiled in Chestnut Street Auditorium

More than 200 men of the Keyland fathers banded together in the Home Folks Victory Association, enjoying a night of festivities and entertainment provided in their honor. A dinner was served at the Penn-Harris Hotel shortly after 6 o'clock and afterward the boys went to the Chestnut Street Auditorium, where an entertainment and dance was given.

Rabbi Louis J. Haas, of the Ohev Sholom synagogue, opened the program with prayer. H. W. Long, chairman of the general committee of the Home Folks Victory Association, engram with prayer. H. W. Long, chairman of the general committee of the Home Folks Victory Association, welcomed home the boys for their bravery in action, welcomed home the boys for the first of the war, and commended the Red Cross work. Majer Ment and heart interest. Big Bill does some fancy shooting that will make most expert marksmen look on withenvy, and demonstrates that he can shoot the date out of a dime as easily, as he can ride a broncho. But Bill doesn't ride bronchos in "The Money Corral." Instead he helps to uncover a gang of crooks bent on robbing a policy in the comedy-dramatic Newhoff and Phelps in exclusive mony and fun; Dotson, singing and danding comedian; Three Mellords, novelty acrobats.

West Twenty-Second street every night as the dial in the cat's eye points to midnight, a little white-haired woman descends the two long flights of stairs, opens the door, goes out into the street and feeds all the homeless cats of the neighborhood, not to mention any stray friends they may have picked up in their wanderings.

No matter how cold the night, how wild, how stormy, Miss Anne Butler never forgets her cats. Her neighbors say she has not missed a single night in twenty-two years. It's all a service of love. Nobody pays Miss Butler to feed the cats and to look out for the baby cats that will keep on coming to a world already too full of felines. Sometimes another tenant of the old house will contribute bits left from the table, but there contributions are irregular and not always substantial, for all who make their home at 44 West Twenty-Second
