COLONEL BRINGS ORDERLY HOME

Columbia, Pa., May 30.—Colonel E. C. Shannon who has again resumed civil life, has brought with him John Plumbs, a Polish youth, who served as his orderly in France. He is a machinist by trade, has no relatives, and in the service as a member of Colonel Shannon's command, made such a splendid record and proved to be such a faithful attendant, that the Colonel decided to offer him a home in Columbia. He is now employed in a garage.

The young man is just twenty-one years old and is rapidly acquiring a correct knowledge of the English language, which he speaks well. Orderly Plumbs attended his chief in the thickest of the fights in the Argonne Forest, and, like his commander, came out unscathed. Previously, however, he had been gassed and still suffers slightly from the effects of the poison.

CLASSES STAGE SCHOOL SCRAP

Seniors and Juniors Delightfully Break Each Other's Heads at Waynesboro

Waynesboro, Pa., May 30.—One of the worst school scraps among the senior and junior classes of the local high school in many years, if not the history of Waynesboro, was pulled off early Thursday morning, when the members of the two classes met in open battle on the grounds of the high school and a fight to a finish was the result. Brick bats, stones and various other weapons of combat were freely used and many sore heads, arms and legs are now borne by the boys. A number of the boys were arrested and will be haled into Magistrate Potter's office on Monday afternoon for a hearing for their display of rowdiness and disturbance of the peace. One young man, who drove an automobile through the streets at a reckless pace, was also arrested and fined.

Woman's Club Entertains Soldiers From Carlisle

Mechanicsburg, Pa., May 31.—Sixty-four convalescent soldiers from the United States General Army Hospital, No. 31, at Carlisle, were entertained yesterday afternoon by the Woman's Club, under the direction of Mrs. Robert H. Thomas, Jr., chairman of the Public Interest committee. The men were brought in auto trucks and cars and five had not been out of the hospital since January, when they arrived. They were carried from the cars to the Business Men's League House, where they were entertained with songs by Miss Watts and Mrs. E. N. Cooper, of Camp Hill, at the piano. Mrs. W. J. S. Miller gave several numbers on the piano, and the soldiers joined in singing popular songs. They played games and enjoyed smokes. Later a fine hot supper was served.

Among the contributions for the meal was 25 bunches of asparagus by M. F. Beck, which was greatly enjoyed.

SCARCITY OF HOUSES

Waynesboro, Pa., May 30.—On account of a scarcity of houses in Waynesboro a meeting to bring about better conditions was held Wednesday night and was attended by many business men. An address was made by C. Young, of Chicago, who told how the trouble could be remedied and proposed the building of 50 houses in the next few weeks.

Among the contributions for the meal was 25 bunches of asparagus by M. F. Beck, which was greatly enjoyed.
