D. A. R. COMPLETES 25 YEARS' WORK

Patriotic Women Gather in Annual Meeting; Enjoy Reports, Music, Reading, Tea

"I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of free citizens united in a perfect union one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes. I, therefore, believe it is my duty to my country to love it, support its constitution, to obey its laws, to respect its flag and to defend it against all enemies."

"This is the American Creed," said Mrs. John J. Johnson, yesterday afternoon in her report of the National D. A. R. Congress before the twenty-fifth annual meeting of Harrisburg chapter of the D. A. R. The American Revolution. The creed was formulated by Tyler Page, of Maryland, a direct descendant of the patriot, and which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes. I, therefore, believe it is my duty to my country to love it, support its constitution, to obey its laws, to respect its flag and to defend it against all enemies.

Mrs. Shergar told of the wonderful work done by this large body of patriotic women all over the country, and of their civic, educational and social interests in the states represented. Mrs. Shergar was a delegate from Harrisburg chapter and Mrs. Samuel Z. Shope the regent's alternate.

Interesting Program The meeting in the assembly room of the Civic Club was called to order by the regent, Miss Cora Lee Snyder, and after singing "The Red, White and Blue," Mrs. Elizabeth Crain Kunkel, third vice-regent, whose death occurred last week on the twenty-fifth anniversary of the chapter. Mrs. Kunkel was first vice-regent and Mrs. E. E. Elizabeth Crain Kunkel, third vice-regent, whose death occurred last week on the twenty-fifth anniversary of the chapter. Mrs. Kunkel was first vice-regent and Mrs. E. E. Elizabeth Crain Kunkel, third vice-regent, whose death occurred last week on the twenty-fifth anniversary of the chapter.

Mrs. Anna Hamilton Wood, the historian, read an original "Memorial Day" poem, and Mrs. Samuel Z. Shope, second vice-regent, read Mrs. R. K. Spicer's report of the finances of the chapter, showing that after an unusual record of war contributions and entertaining the Pennsylvania State conference, the treasury has a balance of $238.39.

Mrs. S. J. M. McCarrell, the registrar, reported on present membership 124, with one death and one transfer during the year. Four of the charter members are living and during twenty-five years there has been a record of 208 members.

Mrs. Mary Boyer McCrea in her admirable account of the year's work, gave high lights, including a meeting and reception at the Executive Mansion with Mrs. Martin G. Brumbaugh, hostess; the presentation of prizes in gold to three senior girls of the Central High school, who wrote the best essays on a given patriotic subject; a talk on the Mountaineers of the South by Miss Glenn Gutschall, after which the chapter made contributions of $75 to three southern schools where the descendants of Revolutionary soldiers are being educated, and the never-to-be-forgotten entertainment of the twenty-second Pennsylvania State conference in January at the Penn. Harris Hotel.

In closing Mrs. McCrea said: "Never have the Daughters of the American Revolution seemed more worthy of their ancestral blood than in these trying war times. Tirelessly and without thought of self they have labored and to-day have their reward—Victory and the sunshine of peace. Bravely we look forward to the future, and our ancestors whose example has been an inspiration to the soldiers. Let us be glad that we have been able to do our bit individually and as a part of this great body of our ancestors, the Daughters of the American Revolution."

Presentation of Gift Miss Pearson, for Miss Mabel Carleton, of Ryer, N. Y., a non-resident member and daughter of the late General Carleton, U. S. Army, presented the chapter with a memorial to her father and mother, the latter a member of the Pollock family of this city, in a beautifully framed copy of her father's letter to the Centenary committee of the Star Spangled Banner, signed forth his labors in securing the playing of this song as a National anthem by the United States Army.

The large audience thoroughly enjoyed violin numbers played by John Whitman of Middletown, a violinist of ability, whose beautiful tone and sympathetic interpretation won him many new friends. Miss Betty Croll was at the piano.

Miss Helen G. Allemen, children's librarian of the Harrisburg Public Library told with much feeling that exquisite story of the recent war written by Mary Shipman Raymond Andrews, "The Three Things," showing that pride of birth, religious differences and race prejudice are all wiped out by the common cause which makes men one.

Officers Are Elected Mrs. William Jennings, president of the sister patriotic society, the National War Aid, presided during the annual election announced by Mrs. Harry F. Hench for the tellers including Mrs. George W. Bauder and Mrs. Frederick L. Morgenthau.

The Regent, Miss Cora Lee Snyder, and the recording secretary, Mrs. Mary Boyer McCrea, were elected to these offices for the fifth time. The full list of officers of Harrisburg chapter includes: Honorary Regents, Mrs. Robert A. Lambertson, Mrs. Levi B. Alricks; Regent, Miss Cora Lee Snyder, vice Regents, Mrs. Caroline Parson, Mrs. Henry McCormick, Mrs. M. C. Rutherford, Mrs. George Preston Mains, Mrs. Charles A. Kunkel; Registrar, Mrs. S. J. M. McCarrell, assistant, Miss Ellen K. McCulloch, corresponding secretary, Mrs. C. M. Rhodes; recording secretary, Mrs. Mary B. McCrea; treasurer, Mrs. Rudolph K. Spicer; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Samuel F. Dunkle; prize committee, Mrs. Joseph A. Thompson, Mrs. Charles B. Payer, Mrs. Frank Seebold; governing board, Mrs. William Elder Bailey, Mrs. Keats Peay, Miss Grace McClintock, Mrs. L. E. Snyder, Herman Marsh. Membership committee, Mrs. Edward Z. Gross, Mrs. Harry C. Ross, Mrs. John Fox Woss.

Major Frank Broderick Resigns Hospital Post

Carlisle, May 22.—Major Frank Broderick, chief of the surgical staff at the local Government hospital No. 31, and one of the most popular officers connected with the institution, has been discharged from the service.

Major Broderick, a skilled surgeon and head of the Bergen Sanitarium at Jersey City, N. J., came to the Carlisle hospital after a service of twenty years in the National Guard of New Jersey.

For many years regimental surgeon of the 4th New Jersey Infantry, and later surgeon-general of that State, the outbreak of the world war called Major Broderick to General Hospital No. 19, at Otten, N. C., where he headed the surgical forces of that institution. Major Broderick arrived in Carlisle on February 20, Lieutenant A. D. L. Bell, X-ray specialist, has also been released from the service.

City Grays Appear in New Uniforms

The City Grays appeared in the parade to-day, wearing their new uniforms. This is the first time in many years that this organization has worn a uniform in parade. This organization, one of the oldest military bodies in the State, includes members who belonged to the First City Zouaves, and have been prominent in every military company representing Harrisburg ever since. The City Grays attracted much attention to-day and had a large representation in line.

U. S. Army Wants Band Men For Posts Abroad

Col. James B. Kemper, in charge of the Harrisburg recruiting district, with stations at Allentown, Altoona, Chambersburg, Johnstown, Lancaster, Lebanon, Pottsville, Reading, York and Harrisburg, has received word from the War Department to use every effort to enlist musicians for bands in the Canal Zone at Panama, Hawaii, Philippines and China.

In the Canal Zone musicians of all kind are required for the 5th band, Coast Artillery; the 16th band, Coast Artillery, and for the 33d Infantry band. Vacancies are in the 9th band, at Fort Mills, the Philippines. The 15th Infantry band, stationed at Tien Tsin, China, needs musicians. The 17th Cavalry band, at Honolulu wants musicians.

The enlistment period is three years for this foreign service. Several vacancies in the non-commissioned grades exist, and opportunity for promotion is offered.

Visitors Entertained by Kiwanis Club at Lunch

Returned members of the Governor's Troop, of the old Pennsylvania National Guard, and other men in uniform, gave a military touch to the noonday luncheon of the Kiwanis Club yesterday at the Penn-Harris Hotel. The men were the guests of William Strouse, J. Q. Rutherford and Fred Harry for a hat, given by Lieutenant Frank Fahnestock. Charles K. Ross, oral booster of the day, spoke on the mining and manufacture of silver.

Three members of the club who were in attendance at the national convention at Birmingham, Ala., gave an interesting report of their trip. The delegates were L. F. Neefe, vice-president; C. C. Merrill and H. Lutz, Jr., Al K. Thomas, president, presided.

BOILED DOWN

Not long ago the editor of an English paper ordered a story of a certain length, but when the story arrived he discovered that the author had written several hundred words too many. The paper was already late in going to press, so there was no alternative—the story must be condensed to fit the allotted space. Therefore the last few paragraphs were cut down to a single sentence. It read thus: "The earl took a Scotch highball, his hat, his departure, no notice of his pursuers, a revolver out of his hip pocket, and finally, his life."

Prize Winning Advertisements on Store Service First Prize. Store Service and Mary Sachs Most ad-writers would invert the above, putting Mary Sachs first then Store Service. Not so here because personal acquaintance with Miss Sachs has shown me that Store Service is her hobby. In fact, Store Service and Mary Sachs are synonymous. It is the personal touch entering into every transaction, that creates the foundation of this unique store service. Mary Sachs' Shop caters to its customers' every wish. An intelligent sales force is here to look after the customers' interests. That's Store Service in a nut shell—satisfactory alterations and prompt deliveries are only a part of the scheme for better store service and if you don't get it from Mary Sachs it is because the rush of business she is doing taxes the facilities—the will and ability are there! Second Prize. Concerning Service This store may be truthfully called the store of individuality. When ordering stock, I do not merely order one lot of this, or one lot of that, hit or miss. Instead, everything is ordered under personal supervision and, as I choose, I have before me, in mental review, my various customers and their likes and dislikes, and selections are made accordingly. The stock of this store does not include those, bizarre, flashy models, of which the wearer soon wearies and which become shabby in a comparatively short-time, but rather, consists of garments whose quiet richness and elegance gives the owner a sense of being well-dressed for any occasion. Folks who like to feel that their individual tastes are being catered to, will appreciate that feature of my store. Come in—not only to buy—but to acquaint yourself, by personal inspection, of the wonderful value, to you, of a store conducted along these lines. Yours for service, Mary Sachs. Submitted by Mrs. M. Lee Goldsmith, 243 Woodbine St., Harrisburg, Pa. Submitted by Miss F. M. Jones, 107 Brickchurch Road, Enola, Pa.
