World War Was Not Represented in Parade

The parade held yesterday after-noor prior to the services in the cemetery was unusually small. The parade consisted of the few remain-ing veterans of the Civil War, two veterans of the Spanish-American War and one veteran of the Philip-pine Insurrection. A few Boy Scouts completed the parade. Although the G. A. R. made an urgent plea that returned soldiers of the World War take part in the exercises and parade, not one was seen in line. The local post of G. A. R. lost no members this year.

KEYSTONE GIANTS WIN KEYSTONE GIANTS WIN The Keystone Giants yesterday de-feated the White Sox of Middletown by the score of 8 to 3 in a fast and in-teresting game. Dixon, the Giante' new shortshop, played fast ball and made two healthy swats. Morrilla also figured in the limelight on first base. Brown starred for the White Sox. The score: Keystone Giants 0.3 0 4 0 0 1 1 0.-8 White Sox.... 0 2 0 0 0 1 0 0.-8 Musbury, W. Pearson and J. Pearson; Brown and Braxton.

RED MEN TO PARADE Susquehanna Tribe of Red Men will join the Paxtang Tribe in the parade in Harrisburg, June 11. Costumes are to be distributed Monday evening. A special service is to be held in the Monumental African Methodist Church on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when the Rev. J. Frank Bradley will preach to the Golden Willow Tabernacle, Gali-lean Fishermen. The service will be attended by Galilean Fishermen from Harrisburg and Middletown.

but Not For Very Long

but Not For Very Long With yesterday morning's mall to the Recruiting Station, of which Colo-nel James D. Kemper is the head, notice came from the War Depart-ment that May 30, Memorial Day, was a holiday, and all military duties were to be suspended. The Colonel told the boys they could take the day for themselves. He went home and apprised Mra, Kemper of the fact that he had a regular "Decora-tion Day," and after the ceremonies would wark in his gathe. The Colonel told the bond here to the day for themselves. He went home and apprised Mra, Kemper of the fact that he had a regular "Decora-tion Day," and after the ceremonies would wark in his gathe. The Colonel is proud of his onlong, leuce and tomatoes. With the ardor of a regular kitchen police, he donned his overalls and with pick and spade went to it. Towards midnight a wom-an in the neighborhood saw some one working in the Colonel's yard. She then they arrived in the Colonel's yard with revolvers drawn and flash-hists showing, the Colonel naturally wanted to know what in the heek the troible was. "When they arrived in the colonel's part with revolvers drawn and flash-hists showing, the Colonel naturally wanted to know what in the heek the troible was. "When they are the burglars?" ques-

I sincerely trust that there few words might contribute to a greater interest being shown here in this form of amusement, which should stimulate the promoters to bring such celebrities as they have in mind to Harrisburg in the near fu-ture, where any legitimate enterpris-is bound to receive the support the occasion merits. As has been said, "Dr. Roller has brought clean sport back to Harrisburg," let those who thoroughly enjog wrestling, there-fore, manifest their interest by be-ing present at the match next Tues-day.
